WELCOME TO TOCCOA FALLS COLLEGE

At Toccoa Falls College we strive for academic excellence. With over thirty majors and even more minors, you have the opportunity to study in a variety of fields, such as education, business, communication, counseling psychology, music, missions, and more. You will receive a Biblical foundation that prepares you for the passions to which God has called you, whether you are planning on going into full-time ministry or find yourself in a non-religious career setting. This catalog can guide your career in these fields while explaining educational requirements along the way.

We also believe that the college experience is more than just an education. What sets Toccoa Falls College apart is our community! Because of this priority at TFC, you are able to get to know your professors on a personal level. Our professors are passionate about what they teach; they also desire to see students challenged in the classroom and in their walk with Christ. Our college motto focuses on growing godly character while nurturing intellect. Students take these qualities off campus in studies abroad, service and outreach projects, and summer camps. Another important piece of our unique community is campus life. We have concert series, talent shows, dorm events, hammocking, a thousand acres for hiking, and numerous other activities characterizing student life. Whether students are hanging out in the dorms, supporting athletics, enjoying our beautiful north Georgia weather, or studying in the coffee shop, it is easy to see that they have found true community here!

We hope you are encouraged to be an active part of our growing community. As a graduate of Toccoa Falls College, you will leave with a quality education, a Biblical foundation, immeasurable growth, and life-long relationships with both friends and professors. Toccoa Falls College is a place where you can discover what you love and who Christ calls you to be!

GENERAL INFORMATION

CAMPUS

Toccoa Falls College is nestled on the edge of the Piedmont Plain and the foothills of the Smoky Mountains. The campus is in the center of 1,100 acres of forest, mountains, and streams, and on the edge of the Chattahoochee National Forest. Located on campus is the famous Toccoa Falls which is higher than Niagara Falls. The Cherokee Indians named the falls, Toccoah, meaning beautiful.

HISTORY

In the fall of 1907, Dr. Richard A. Forrest founded the Golden Valley Institute at Golden, North Carolina, to provide educational opportunities for young people in the South who had been educationally deprived. The institute offered general and biblical studies to prepare dedicated persons for Christian ministries and service.

Realizing the need to be nearer a railroad for easier access, on January 1, 1911, Dr. Forrest purchased the Haddock Inn and 100 acres of land including the beautiful Toccoa Falls, near Toccoa, Georgia. On October 19, 1911, the institute moved from Golden Valley to Toccoa. Reorganized and enlarged, Toccoa Falls Institute which had existed in embryo in Golden Valley became a reality. Since many early students of Toccoa Falls Institute had not had the opportunity for a secondary education, general and vocational high school courses were offered along with the two-year track of biblical and theological training.

Under the direction of Dr. Forrest, the school kept pace with the advancement of educational standards in the United States. In 1928, the State of Georgia fully accredited the Toccoa Falls High School. This established a cooperative relationship with the county educational system that continued until the academy closed in 1976.

In 1937, the two-year Bible Course was expanded to a four-year Bible college program by adding to the biblical and theological studies a number of courses in the field of general education. The Legislature of the State of Georgia chartered the college division in 1939 and authorized the institute to grant the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Education. In 1957, the college was accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education, formerly the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges, and on December 13, 1983, by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

During the history of the institution, there have been seven presidents: Dr. Richard A. Forrest, Founder; Dr. Julian A. Bandy; Dr. Kenn W. Opperman; Dr. Paul L. Alford; Dr. Donald O. Young; Dr. W. Wayne Gardner; and Dr. Robert M. Myers. In October 1975, in order to keep abreast of the current usage of terms, the Board of Trustees changed the name from Toccoa Falls Institute to Toccoa Falls College.

Dr. Forrest often referred to the school as a "tree of God's planting." The tree has expanded and has borne much fruit. It has also been severely tested on several occasions. In 1913, Haddock Inn, which housed all the school facilities, burned to the ground. In 1950, fire destroyed LeTourneau Hall, the women's dormitory. In 1958, the music building burned.

The severest trial of all came on November 6, 1977, when the dam holding back the lake above the falls burst and 40 acres of water surged across the lower campus leaving in its wake 39 dead, 60 injured, and millions of dollars in property damage. When the news of the tragedy spread, thousands of people responded. Local, state, and federal agencies, churches, colleges, businesses, and private individuals gave personal, material, and financial aid. With their help the college recovered. God has been faithful. Though tried by fire and water, His "tree" continues to flourish.

The college has always maintained a fellowship with evangelical Christian organizations. Dr. Forrest was associated with the Christian and Missionary Alliance for over half a century. He pastored the First Presbyterian Church in Toccoa for 25 years and upon his retirement became pastor-emeritus. An evangelist of national reputation, he preached regularly in churches of many different denominations and personally desired that the ministry of Toccoa Falls College be as broad as the wide fellowship of Christian believers. His heartwarming biography is told in the book, Achieving the Impossible--With God, by Lorene Moothart. The larger story of Toccoa Falls is found in A Tree God Planted by Troy Damron.

Toccoa Falls College, an independent, nonprofit educational institution, educates men and women for vocational Christian ministries as well as professional occupations. Toccoa Falls College is an affiliate college of the Christian and Missionary Alliance denomination. Graduates serve in places of Christian leadership throughout the United States and in most nations of the free world. The college functions under a Board of Trustees that sets policy and an administration and faculty that implement the policy.

TODAY

As we enter our second century, Toccoa Falls College continues to focus on students who are dedicated to Christ and aspire toward academic excellence in preparing to invest their lives either in full-time Christian ministry or in ministry through their secular employment. TFC currently has 27 majors and 40 minors in three different schools: Arts & Sciences, Christian Ministries, and Professional Studies.

CURRICULUM

A Toccoa Falls College education is commonly divided into three distinct but related areas: biblical, general, and professional.

Biblical education is provided through course offerings primarily in the Bible and Theology Department. Graduates in all majors receive some foundation in Bible survey, book studies, and systematic theology. Beginning with introductory courses, biblical studies progress to exposition of individual books and clusters of books. Theology courses analyze Christian tenets under traditional categories.

The general-education program is a basic core of the subjects from the area of the social sciences, the humanities, and the natural sciences. It is designed to acquaint students with the major areas of knowledge and to integrate this knowledge with biblical truth.

The professional-education program offers specialized training through a variety of majors offered through the Schools of Arts & Sciences, Christian Ministries and Professional Studies. These courses are designed to develop the students' abilities and to give them skills in life's vocation.

COMMUNITY STANDARDS

Toccoa Falls College is a private, Christian professional institution that has sought to create and encourage the kind of atmosphere in which quality Christian education can flourish. It is believed that the college should provide the student with precept and example from which a student can develop personal values within a biblical framework.

The college expects its faculty, staff, and students to maintain personal conduct which is spiritually and morally constructive—thus glorifying the Lord in all things.

The student should understand that attendance at Toccoa Falls College is a privilege granted only to those who desire to work together in the carrying out and attaining of the aims of a Christian college.

When a student is accepted, there is implied an agreement to be diligent in studies and employment and to obey the student handbook regulations. The administration reserves the right to request any student to withdraw who is considered to be out of harmony with the spirit of the college. It is expected that the conduct of each student will give evidence of Christian standards of honesty, morality, and courtesy.

The policy of the college in promoting spiritual growth and the pursuit of learning is best summed up in these words: Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman, who does not need to be ashamed, handling accurately the word of truth (2 Timothy 2:15, NASB).

The leaders of Toccoa Falls College believe that the application of biblical principles in the lives of the faculty and the students will result in personal love and commitment to Christ, wholesome consideration for others, and a well-disciplined life.

STUDENT BODY

In the fall 2012 academic semester, Toccoa Falls College enrolled 804 students representing 34 different denominations from 40 states and 17 countries. Of the total number of students enrolled, 52% were women, 59% lived on campus, 15% were minority, and 3% were international students.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

The Board of Trustees and faculty subscribe to the following statement of biblical doctrines, thus identifying Toccoa Falls College with the evangelical movement within Christianity. The Statement of Faith is traditional and stems from the foundation of the college. Toccoa Falls College is committed to teach and defend the historic and basic doctrines of evangelical Christianity:

1. The verbal inspiration of the Holy Scriptures as originally given
2. The existence and manifestation of one God in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
3. The incarnation and virgin birth of the Son of God
4. The redemption of man by the vicarious death of Christ on the cross
5. The bodily resurrection from the grave
6. The fact that all men have sinned and consequently must be regenerated by the working of God's grace
7. The fact of justification by faith
8. The sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit in the believer producing holiness of life and power for service
9. Practical faith in the sufficiency of Christ for spiritual, temporal, and physical needs
10. The purifying hope of the Lord's imminent return
11. The urgency of preaching the gospel to all mankind that men may be saved from eternal judgment
12. Toccoa Falls College, even though non-sectarian, is to be conducted according to the faith and teaching of the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

MISSION

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Toccoa Falls College is to glorify God through seeking and developing Christian servant leaders who will impact their world with the love and message of Jesus Christ.

MISSION DISTINCTIVES

Toccoa Falls College is an educational institution, a character-building enterprise, and a spiritual formation community, all integrated into a unique way of life. Its primary purpose is to glorify God through offering residential programs that prepare men and women for lives of personal fulfillment and Christian servant leadership to the church and the world. It also seeks to glorify God through offering non-residential Christ-centered programs to the community at large.

MISSION GOALS

1. Spiritual: to orient, motivate, and lead students to emotional maturity, Christian commitment, and spiritual depth
2. Academic: to provide an understanding of the Bible as the basis for Christian life and thought within the context of the college statement of faith, and to introduce students to the cumulative knowledge of the ages
3. Intellectual: to stimulate students to develop inquisitive and creative minds that possess tools for critical analysis, and to motivate them for continuing intellectual pursuits
4. Moral: to provide the atmosphere, motivation, and support system for developing Biblically based lifestyles of wholesome attitudes and ethical principles
5. Professional: to produce graduates competent for Christian service to humanity in the areas of their individual choices

ADMISSION PROCEDURES

The college encourages applications from students interested in the evangelical Christian perspective and curriculum at Toccoa Falls College and who demonstrate a commitment to its philosophy of education. Toccoa Falls College seeks evidence of Christian commitment and character, as well as the capacity and desire to learn, in selecting students for admission. The Office of Admissions will consider applicants for admission after the applicant submits the following:

1. Completed and signed application for admission.
2. $25 non-refundable application fee.
3. High school transcript indicating graduation date and diploma type or a General Educational Development Test report indicating a passing score.
4. Transcripts from all colleges attended.
5. SAT or ACT score report.
6. 250-word Christian testimony/essay.
7. Pastoral reference form.

The college reserves the right to further examine an applicant by personal interview. Toccoa Falls College does not discriminate based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age in its programs and activities. Admission to the college does not constitute automatic continuation in future semesters. The college reserves the right to refuse admission or continuation to any student. Any student who intentionally withholds pertinent information or falsifies such information may be required to withdraw from the college.

ONLINE PROGRAMS

Acceptance into the online programs follows the same general procedures and policies for admission given above.

Applicants should indicate on the application for admission that they are interested in one of the online programs so that the admissions staff will be able to respond with appropriate information. Applicants will then be contacted by an online admissions counselor who specializes in the online programs.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

Toccoa Falls College admits qualified students on a rolling basis who have submitted all application materials and have met the admission standards. Applicants are notified of the admission decision by mail approximately one week after all admission materials have been received. Priority dates, however, have been set to assure students full consideration for financial aid. These dates are listed in the Financial Aid section of this publication.

SPIRITUAL REQUIREMENTS

1. The student must have accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior at least six months before matriculation.
2. The student must have evidence of good Christian character.
3. The student must have abstained from the use of tobacco, alcohol, and illegal drugs for at least six months before matriculation.
4. The student must have regular attendance in an evangelical church.
5. The student must be in agreement with, or accept, the college's doctrinal statement and policies.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

1. All applicants must have graduated from high school prior to enrollment or passed the GED Test prior to acceptance.
2. TFC requires all students who do not have 24 earned college credits to take the Scholastic Achievement Test (SAT) or the American College Test (ACT) and to submit an official copy of their high school transcript showing their date of graduation as part of the admission process. Students should arrange to have scores sent directly from the testing agencies to the Office of Admissions at TFC. Students can find information about the SAT at www.collegeboard.com. The SAT school code for TFC is 5799. Students can find information about the ACT at www.act.org. The ACT school code for TFC is 0868.

HIGH SCHOOL CURRICULUM

While there is no specific set of course requirements, TFC strongly recommends completion of the following courses in high school:

- 4 courses in English (Grammar, American Literature, World Literature, Advanced Composition)
- 3 courses in Math (Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry)
- 3 courses in Natural Science
- 3 courses in Social Studies (US History, World History, Government)
- 6 additional units in academic study
- 1 course in foreign language (strongly recommended)

Students should select additional units from English, Math, Natural Science, Social Studies, Foreign Languages, Fine Arts, Physical Education, or Computer Technology.

HOME-SCHOOLED STUDENTS

TFC encourages home-schooled students to apply. Regular admission policies apply to home-schooled students. Transcripts from an accrediting or outside group are preferred, but not necessary. Home-schooled students are not required to take the GED test with acceptable transcripts and test scores.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

The policies for transferring credit from other colleges, Advanced Placement (AP), or College Level Examination Program (CLEP) are listed in the Academic Information section of this publication.

NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENTS

The college will evaluate the academic preparedness of students who have not been enrolled in high school or college for more than five years on an individual basis.

FORMER TFC STUDENTS

The Office of the Registrar, Student Financial Services, and Student Development must approve students applying for readmission to the college. The Office of Admissions initiates this process once the former student submits an application for admission. TFC requires former students to submit all required documents to complete the admissions file.

A student whom the college suspends academically may reapply to continue at the college on academic probation through the Office of Admissions after an absence of one regular semester. A student whom the college dismisses academically may not apply for readmission to the college on academic probation until the student documents earning at least 12 semester credit hours of college level work with a 2.0 grade point average at another regionally accredited college.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

TFC requires all international students to submit certified, translated copies of all academic records as part of the application review process. Since all instruction, reading, and research is in English, it is essential that all international students be able to understand and speak English fluently immediately upon arrival on campus. In this light, the college requires a paper-based TOEFL score of 550, computer-based score of 213, or an internet-based score of 79 for students whose native language is not English, or whose primary language of instruction was not English.

The Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) requires that international students submit a completed Financial Certification Form and original bank statements showing support in US funds for one academic year to the college. This is required for the college to issue an I-20 immigration form. TFC also recommends international students show proof of medical insurance equivalent to the plan that students may purchase through TFC. Federal law requires international students admitted to the United States on an F-1 student visa to enroll as full-time students, carrying a minimum of 12 credit hours each semester.

DUAL ENROLLMENT

TFC designed the dual enrollment program for qualified high school students to enroll at TFC during the regular academic year while completing high school. Students must meet the following conditions to participate in the program:

1. Be a high school junior or senior and be 16 by Registration day.
2. Have an SAT score of at least 970 or ACT score of at least 20 and at least a 3.0 cumulative high school gpa.
3. Meet regular TFC admissions requirements and follow all regular procedures.
4. Have written approval from a parent or guardian via the TFC Dual Enrollment Form.
5. Have written approval from the high school guidance counselor or principal via the TFC Dual Enrollment Form.

There is no limit to the number of credit hours a student may take at TFC while dually enrolled. Dually enrolled students, however, are responsible for payment of their tuition. TFC offers a Dual Enrollment Grant for up to 6 credit hours per semester but does not offer other forms of institutional aid, including student employment, to dually enrolled students.

NON-DEGREE SEEKING STUDENTS

Students may apply as non-degree seeking students. The same policies and procedures governing regular admission to the college apply to non-degree seeking students. The college furnishes grades and transcripts for courses taken. Non-degree seeking students, however, are not eligible for federal or state financial aid.

AUDITING STUDENTS

The Office of Admissions requires only an application for admission, application fee, and testimony from high school graduates who apply as audit only students. Students may only audit certain courses. Registering as an audit student also requires the permission of the Registrar and the course instructor. No college credit or grades are given. Students who do not attend at least 60% of the classes receive a "W" for the course. Students must register to audit a course before the end of the drop and add period. Students may not change from credit to audit or audit to credit after the end of the drop and add period. The audit fee is not included in tuition. A Parking Permit is required of audit students and available through the Campus Security office for $25 per semester. High school students who desire to audit a course must first be accepted under the terms of the dual enrollment program. For audit fees, see the Student Financial Services section of this publication.

ADMITTED STUDENTS

NOTIFICATION

The Office of Admissions notifies students of acceptance or non-acceptance shortly after the college receives all documents required to complete the admissions file.

DEPOSIT

The college requires a non-transferable $200 deposit after students receive their notification of acceptance. TFC makes room assignments and schedules classes in the order that it receives deposits. Therefore, students should submit the deposit soon after they receive the notification of acceptance. This deposit is not an additional charge; it is credited to the student's account during the first semester of attendance. The advance deposit is refundable to students who request cancellation prior to May 1 for Summer and Fall semesters and November 1 for the Spring semester.

IMMUNIZATION INFORMATION

Students who enroll in at least six credit hours must submit the completed Medical Form that they receive upon deposit. Health Services must receive the completed Medical Form before the Registrar's Office may enroll students in classes. Former students may be required to submit updated information.

CHECK-IN

The college calendar at the front of this publication indicates the dates for new student registration and check-in. All students must complete the required processes on the scheduled days to avoid any additional fees. The Office of Admissions provides each new student with information about registration after notification of acceptance.

TFC 100

The college welcomes new freshmen and transfer students to the campus a few days before the official start of classes in the fall semester for TFC 100. This course is designed to help all new students acclimate to the community of Toccoa Falls College. Students will participate in activities that help them prepare academically, socially, emotionally, and spiritually for college life at TFC. All new and transfer students are required to attend; TFC 100 is a graduation requirement.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

Athletics

Athletics is a co-curricular activity promoting and maintaining vigorous, sound health for life. Beyond the benefit of the physical element in the athlete, the athletic program at Toccoa Falls College develops Christian student leadership to be used in future ministry.

The college has strong intercollegiate and intramural programs. The intercollegiate program is offered to the athlete who can compete with athletes from other colleges. Intercollegiate sports offered are men's and women's basketball, soccer, and cross-country, men's baseball and golf, and women's volleyball. The college is a member of the NCCAA which enables the students to compete with other schools having quality programs. The Lois DeLany Gymnasium houses two full basketball courts and a racquetball court, weight room, a cardio-fitness room, and the offices of the athletic staff. On campus are fields for soccer and baseball.

The intramural program is under the direction of the Athletic Director and features competition between teams from the student body.

Residence Life

Because of our commitment to being a residential campus, all students under the age of 23 are required to live in college housing. Exceptions will be granted for married students or those students who meet the requirements of off-campus housing found in the student handbook.

The experiences and relationships in the residence hall environment will be some of the most important of the student's educational career. These opportunities enable the student to put into practice Christian principles that are learned at TFC.

The large community residence halls for women are Fant Hall and LeTourneau Hall, and Forrest Hall for men. The smaller community residences for upperclassmen include Houston, Powell, Roose, Bell, Tyler, Damron, McDuffie, Hilyard, Edgewood, Reeder and Prentice.

Social Activities

Because of its whole-life approach toward learning, the college seeks to provide opportunities beyond the classroom itself to develop Christian community and character through a balanced program of social events throughout the year. These events include annual affairs such as Jr./Sr. Banquet, Christmas Banquet, open-dorm events, and a series of all-school socials sponsored by the Student Government Association. Intercollegiate and intramural athletics also play an important role in the co-curricular program of the college. Participation in student organizations provides the opportunity for fulfillment in campus life. Spiritual formation activities and interpersonal relationships in the residence halls provide shared experiences leading toward maturity. All of these are a vital part of the student experience at Toccoa Falls College.

Spiritual Formation

A primary goal of Toccoa Falls College is to be a spiritual formation community for the development of character with intellect. Spiritual disciplines play an important role in this development. We encourage the integration of personal and community-based spiritual formation practices in ways that promote lifelong spiritual development.

The college recognizes that there is a wide variety of practices that contribute to spiritual formation. For this reason the college dedicates significant time each week for faculty, staff and students to engage in communal worship, small groups, service and outreach, as well as mentoring and opportunities to receive counseling. In addition to these activities, many leaders in the fields of missions, fine arts, education, pastoral ministries and social justice are invited to campus to facilitate the integration of faith and learning through conferences, concerts and special events throughout the year. Undergirded by the intrinsic value of spiritual formation across our campus, engagement in spiritual formation activities throughout the year are both an essential and required aspect of our holistic approach to education.

Student Handbook

It is the desire of the administration of the college that true freedom of thought and action be enjoyed by the students, but there can be no effective freedom without responsibility. This is particularly true of large groups of people living in close contact and interdependence.

The guidelines set forth in the TFC Student Handbook are designed to regulate the activities of the student body so that the basic rights of all are protected. Scriptural standards that are binding on the entire Christian community have been taken into consideration in the formation of all guidelines.

The college expects that all students will read and carefully keep the standards and regulations of the Student Handbook. (The TFC Student Handbook can be found on Toccoa Falls College's website).

TFC 100

The college welcomes new freshmen and transfer students to the campus before the official start of classes in the fall semester for TFC 100. This course is designed to help all new students acclimate to the community of Toccoa Falls College. Students will participate in activities that will help them prepare academically, socially, emotionally, and spiritually for college life at TFC. All new and transfer students are required to attend because TFC 100 is a graduation requirement.

STUDENT SERVICES

Career Services

Career services at TFC are provided to assist graduates and students in finding appropriate employment opportunities. Services may include career assessment tools, help with resume writing, and a job listing service for employers. Students can explore their skills, interests, values, and personality, and how they relate to career possibilities. Students who use career services will have a better understanding of who they are and how this impacts their career choices within a biblical perspective.

Counseling Services

The counseling center at TFC provides professional mental health services in a Christian format. Services are provided in individual, group, marital, and premarital formats. The counselors provide a confidential place to work through issues that are of personal, family, interpersonal, or developmental nature. The services are available to all students at no cost.

Health Services

A registered nurse is on staff and available to advise and give medical care to the students. Clinical and hospital facilities are available in nearby Toccoa and at Stephens County Hospital.

Married Student Housing

The college provides several different alternatives for those interested in on-campus housing. The Burton E. Boykin apartments are one- and two-bedroom apartments owned by the college and are available for our married students. All rental properties are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Information regarding off-campus housing can be obtained by contacting the Office of Student Development.

TFC Books and Gifts, Eagles' Nest, and Mail Room

TFC Books and Gifts carries books of general interest, school supplies, TFC apparel and souvenirs.

The Eagles' Nest provides students, faculty, and staff with a relaxing and informal atmosphere. Light meals and a variety of snacks are available.

UPS shipping and FedEx are provided through the TFC Mail Center.

Vehicle Information

Students who bring motor vehicles to school are required to register them with the Director of Security and secure a parking permit. Every student who has a vehicle on campus is required to carry liability insurance.

Parking facilities are provided for both residence hall and commuting students where vehicles are required to be left during the time students are in classes. Information concerning traffic violations and restrictions on the use of vehicles is furnished by the security department.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Atlanta Outreach Ministry (AOM)

AOM seeks to impact lives through methods of lifestyle and friendship evangelism in the Atlanta community. By building into lives, AOM aims to share the gospel message and to exemplify the purity of God's love for all. One of our primary ministry strategies is to purposefully initiate contact and remain faithful in maintaining relationships.

Coffee by the Pound (CBTP)

Coffee by the Pound is a fully student run coffee shop offering low prices beverages to students, faculty and staff. The coffee shop strives to create a welcoming and relaxed atmosphere where students can study or hang out with friends, while enjoying a great cup of coffee.

Diverse Worship

Diverse Worship exists to bring a new perspective to the way worship is viewed and portrayed at TFC, both in spirit and in truth. The purpose of this group is to minister to people in truth and love, and to reach out to the surrounding communities.

Hmong Student Fellowship (HSF)

HSF is an organization made up of students interested in the Hmong community. This club reaches out to the Hmong churches around the United States. Our goal is to encourage believers, promote Toccoa Falls College, and deliver the Gospel of Jesus Christ to those we come in contact with.

International Students

The International Students Association is made up of students who all share a common struggle, and who desire to embrace the new culture of the United States as they adapt, cope and are fully immersed in this new culture. In addition to actively working together to learn this new US culture, members aspire to share distinctive customs from their home countries while raising awareness for issues that occur in other countries throughout the world.

Married Student Association (MSA)

MSA assists the college by providing a network in order to support and encourage married students and to provide opportunities for married students to interact and invest in the college, its participants, and the surrounding community.

Martial Arts Clubs (MAC)

The Martial Arts Club exists to minister to students giving them a new avenue to build and maintain healthy bodies and provide a safe environment to be encouraged by others in their goals. It also exists to provide a challenge that is both mental and physical by involving participants in learning new movements and stretching them to new limits physically.

Outdoor Club

The purpose of the Outdoor Club is to promote outdoor activities in a moral and Christian atmosphere for all who wish to participate. Activities include hiking, camping, caving, rafting, canoeing, kayaking, and rock-climbing.

Philosophy Club

The Philosophy Club exists to provide students with the opportunity to gain higher understanding and wisdom of things both Godly and worldly through the engagement of their minds in discussion and experiences while in fellowship with others, and to be able to apply this understanding and wisdom to their lives.

Pre-Med Association

The purpose of the Pre-Med Association is to aid fellow pre-med students in the goal of achieving and pursuing a career in medicine. This includes but is not limited to MCAT resources, AMCAS assistance, spiritual support, and to offer available resources as potential volunteer experiences related to the field of medicine and physician shadowing.

Ratio Christi

The purpose of Ratio Christi is to encourage and strengthen the faith of Christian students at public and private institutions around the world, while sharing Christ's message and love with those who have not yet accepted Him. Ratio Christi hopes to take part in the battle for the mind and begin to reverse the prevalent trend toward secularism by encouraging dialogue and stimulating discussion directed towards answering life's pressing questions.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association and its activities are an important part of the educational and social program and can be an opportunity for valuable leadership experience. It serves as the official liaison between the faculty, administration, and the student body. All students are encouraged to participate in this balanced program of activities.

Student Missions Fellowship (SMF)

SMF, composed of all college students, meets each Wednesday evening to give reports on the work of former students and other missionaries and to pray for these servants of the Lord. Representatives of many missionary organizations actively engage in the program of the Student Missions Fellowship. In addition, prayer bands meet weekly to support various missionaries.

Theatrical Society

The TFC Theatrical Society will engage the general public through production and performance of plays and other drama related events in order to enhance artistic awareness in the community and strengthen the college/community relationship. This club will seek to train members in the dramatic arts through educational events and practical applications.

Women's Intentional Ministry (WIM)

WIM exists to go beyond the surface to deeper issues to discover, confront, and begin the process of healing. The desire is to open the doors of communication and be a safe haven and a heart of encouragement to the women of Toccoa Falls College. To assist in development and growth WIM provides accountability, resources, referrals, education, and support to all interested women.

STUDENT ACCOUNTS

APPLICATION FEE

TFC requires all new students to pay a non-refundable, non-transferable $25 application fee to apply.

DEPOSIT

The college requires a non-transferable $200 deposit after students receive their notification of acceptance. TFC makes room assignments and schedules classes in the order that it receives deposits. Therefore, students should submit the deposit soon after they receive the notification of acceptance. This deposit is not an additional charge; it is credited to the student's account during the first semester of attendance. The advance deposit is refundable to students who request cancellation prior to May 1 for Summer and Fall semesters and November 1 for the Spring semester.

REGISTRATION

Although students have the opportunity to register for courses at different times, course registration is complete when a student has paid or made financial arrangements satisfactory to TFC for all tuition, fees, room, and board charges, including previous balances and completes Registration on Registration day. The college charges a $50.00 late Registration fee to students who do not complete Registration by the end of the published Registration period for each semester (see front of this publication for dates).

TUITION

Part-time student tuition for the 2014-2015 academic year is $797.00 per credit hour. Full-time student tuition (12-19 credit hours) for the 2014-2015 academic year is $9,575.00 per semester. Credit hours over 19 are $503.00 per credit hour.

Tuition rates are determined by the type of program the student has applied for and is intending to complete. Students applying for the online CLIMB Certificate program or an online degree completion major are billed the online tuition rate, while students applying for a resident major are billed the resident tuition rate no matter which format the class is taken (resident or online).

RESIDENCE HALL CHARGES

The room and board charge for the 2014-2015 academic year is $3,510.00 per semester. Students who move off campus before the end of the published drop and add period will not incur any room and board charges. Students who move off campus after the end of the published drop/add period but remain enrolled at the college are responsible for the appropriate room and board charges for the entire semester. Students who move from the full meal plan to the five-meal per week plan after the end of the published drop/add period are responsible for full meal plan charges for the entire semester.

The room and five-meal per week option is available only to seniors or persons age 22 or older living in the terrace houses. The petition for the room and five-meal per week only option is available in the Office of Student Development and must be submitted by the end of the drop/add period for the semester in question.

In addition, students who currently live on-campus and plan to live off-campus for one of the approved reasons listed in the Fallife Student Handbook are required to complete an Off-Campus Form in the Office of Student Development by the end of the previous semester. Petitions to live off-campus for reasons not specified in the Fallife Student Handbook must be submitted to the Office of Student Development by the end of the previous semester. Students must appeal to Student Development for any changes in housing status after the end of the previous semester. All appeals should be made prior to the end of the drop/add period of the current semester.

WINTERIM SESSION

Tuition for the 2015 Winterim session is $395.00 per credit hour. The room and board charge for Winterim 2015 is $285.00. The cost associated with Winterim must be reconciled no later than the payment deadline associated with the fall semester (see front of this publication for payment deadlines). There will be no refunds on withdrawal from Winterim after the drop/add period.

SUMMER SESSIONS

Tuition for the 2015 summer sessions is $395.00 per credit hour. The room charge for summer 2015 is $205.00 per session. The cost for Summer must be reconciled no later than the payment deadline associated with the summer semester (see front of this publication for payment deadlines).

STUDENT FEE

The college charges a $200.00 student fee each semester of attendance. The student fee covers yearbook, student activities, late graduation application fee, no show fees, placement fees, parking fees, and all schedule change drop/add fees.

TECHNOLOGY FEE

The college charges a $75.00 technology fee each semester of attendance. The technology fee covers student printing, wireless/network access, library and computer lab use, cost and maintenance of course management software and maintenance and enhancement of the student portal.

MUSIC FEES

The charge for private music applied lessons for the 2014-2015 academic year is $450.00 per credit hour. The charge for class applied music lessons for the 2014-2015 academic year is $225.00 per credit hour. Music fees are not included in tuition or the student fee.

AUDIT FEE

The charge to audit a course for the 2014-2015 academic year is $121.00 per credit hour. The audit fee is not included in tuition or the student fee. However, the audit fee is included for students who are currently paying full tuition in the 12-19 credit hour range.

WITHDRAWAL FEE

The college charges a $100 withdrawal fee to any student who completely withdraws from the college on or after the first day of regular classes up to the end of the 100% refund period.

BOOK VOUCHERS

Book vouchers are available for students who have a pending credit balance. Students with a pending credit balance in their student account prior to the beginning of each semester will be contacted by our book vendor, MBS Direct, via email with instructions on how to purchase books against their credit balance via the MBS Direct webpage. If a student does not have a credit balance, the student may use MBS Direct services to purchase books by using a credit card. (Vouchers are not applicable for Winterim or summer sessions.)

POST OFFICE BOX KEY DEPOSIT

The college requires all students to pay a $15.00 key deposit. The post office refunds this deposit when the student returns the key.

REFUND FOR WITHDRAWALS

TFC complies with the 1998 Higher Education Act Amendment revisions as they apply to students receiving Title IV funds. TFC allocates refunds according to the provisions listed in the 1998 Higher Education Act Amendment in the following order of priority:

1. Unsubsidized Federal Stafford Loan
2. Subsidized Federal Stafford Loan
3. Federal Perkins Loan
4. Federal PLUS Loan
5. Federal Pell Grant
6. Federal SEOG
7. Other Title IV Aid Programs
8. Other federal, state, private, or institutional aid
9. The student

There is no refund, in whole or part, on all fees, including the student fee and music fees, as well as room charges for students who withdraw after the end of the drop/add period. A withdrawal fee of $100.00 will be charged to students withdrawing during the drop/add period. TFC disburses tuition and board refunds for students who completely withdraw, or the college dismisses, according to the portion of the semester already completed. The tables below outline the refund entitled on tuition and board charges, as well as the amount of institutional aid or employee tuition benefits, refunded back to the college, for the fall and spring semesters on or before the dates published. The following table shows refund amounts for all resident students and for online students enrolled in classes in both online sessions in the semester:

Fall Semester 2014		Spring Semester 2015
August 29 st	100% refund	January 23 rd	100% refund
September 12 th	80% refund	February 6 th	80% refund
September 26 th	70% refund	February 20 th	70% refund
October 3 rd	60% refund	February 27 th	60% refund
October 17 th	50% refund	March 13 th	50% refund
October 24 th	40% refund	March 20 th	40% refund

The following table shows refund amounts at the end of the dates published for online students enrolled in classes in only one online session per semester in the Fall 2014 or Spring 2015 semester:

End of	Fall		Spring	Spring		Session Refund
	Ses. 1	Ses. 2	Ses. 1	Ses. 2
Day 2	8/26/14	10/17/14	1/21/15	3/24/15	100%
Day 9	9/2/14	10/24/14	1/28/15	3/31/15	80%
Day 16	9/9/14	10/31/14	2/4/15	4/7/15	70%
Day 20	9/13/14	11/4/14	2/9/15	4/11/15	60%
Day 27	9/20/14	11/11/14	2/15/15	4/18/15	50%
Day 30	9/23/14	11/14/14	2/18/15	4/21/15	40%

The following table outlines the refund entitled on tuition charges, as well as employee tuition benefits refunded back to the college, for the summer session based on the date of withdrawal:

By the end of day two	100% refund
By the end of day four	80% refund
By the end of day six	70% refund
By the end of day eight	60% refund
By the end of day ten	50% refund
By the end of day twelve	40% refund
After the end of day twelve	no refund

A withdrawing student must obtain a Withdrawal Form from the Office of Student Development and personally process it through the offices listed on that form. The official withdrawal date is the date the student signs the withdrawal form when the student initiates the withdrawal process. The withdrawal form must be completed and returned within two business days for the withdrawal date to be effective.

REFUND POLICY FOR CREDIT BALANCES

Students with a credit balance on their account can receive a refund from the Office of Student Accounts or request that the credit balance be carried forward on the account. Students processed for a refund by the Office of Student Accounts by noon on Tuesday will have the refund check mailed or placed in the students P.O. Box after 11:00 a.m. on Friday of that week by the Accounts Payable office.

The college will not issue refunds to students until all charges have been posted and paid and a credit balance shows on the account.

PAYMENTS

Students must reconcile all charges not covered by financial aid (federal loans, federal and state grants, TFC grants and scholarships, not including work-study) no later than the payment deadline for the semester. Students can reconcile their account balances by paying the balance in full via cash, check, echeck, credit card, or by registering for the NELNET payment plan.

There will be a $50.00 late payment fee assessed on accounts of previously enrolled students not reconciled by the payment deadline for the appropriate semester. (See front of this publication for dates.)

The college charges a $50.00 late registration fee to students who register after the Registration period for the appropriate semester. (See front of this publication for dates.)

NELNET PAYMENT PLAN

Students may register for the NELNET payment plan to reconcile their student accounts. NELNET Business Solutions charges a $25.00 per semester registration fee for any student who registers for the plan. Students who choose this option must register for the plan in advance of enrollment since payments begin before classes start. Students can enroll in NELNET via the TFC website, www.tfc.edu/makepayment.

RETURNED CHECK CHARGE

The college charges $15.00 for each check a student submits to the college that the bank returns to the college for insufficient funds. Students who have two bad check incidents will lose their check writing privileges at TFC for six months.

UNPAID ACCOUNTS

Students with an outstanding balance from a previous semester cannot re-enroll unless the account is reconciled in full or the Student Accounts office gives permission. Upon final departure from TFC, students must pay any outstanding balance in full, including all library, parking, and disciplinary fines, as well as any other charges before the college will issue an official transcript or diploma. The student is responsible for any collection fees incurred in reconciling the account balance.

COLLECTION OF UNPAID ACCOUNTS

The college turns over unpaid student accounts that are inactive for two months to a collection agency. This agency adds collection fees for the services they provide and contacts the student regarding payment options. The student is responsible for any collection fees incurred in collection of his/her account.

FINANCIAL AID

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATIONS

TFC requires all students to submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), which is available on-line at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Students will need information from the previous year's U.S. income taxes to complete the FAFSA. Federal, state and some institutional programs of financial aid use the information provided.

Students should submit the FAFSA to the federal processing center as soon after January 1 as possible for the next academic year. Students must apply every year and list Toccoa Falls College on the FAFSA. The federal school code for TFC is 001596. Non-degree seeking and audit students are not eligible for federal, state, or institutional financial aid.

Students and parents are encouraged to complete their federal taxes as soon as possible after January 1 in order to complete the FAFSA. Early submission places students on federal, state, and college rosters for priority processing.

PRIORITY APPLICATION DATES

The TFC priority date for full financial aid consideration for the fall semester is April 15. Students considering enrollment beginning in the spring semester or summer sessions should also complete the necessary steps for financial aid before April 15 of the previous year. However, for full financial aid consideration for the spring semester, all financial aid forms should be submitted by November 1. The Office of Financial Aid considers applications submitted after the priority date as funds are available.

NEED ANALYSIS

The Federal Processing Center uses the information from the FAFSA to calculate the student's Expected Family Contribution (EFC) toward the student's education. A Student Aid Report (SAR) will be sent to the student and to each of the colleges listed on the FAFSA. The college then uses the EFC in an equation to determine the student's financial need. The cost of attendance (tuition, housing, meals, books, transportation, etc.) minus the EFC and all financial aid equals the financial need.

VERIFICATION

Approximately thirty percent of all FAFSA applications are selected by the U.S. Department of Education for verification. During this process, the Office of Financial Aid compares the information from your FAFSA application with copies of IRS Tax Return Transcripts of Federal tax returns, and/or other financial documents you provide. If there are differences between your FAFSA application information and the tax and/or financial documents, the Office of Financial Aid may send corrections electronically to have the FAFSA application reprocessed.

CALCULATION AND NOTIFICATION OF AWARD

The Office of Financial Aid completes the financial aid award once the student has been accepted by the Admissions Office and the student's financial need has been determined. The college notifies the student when an award letter is ready for student confirmation. The award letter indicates the various types of financial aid that the student is eligible to receive. Therefore, it is important for students to review the information carefully to understand the exact amount and type of financial aid offered. Students must review the award letter and indicate whether they accept or decline each type of financial aid and return a signed copy of the award letter to the financial aid office. New incoming students should direct questions to their admissions counselor. Returning students should direct questions to a financial aid counselor in the Office of Student Financial Services.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

Satisfactory academic progress is the minimum requirement for a student to receive federal, state, and college financial aid. Some financial aid programs have requirements that are more rigorous.

The Office of Financial Aid determines Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) by evaluating the cumulative grade point average (GPA) and the completion rate (cumulative credit hours earned divided by cumulative credit hours attempted) at the conclusion of each payment period (fall, spring and summer semesters) of each academic year.

Qualitative Standard

The minimum required Cumulative GPA for each benchmark is as follows:

CREDIT HOURS ATTEMPTED	CUM GPA REQUIRED
0 – 23.9	1.50
24 – 47.9	1.70
48 – 71.9	1.90
72 and above	2.00

Grades of A, B, C, D, F and FX are used in computing a cumulative GPA. Grades of AU, S, U, W, WF and WP will not impact the cumulative GPA. Course incompletes will not impact the qualitative standard of satisfactory academic progress, but should be completed as soon as possible.

Quantitative Standard

The minimum number of cumulative credit hours a student must have earned at the end of each payment period is at least 67% of the cumulative credit hours attempted.

Grades of A, B, C, D, F, FX, S, U, WF, WP, TR and I are used in computing the percentage of course work attempted and completed. Grades of AU and W are not used in computing the percentage of coursework attempted and completed. Course incompletes will impact the quantitative standard of satisfactory academic progress and should be completed as soon as possible. Courses accepted by the Registrar's Office for transfer from another college are treated as both attempted and completed courses at TFC in calculating the completion rate.

The maximum time frame that a full-time student has for completing a bachelor's or associate's degree is 150% of the hours required for the degree. Financial aid recipients must complete their program of study without having attempted more than 150 percent of the credit hours required to complete their curriculum. This provides up to 189 attempted semester hours for student financial aid recipients to complete a 126 semester hour program.

A student failing to meet the minimum requirements for satisfactory academic progress, reviewed at the end of each semester, will be placed on financial aid warning for the following semester, during which time the student remains eligible to receive financial aid. After being placed on financial aid warning, if the student is still not meeting SAP at the end of the following semester, the student is placed on financial aid suspension and is ineligible to receive federal, state and institutional financial aid for subsequent semesters until the student achieves satisfactory academic progress. This means that the student will have to bear the full cost of attendance without financial aid until the student achieves satisfactory academic progress.

In cases of extreme and unusual circumstances, the student may appeal a financial aid suspension and loss of financial aid in writing to the Director of Financial Aid for the Financial Aid Appeals Committee to review. Additional information regarding Satisfactory Academic Progress and the appeals procedure is available on the financial aid page of the TFC website.

TITLE IV FEDERAL STUDENT AID PROGRAMS FEDERAL AID ELIGIBILITY

Students must meet the following criteria to be eligible for Title IV student aid programs:

1. Have financial need, except for some loan programs.
2. Have a high school diploma or GED certificate.
3. Be enrolled or accepted as a degree-seeking student.
4. Be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen.
5. Have a valid Social Security Number.

6. Make satisfactory academic progress.

7. Sign a statement on the FAFSA certifying that the student will use federal student aid only for educational purposes and that the student is not in default on a federal student loan and does not owe any money on a federal student grant.

FEDERAL PELL GRANT

The Federal Pell Grant is awarded to undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor's or a professional degree. Students do not have to repay a Federal Pell Grant. The award for the 2014-2015 academic year ranges from $587 to $5,730 per year. The amount of the award is based on the cost of attendance, the EFC, enrollment status (full-time or part-time) and the number of semesters attended in the academic year. Award amounts are subject to change annually.

FEDERAL SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANT (SEOG)

The Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) is for undergraduates with exceptional financial need. Pell Grant recipients with a "0" EFC will be the first to receive FSEOG based on the school's availability of SEOG funds. The maximum award for the 2014-2015 academic year is $200 per semester. The amount of the award is based on the EFC and enrollment status (full-time or part-time). Like the Pell Grant, students do not have to repay a SEOG.

FEDERAL WORK-STUDY PROGRAM

The Federal Work-Study Program provides funding for jobs for students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay education expenses. TFC employs many students through the work-study program. The college expects students to perform work functions for all hours documented on their time cards. The college withholds federal and state taxes from wages earned and issues checks to students on a monthly basis. The Office of Financial Aid will award the amount of FWS a student is eligible to earn. It is the student's responsibility to obtain a job. Positions, award amounts and pay scales are listed on the Student Employment page on the TFC website.

FEDERAL DIRECT LOAN PROGRAM FEDERAL SUBSIDIZED LOAN

The subsidized loan is a low-interest student loan, funded directly by the federal government and awarded on the basis of financial need. The federal government does not charge interest on subsidized loans while borrowers are enrolled at an eligible school at least half time. The federal government pays the interest until the borrower begins the repayment period. The maximum amount a student may borrow in a subsidized loan in any single year is equal to the cost of attendance minus the sum of all forms of financial aid already awarded minus the EFC, not to exceed the limits outlined below under "Federal Loan Amounts and Limits." Once the borrower begins the repayment period of the loan, interest charges will start accruing. Students enrolling in college for the first time after 7/1/2013 cannot have loans subsidized longer than 150% of the degree/program length.

FEDERAL UNSUBSIDIZED LOAN

The unsubsidized loan is a low-interest loan available to students who meet the need criteria for a subsidized loan and to students who do not meet the financial-need criteria for a subsidized loan. The Office of Financial Aid may award unsubsidized loans based on the cost of attendance. The federal government does not make interest payments for the borrower. The borrower is responsible for all interest charges on the loan, but does not have to make payments on the loan while enrolled in college. The federal government charges interest to the borrower from the time the federal government disburses the loan until the student pays it in full. The maximum a student may borrow in a single year is equal to the cost of attendance minus the sum of all forms of financial aid already awarded, not to exceed the limits outlined below.

FEDERAL LOAN AMOUNTS AND LIMITS

Eligible students enrolled at least half-time may qualify for a Federal Direct Loan. Dependent students may borrow up to $5500 ($3500 subsidized) per year as a freshman, $6500 ($4500 subsidized) per year as a sophomore and $7500 ($5500 subsidized) per year as a junior or senior. The cumulative lifetime maximum for dependent students is $31,000 (no more than $23,000 may be subsidized). Independent students may borrow an additional amount (unsubsidized only) at the following scale: freshman or sophomore - $4000, junior or senior - $5000. The cumulative lifetime maximum for independent students is $57,500 (no more than $23,000 may be subsidized). Repayment begins six months after a student graduates, withdraws, or drops below half-time enrollment. The net origination fee for Federal Direct Loans for 2014-2015 is 1.072% of the principal amount of each Direct loan. (Congress may change rates, loan amounts and loan fees at any times.)

FEDERAL PLUS (PARENT) LOAN

A parent of a dependent student enrolled at least half-time is eligible to apply for a PLUS loan. The parent applying for the loan must also be a citizen or resident of the United States, pass a credit check, and not be in default or owe a refund to any student financial assistance program. The yearly limit on a PLUS loan is equal to the cost of attendance minus the sum of all other forms or financial aid, including loans, already received. Repayment begins within 60 days after the lender disburses the final portion of the loan. For loans disbursed beginning 7/1/2008, parents have the option to postpone repayment until 6 months after the beneficiary student leaves school or drops below half-time enrollment. If payments are postponed, interest will accrue and will be capitalized on the unpaid loan balance. PLUS Loans generally must be repaid within 10 years. The current interest rate is fixed at 6.41% and begins to accrue as soon as the lender disburses the loan. The net origination fee for PLUS Loans for 2014-2015 is 4.288%. (Congress may change these rates, loan amounts and loan fees at any time for future loans).

FEDERAL PERKINS LOAN

The Office of Financial Aid awards a limited number of Perkins loans based on financial need. Repayment begins nine months after a student graduates, withdraws, or drops below half-time enrollment. Students can defer repayment for certain kinds of federal and volunteer service. Students may borrow up to $5500 per year for all levels, depending upon the availability of Perkins Loan funds at the school. The cumulative maximum is $20,000. The interest rate is 5.0%, and begins with the first loan repayment. There is no processing fee on Perkins loans. Loans are dependent upon the availability of funds to the school.

OTHER FEDERAL STUDENT AID PROGRAMS VETERANS ADMINISTRATION EDUCATION BENEFITS

Various programs are available for veterans, reservists, and their dependents. Students can obtain information and applications from state veteran's affairs offices. Students should consult the policies on transferring credits from other sources in the Academic Information section of this publication. A Certificate of Eligibility is required before the school can certify the V.A. Benefits. Certification of V.A. Benefits is sent to the V.A. after the drop/add period each semester.

STATE OF GEORGIA STUDENT AID PROGRAMS GEORGIA TUITION EQUALIZATION GRANT (GTEG)

The Georgia Tuition Equalization Grant (GTEG) program provides grants to eligible Georgia residents who attend an approved private college in Georgia. Students must be U.S. citizens or classified as permanent resident aliens, as well as legal residents of Georgia, as defined by the Georgia Student Finance Authority, for a minimum of twenty four consecutive months immediately preceding enrollment. Students must enroll full-time in an undergraduate program. Certain other conditions apply. The current award for GTEG is $350.00 per semester. (State legislative proposals may change the GTEG award amount at any time.)

HOPE/ZELL MILLER SCHOLARSHIP

The Helping Outstanding Pupils Educationally (HOPE) Scholarship program provides scholarships to eligible Georgia residents who attend an approved college or university in Georgia. Students must be U.S. citizens or eligible non-citizen for Title IV funds, be a 1996 or later graduate of an eligible high school with a "B" average (3.0 HOPE GPA) in the core curriculum, and meet HOPE's Georgia residency requirement. Certain other conditions apply. Current legislative action has set the award amount for the 2014-2015 academic year at $3,708 per year ($1,854 per semester) for full-time (enrolled for 12 hours or more) attendance. For students attending part-time for a semester (less than twelve credit hours and greater than or equal to six credit hours), the award amount is one-half of the full-time award amount per semester. HOPE funding discontinues after 127 attempted credit hours. The Zell Miller Scholarship is provided for graduating H.S. students with at least a 3.7 GPA and a 1200 SAT score (critical reading + math). The Zell Miller Scholarship amount will be $4,000 per year ($2,000 per semester) and will be awarded in lieu of the HOPE Scholarship.

All state aid is subject to change annually. For more detailed information regarding state regulations for the HOPE and GTEG program go to www.gacollege411.org or contact the Office of Financial Aid.

TFC SCHOLARSHIPS & GRANTS

The College encourages all students to submit a FAFSA to maximize their potential for financial aid. Only full-time, traditional (not Online) students are eligible for institutional financial aid. Students confirm offers of financial aid by submitting all documents needed to complete their financial aid files. The minimum required cumulative GPA for any institutional scholarship or grant is a 2.0. Some scholarships and grants may require a higher GPA.

The Office of Financial Aid considers college scholarships and grants only after all federal and state scholarships and grants have been applied to the student account. The total amount of institutional scholarships and grants awarded cannot exceed the actual remaining need (cost of tuition, on campus room and board, and fees less any federal and state scholarships and grants). The Office of Financial Aid awards college financial aid in two increments: half for the fall semester and half for the spring semester. TFC does not award summer institutional aid. Students who have a lapse in enrollment of more than one semester forfeit all institutional scholarships and grants previously awarded.

TFC SCHOLARSHIP

The Toccoa Falls College Scholarship is awarded to new, incoming students who enroll for the first time at TFC or who enrolled for the Fall 2011 semester or later. Based on academic achievement, we award a scholarship package which reflects a pooling of all of our scholarships. Upon acceptance and receipt of a student's deposit, the scholarship is awarded to the student.

ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIPS

Entrance scholarships are based on academic merit and are awarded to currently enrolled U.S. students who enrolled for the first time at TFC prior to the Fall 2011 semester. Students can renew entrance scholarships each year, up to four years, provided they continue to meet the minimum renewal standards. The Office of Financial Aid awards only one entrance scholarship to each eligible student. Students should contact the Financial Aid Office for eligibility requirements.

FUNDED AND ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

The college bases these scholarships on academic merit and specific requirements consistent with donor wishes. Currently enrolled students should contact a financial aid counselor for eligibility requirements. The college awards over 40 different funded and endowed scholarships each year depending upon the availability of funds. Endowed scholarships require completion of the FAFSA by the priority deadline of April 15.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship is for currently enrolled international students who demonstrate academic achievement. The scholarship ranges from $2,000 to $5,000 per year. This scholarship is awarded in lieu of the TFC Scholarship.

CHRISTIAN WORKER DEPENDENT GRANT

This grant is only for dependent children of clergy and missionaries, according to the following categories: a) pastor, b) currently serving full-time ministerial staff or c) currently serving missionaries appointed by their denomination. The qualifying minister/missionary must be the primary family income source. The parents should be either ordained or licensed by their denomination and active in ministry. The amount is $500 per semester or $1,000 per year.

SIBLING GRANT

This grant is for families of currently enrolled students who enrolled for the first time at TFC prior to the Fall 2011 semester that have at least two single children (single as of the check-in day for the semester) attending TFC full-time at the same time. The amount of the grant is $250 per semester or $500 per year for each child.

MARRIED STUDENT SPOUSE GRANT

This grant is for the spouse of a full-time student. The grant covers the cost of one course of up to three-credit hours for audit or for credit per fall or spring semester. The grant is not available for Winterim or summer school and cannot be used in conjunction with any other TFC institutional aid. The couple must be married prior to first-time matriculation at TFC to be eligible.

DUAL ENROLLMENT GRANT

This grant is for high school students who are dual enrolled at the college. See the Admissions section of this publication for dual enrollment eligibility requirements.

TFC GRANT

This grant is available for currently enrolled students who enrolled for the first time at TFC prior to the Fall 2011 semester and demonstrate financial need. Academic merit is also a factor in awarding these college grants.

OUTSIDE SCHOLARSHIPS

The College accepts scholarship donations from organizations for individual students. Official documentation is required. Anticipated scholarships will be removed from the student's financial aid package if documentation is not received by midpoint of the semester.

CHURCH MATCHING GRANT

The Church Matching Grant is available to full-time, residential students of Toccoa Falls College during the fall and spring semesters. Toccoa Falls College will match up to $1,500 ($750 per semester) of scholarship funds given by a student's church. The source of the funds must be the church's general budget or established scholarship fund. The funds cannot come from a member of the student's immediate or extended family through the church's operating accounts. A Church Matching Grant Verification Form must be completed by the church.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

STUDENT RIGHTS

Students have the right to know the following:

1. The financial assistance that is available, including information on all federal, state, and institutional financial aid programs.
2. The deadlines for submitting applications for each of the financial aid programs
3. The cost of attending and the policies on refunds to students who withdraw from school.
4. The criteria used to select financial aid recipients.
5. How financial needs are determined. This includes the consideration of costs for tuition and fees, room and board, travel, books and supplies, personal and miscellaneous expenses.
6. The details regarding the various programs in the student aid award. If the student believes that the college made the award in an unfair manner, the student may request reconsideration of the award.
7. The portion of the financial aid award that the student must repay and the portion that is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, the student has the right to know the interest rate, the total amount the student must repay, the length of time allowed to repay the loan, and when repayment begins.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

It is the student's responsibility to do the following:

1. Complete the application for student financial aid (FAFSA) accurately, and submit it to the appropriate office before the deadline. Errors may delay the receipt of financial aid. Intentional falsification of information on application forms for federal aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the US Criminal Code.
2. Complete any TFC forms or submit any documents needed to process the student's financial aid.
3. Return all additional documentation including verification, corrections, and new information requested by either the Office of Financial Aid or the agency to which the student submitted the application.
4. Read, understand, and keep copies of all submitted forms.
5. Accept the responsibility for all agreements signed.
6. Notify the college and the lender of changes in name, address, or school enrollment status.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE DISCLOSURE

The Director of Student Financial Services is responsible for disclosure of college and financial assistance information and can be contacted by writing to the following address: Director of Student Financial Services, Toccoa Falls College, 107 Kincaid Drive, MCS 900, Toccoa Falls, GA 30598.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Academic life at Toccoa Falls College centers on the Seby Jones Library, a two-story building located in the middle of campus. The library provides members of the college community with resources for their intellectual, spiritual and cultural development. The library's total learning resources include holdings of over 240,000 volumes. Periodicals, including scholarly journals, total 130 current subscriptions as well as a retrospective collection of bound volumes. As a participant in the statewide GALILEO library network, the library provides access to over 150 databases, including over 73,000 full-text periodicals, indexing, encyclopedias, newspapers, statistical books and Internet resources.

The library houses the following collections: general books, reference, print periodicals and media. A Curriculum and TESOL Lab collection is also available for students majoring in Teacher Education. Ministry & Leadership majors will find curriculum pertinent to their studies housed in their classroom building. Music Scores and Music CDs are easily accessible to Music majors in the Music Department area of Grace Chapel.

MEDIA AND TECHNOLOGY

Both floors of the library provide access to Windows and Mac computers for student use. Laptops and iPads are also available for checkout for use within the building. Equipment for listening, viewing and editing media is provided. DVDs, CDs, and VHS tapes are available for viewing or checkout. The library also provides laminating services and materials for making bulletin boards. A color copier and printers are available for student use.

The library supplies and maintains the permanent projection equipment in campus classrooms as well as provides portable multimedia projectors, laptops and other media equipment for checkout to faculty, staff and students for campus use. Workshops are offered periodically to assist students in using technology and in producing and editing media.

THE LIBRARY ONLINE

The library's online catalog, Athena, is available on computers in the library as well as over the Internet. The library's webpage provides access to many of the library's services including: searching the library's catalog, reading electronic reserves, searching library databases, checking your library account, renewing materials online, requesting an interlibrary loan, asking a reference question, reading the library's collection of almost 170,000 electronic books, as well as making suggestions for improving library services.

INTERNET USAGE POLICY

The library expects students to abide by the campus "Internet Usage Policy" outlined in the TFC Student Handbook when using library computers.

RESEARCH ASSISTANCE

The reference staff offers individual assistance with library research including instruction on using the Internet, locating library resources and searching online databases. Reference hours are Monday – Thursday, 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. and 6:00 – 11:30 p.m., Friday, 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m., and Saturday 1:00 – 5:00 p.m. and Sunday 6:00 p.m. – 11:30 p.m. Online reference help is available through email, and phone during posted hours.

The library allows faculty and students to borrow materials from other libraries across the United States through its interlibrary loan service. Students can make interlibrary loan requests via the library's web page, from any library database or by email at ill@tfc.edu.

FACILITIES

A variety of seating is provided throughout the library to accommodate a diversity of user needs. The first floor provides areas for individual and group study. A coffee bar is available providing a more casual atmosphere. The second floor accommodates more research oriented activities by providing individual carrels and large study tables. A twelve-seat conference room is also available for scheduled group meetings. Wireless Internet access is available throughout the library for students who bring their own wireless devices.

CIRCULATION SERVICES

Most library materials have a check-out period of two weeks with renewal privileges. VHS and DVDs circulate for three days. Students may renew materials up to three times at the Help Desk, by phone or via the library webpage.

Fees for lost materials include the replacement cost plus a processing fee. Fines are charged for overdue materials. Brochures with basic library policies and procedures are available in the library and on the library's webpage.

The University of Georgia libraries, the GPALS (Georgia Private Academic Libraries) consortium libraries and the Toccoa Public Library provide circulation privileges to students in good standing at Toccoa Falls College. Students interested in receiving a GPALS or UGA library card can do so at the Reference Desk.

LIBRARY HOURS

Regular library hours are:

Monday – Thursday	7:45 a.m. – 11:30 p.m.
Friday	7:45 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.
Saturday	9:00 a.m. – 10:00 p.m.
Sunday	6:00 p.m. – 11:30 p.m.

Exceptions are posted on the library door.

ARCHIVES

The library maintains the College Archive, which is located on the second floor of the Library. It houses records that document the history of Toccoa Falls College as well as the personal library of founder, Richard A. Forrest. The archive is available to the college community, alumni and other interested persons by appointment.

ACCREDITATION AND MEMBERSHIPS

Toccoa Falls College is incorporated under the laws of the State of Georgia as a four-year college and is authorized by the Georgia State Legislature to grant the baccalaureate degree.

Toccoa Falls College is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award Associate and Bachelor degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Toccoa Falls College. Toccoa Falls College is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music (11250 Roger Bacon Drive, Suite 21, Reston, VA 22090: telephone number (703)437-0700), an institutional accrediting body recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. The Teacher Education and Music Education programs are approved by the Professional Standards Commission of the State of Georgia, and graduates are eligible for teacher Certification upon graduation.

In addition, the college is listed by the United States Department of Education in the directory of Accredited Institutions of Higher Learning, approved for the training of veterans and certain of their dependents, approved by the State Department of Vocational Rehabilitation and approved by the United States Department of Justice for the training of foreign students.

Toccoa Falls College holds full membership with the Council of Christian Colleges and Universities as well as membership in a number of regional and national professional organizations in order to maintain the highest of standards, strengthen itself, and keep abreast of current developments in educational trends.

ACADEMIC SESSIONS

Toccoa Falls College operates on the semester system. The regular fall and spring semesters are 15 weeks of class plus an additional period for final examinations. Winterim is a two-week accelerated term in early January for all new freshmen and transfer students. Additional courses are offered during Winterim for other students. Summer school is made up of two four-week sessions in May, June and July.

ACADEMIC DIVISIONS

The academic divisions of the college are identified as Schools and Departments. The School of Arts and Sciences includes the Departments of Humanities & Natural Sciences, Communication, and Counseling. The School of Christian Ministries includes the Departments of Bible and Theology, Ministry and Leadership, and Global Ministries. The School of Professional Studies includes the Departments of Business Administration, Music, and Teacher Education. In order to qualify as a Department, it must offer at least one major program leading to an academic degree.

RECORDS

PRIVACY RIGHTS

In accordance with FERPA, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as amended, Toccoa Falls College guarantees any student who is or was attending Toccoa Falls College the right of access to inspect and review their educational records, subject only to certain specific exceptions. With other limited exceptions, any employee of Toccoa Falls College will not disclose personally identifiable information from educational records to any third party without the written consent of the student.

The college guarantees each student an opportunity to challenge the accuracy of information contained in any file or record that the student may access, including the right to a hearing if so requested. Each student also has the right to file a complaint directly with the U.S. Department of Education whenever the student believes the rights afforded the student by the college policy or the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act have been violated. Students can obtain copies of the complete college policy statement on student education records from the Registrar's Office.

REQUEST TO PREVENT DISCLOSURE OF DIRECTORY INFORMATION

The Registrar's Office provides forms to request non-disclosure of directory information at fall registration. The Registrar's Office uses the form to carry out student desires regarding release of directory information from education records. Forms are effective only for one year; therefore, students must renew this form each fall.

RECORDS RETENTION POLICY

The transcript is the permanent historical record of the student's academic performance at Toccoa Falls College. It contains the term-by-term record of enrollment in courses, grades awarded, and degrees conferred. The Registrar's Office permanently retains the transcript, along with a record of Student Ministry activities and credit, in the student's file. The student's file also contains supplemental material associated with admission to TFC, enrollment, and graduation. Examples include petitions for exemption to policy, degree audits, evaluations of transferred work, declaration of major forms, and miscellaneous correspondence. The office destroys these supplemental materials five years after the student's last day of attendance.

TRANSCRIPTS

The Registrar's Office keeps the permanent record of all credits earned by each student on file. The college does not issue transcripts unless the student fulfills all financial obligations owed to the college. Signed consent forms are necessary when ordering transcripts.

REGISTRATION AND SCHEDULING CONCERNS

COURSE LOAD

The normal course load for fall and spring semesters is 12 to 18 credit hours with additional charges for any credit hours over 19. Fewer than 12 credit hours is considered a part-time load. Summer school is made up of two four-week sessions. Students may take up to 6 credit hours each session. A student must enroll in 12 credit hours over the two sessions for full-time enrollment.

CLASS OVERLOAD

Students may register for a maximum of 18 credit hours in a regular semester, 3 credit hours in Winterim, or 6 credit hours in a single summer session. Students must have written approval from the Registrar to register for any credit hours above these limits. Students should consult the Student Accounts section of this publication for class overload charges.

CLASS STANDING

The college classifies students based on total credit hours earned:

CREDIT HOURS EARNED	CLASS STANDING
0 - 29	Freshman
30 - 59	Sophomore
60 - 89	Junior
90+	Senior

ROLE OF THE ACADEMIC ADVISOR

The college assigns each incoming student an academic advisor in the anticipated field of study as designated on his/her course selection form. If a student's declared major changes, they are assigned a new advisor from their chosen major. The faculty advisor is an integral part of the student's educational program, so it is important to establish an ongoing relationship. The advisor assists students in planning a course schedule each semester and helps students select appropriate courses and electives that best support their educational and vocational goals. In all instances, however, students carry full responsibility for completing their program of study. Students cannot hold advisors liable for student failure to meet specified program requirements.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE ADVISING PROCESS

Students should take advantage of the opportunity to talk with their academic advisor. In the first meeting, students should introduce themselves and explain why they are there. Advisors would like to know as much as possible about each student's educational and vocational plans. Students should tell advisors about learning problems, special needs, failure experiences, or financial problems that may detract from academic work. Many times, there are campus or community resources available to assist students. Keeping a file of personal records and bringing it to an appointment with an advisor is recommended. Students should be assertive and ask questions if they think they have received insufficient or misleading information.

Students should read as much as they can about institutional and school requirements before talking with their advisor. Communication with an advisor is more rewarding when students come prepared. Students who have difficulty communicating with their advisor should request the assignment of another advisor. Sometimes special forms are necessary before asking an advisor for assistance. Students should use common courtesy in scheduling times with advisors and not wait until registration to contact an advisor.

CATALOG REQUIREMENTS

Students normally endeavor to fulfill the requirements set forth in the catalog in force at the time of entering college. The previous fall and spring catalog would be in effect for students entering in the summer. Students may maintain the catalog in force at the time of entering college if they lapse matriculation for only two regular semesters. However, a lapse in matriculation of three or more regular semesters requires the student to fulfill the requirements of the catalog in effect upon reentry. A student extending continuous enrollment more than eleven semesters is required to fulfill the requirements of the catalog in force during the twelfth semester. Students may choose to meet the requirements of a newer catalog by submitting a "Request for Change of Catalog" form. In all instances, students carry full responsibility for completing their own program of study.

The college welcomes new freshmen and transfer students to the campus one full week before the official start of classes in the fall semester for TFC 100. This course is designed to help all new students acclimate to the community of Toccoa Falls College. Students will participate in activities that will help them prepare academically, socially, emotionally, and spiritually for college life at TFC. All new and transfer students are required to attend; TFC 100 is a graduation requirement.

REGISTRATION

On-line Registration is available for continuing students through TFC Self-Service during the posted dates for the Schedule Selection period. Instructions for registration are also on the TFC website.

The college charges a $50.00 late registration fee to students who register after the Registration period. The college does not accept late registrations after the last day of the drop and add period.

INCOMING STUDENT SCHEDULING

The college determines the initial schedule for new and transfer students by academic background, information provided on the Course Selection form, TFC program requirements, and class availability. After registration day, students must meet with their assigned faculty advisor to review program requirements and career goals. Students with superior scores on the Bible and Doctrine Test during Orientation may exempt NTE 103 and/or OTE 103, and later substitute a more advanced NTE or OTE elective.

CONTINUING STUDENT SCHEDULING

Students must give priority to general education courses or courses within a major in which they earned a "D" or an "F" before continuing with courses from the major or electives. The college requires full-time students to take at least one Bible or theology course each semester until the Bible & theology general education requirement for the degree sought is fulfilled.

CLOSED CLASSES

Students who need to enter a closed class because they are close to graduation or cannot rearrange their schedules, may request to enter a closed class by obtaining the required signatures on the "Request for Entering a Closed Class" form, and bringing this form to the Registrar's Office during the registration period to have the course added to their schedule.

DROPPING & ADDING COURSES

Students drop and add courses through the internet using TFC Self-Service. Students may not add new courses after the end of the drop and add period. Students should consult the calendar at the beginning of this publication for specific dates. Absences during the drop/add period are registered as absences by the instructor.

AUDITING

Persons desiring to attend courses or lectures without examination or credit may register by paying the auditing fee. Any student auditing a course will be responsible to attend more than 60 percent of the classes. Failure to do so will be indicated by a W on the transcript. The Veterans Administration does not subsidize audited classes. A student may not change to audit status after the end of the drop/add period.

ONE FREE CLASS

The spouse of a full-time student may take one class per semester without charge of tuition. To qualify, enrollment must be during a regular semester (not winterim or summer school), and the couple must have been married prior to first-time matriculation at Toccoa Falls College. The student receiving one free class and an additional class resulting in eligibility for government aid who then withdraws from classes would no longer be eligible to receive any free classes from the college for the remainder of the time at Toccoa Falls College. Appeals can be made through the Office of Student Development. In addition, the full-time student who drops below full-time status makes the spouse ineligible for the one-free-class waiver for the remainder of their tenure. (Audit hours do not qualify the student for any government assistance.)

An application form must be picked up from the Business Office and submitted before the drop/add period ends.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Students must attend class regularly to achieve the maximum benefit of college academic life. Individual instructors have attendance policies that affect the possibility of make-up work or examinations and grading in their courses. Students who become sick and cannot attend class must register the illness at once either with a local physician or with the college nurse.

All attendance and absence policies of the instructor begin with the first day of class. Absences during the drop and add period are registered as absences by the instructor.

Students must secure group absence forms for college events such as athletics or touring groups from the coach or team leader and present them to instructors before the absence. If for some reason an instructor does not show up for class, students must wait ten minutes. If the instructor still has not come and someone does not advise the class otherwise, class is dismissed.

PLAGIARISM & CHEATING

Integrity extends to all parts of the Christian's life and character. This includes the Christian's academic life. Plagiarism is defined in the MLA Handbook as the use of another's ideas or expressions without proper acknowledgement. Plagiarism is not limited to word for word copying; it includes any false assumption of authorship, including paraphrasing lines of reasoning from a printed source and copying or stealing from an unpublished writer. Although it can be unintentional, plagiarism is always a serious ethical and moral offense.

Examples of intentional plagiarism include, but are not limited to: buying a paper from a public source, copying material from a printed source, soliciting or allowing someone to submit material for you, and submitting previously written material without the consent of the faculty member.

Whenever the college establishes that a student has engaged in cheating, plagiarism, or dishonesty, disciplinary action will be taken, resulting in the assignment of an automatic "F" for the entire course. This grade penalty shall take precedence over a course withdrawal received by the Registrar's Office on the same day or later than the incidence of academic dishonesty. The Deans Council may also consider dismissal from the college. Any modification of the above disciplinary action will be considered only if the student files an appeal to the Academic Discipline Appeals Committee through the Academic Dean's office.

WITHDRAWING FROM COURSES

Withdrawals after the drop and add period of any academic term note whether the student was passing or failing. Students must return a completed course withdrawal form to the Registrar's Office within 48 hours of the date noted on the form, for that date to be effective. The last day to withdraw failing from a class without academic penalty is the Friday following fall or spring break (or midpoint in summer school, winterim, or an online course). Students who withdraw failing after the Friday following fall or spring break receive an "F." Unofficial withdrawal will result in failure of the course. Administrative online course withdrawals due to lack of attendance or communication are considered unofficial withdrawals. Changes which place a student below full-time status will affect Veteran's benefits, foreign student visas, and financial aid benefits unfavorably. Withdrawal grades are calculated as hours attempted.

VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL FROM THE COLLEGE

Students who wish to completely withdraw from the college must complete a withdrawal form from the Office of Student Development and personally obtain the signatures required on the form. This includes the Office of Student Development, Financial Aid, Student Accounts, and Registrar. All withdrawals must be in writing. The effective date of withdrawal is the date the student signs the form. The completed form must be returned within 48 hours. When students withdraw, the college refunds tuition, fees, room, and board charges according to the Refund Policy outlined in the Student Accounts section of this publication. Non-attendance does not constitute official withdrawal from the college. Students who do not complete the above procedure are financially responsible for the term and receive an "FX" in each class.

INVOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL POLICY

TFC reserves the right to withdraw a student involuntarily from the college. Such an involuntary withdrawal is termed an "administrative withdrawal." Reasons for this action may include, but are not limited to, the behavior of a student who:

1. Demonstrates an apparent threat of harm to self or to others.
2. Engages in activity that leads to significant property damage.
3. Fails, after due notice, to satisfy financial obligations to the college.
4. Neglects to satisfy health regulations, such as required immunizations.
5. Is not attending classes on a regular basis, indicating an attitude of apathy.
6. Violates standards of conduct that call for dismissal as set forth in the Fallife handbook.

As a result of administrative withdrawal, the student will be removed from classes, receive failing grades for that school term (FX), lose his or her status as a student of TFC, and have TFC internet access revoked. The student will also lose the privilege of living in college-owned residences. Before an administrative withdrawal is put into effect, the student will be given opportunity to appeal the decision or withdraw voluntarily. Involuntary withdrawal based upon matters related to Student Development may be appealed by means of the process described in the Fallife handbook. Involuntary withdrawal based upon academic issues may be appealed to the Academic Discipline Committee as described under the heading "Academic Discipline Appeals" in the academic information section of the college catalog.

Any refund due the student at the time of voluntary withdrawal will be calculated on the basis of the "Refunds for Withdrawal" section of the college catalog.

An administrative withdrawal, however, renders the student ineligible for any refund of institutional charges. Such a withdrawal could also incur additional financial responsibility for the student. Any amount of federal funds provided the student that would have to be returned to the government, depending on the time of the withdrawal, would become the responsibility of the student to repay the college. The student will not be allowed to apply for re-admittance for any subsequent term until the reasons for withdrawal have been resolved.

BIBLE COURSES AND BIBLE GPA

Courses having the following prefixes count toward the college's minimum requirement of Bible and theology: BIB, BMI, BSF, NTE, OTE, THE, HEB (except 213), GRK (except 213 and 223). In addition, COM 463 and EDC/EDM 433 are approved integrative courses and may be taken for elective Bible and Theology credit by students in the Schools of Arts & Sciences and Professional Studies. Students should check with their advisors to verify eligibility. Courses prefixed PAM and REL do not count as Bible and theology courses. The college requires full-time students to take at least one Bible or theology course each semester until the Bible and theology general education requirement for the degree sought is fulfilled.

The college requires a minimum of 30 credit hours of Bible and theology as specified with a 2.0 Bible GPA as one of the requirements for graduation. Students should divide the total quality points earned in Bible and theology courses by the credit hours attempted in Bible and theology courses to calculate their Bible grade point average.

The college administers the Standardized Bible Content Test through the Association for Biblical Higher Education. All new students will take a pre-test during orientation and graduating students will take the post-test prior to graduation. The percentile attained by each graduating student on this post-test will be recorded on the student's permanent transcript.

INDEPENDENT STUDY

Independent study provides students with the opportunity to investigate areas of knowledge not covered in regular course offerings or explore in greater depth areas of knowledge only touched upon in regular courses. This method of study represents an irregular method of meeting college course requirements and therefore the college grants this only under exceptional circumstances. Each student should realize that the expectations and requirements are at the same level as a regular classroom course.

The following guidelines apply when the college approves an independent study:

1. Students begin the process at the Registrar's Office. Students must obtain the signatures of the instructor, the student's advisor, the Department Chair for the student's major, and the Dean of the School for the student's major. Students must have the completed form returned to the Registrar's Office with any accompanying materials by the end of the previous semester. This form also registers the student for the independent study.
2. The college limits each student to six hours of independent study.
3. Because of the nature of independent research, independent studies are limited to juniors and seniors.
4. A student may not enroll for the same independent study if the student previously earned a "D" or an "F" in that course. Independent studies may not be repeated under the grade forgiveness policies of the college.
5. Students understand and contract with the instructor to spend a minimum of 42 hours of study for each credit hour (i.e. a one-hour course requires a minimum of 42 hours of study; a two-hour course requires a minimum of 84 hours of study; a three-hour course requires a minimum of 126 hours of study). The student must keep a log of these hours and return it to the instructor as part of the course requirements.

DIRECTED STUDY

Directed study is a regular course of study taken outside the normal class period with content and requirements very similar to those prescribed for the regular class. This method of study represents an irregular method of meeting college course requirements and requires considerably more work on the part of the instructor. Therefore, the college grants this only under exceptional circumstances such as a schedule conflict close to graduation. The college does not grant directed studies for conflicts with work schedules. All other alternatives to taking a course by directed should be considered prior to the application process, such as investigating if the course is also offered online, possible course substitutions, or scheduling the conflicting course section at an alternate time. Only after all other options have been exhausted should application be made. Students should realize that the expectations and requirements are at the same level as a regular classroom course.

The following guidelines apply when the college approves a directed study:

1. Students begin the process at the Registrar's Office. Students must then obtain the signatures of the instructor, the student's advisor, the Department Chair for the student's major, and the Dean of the School for the student's major. Students must have the completed form returned to the Registrar's Office with any accompanying materials by the end of the previous semester. This form also registers students for the directed study course.
2. The college limits each student to six credit hours of directed study.
3. Directed study is limited to juniors and seniors.
4. The college considers directed study hours as part of the normal course load.

5. A student must take responsibility for obtaining all information related to the class such as handouts, recording lectures, etc.
6. A student may not enroll for a course as directed study if the student previously earned a "D" or an "F" in that course.
7. Students understand and contract with the instructor to spend a minimum of 42 hours of study for each credit hour (i.e., a one-hour course requires a minimum of 42 hours of study; a two-hour course requires a minimum of 84 hours of study; a three-hour course requires a minimum of 126 hours of study). The student must keep a log of these hours and return it to the instructor as part of the course requirements. Instructors may waive this requirement if a student is taping the class lectures.

PRACTICUM & INTERNSHIP CREDIT

All Practicum and Internship courses carry academic credit, thus the college charges the same tuition rate as regular courses. Students must register for Practicum and Internship courses for the term that they are actually doing the Practicum or Internship. Students who will complete a Practicum or Internship experience out of residence must complete an Absentee Registration Form at the time of Schedule Selection to complete their Registration process and receive credit.

TRANSFER CREDIT

EVALUATION AND TRANSFER POLICY

Please note the following guidelines for acceptance and suitability of transfer credit:

1. An official transcript from each institution attended must be submitted to TFC's Office of Admissions. For students currently enrolled in another institution, an updated complete official transcript must be submitted to TFC within 30 days of completion for the additional transfer work to be considered.
2. The Registrar's Office evaluates transferability of credit from most institutions accredited by agencies authorized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. The Registrar serves as the final authority in determining the general acceptability of work completed at other institutions.
3. While much or all of a student's transfer credit may be accepted at TFC, all of the transfer credit may not be applicable to the student's major. The final transfer credit evaluation should be compared to the major program of choice listed in the catalog. Courses accepted in transfer that do not fulfill a specific course requirement in the chosen major count as open electives.
4. Transfer course work must have at least two-thirds equivalent content and credit to be granted course equivalency. When this occurs, the lacking hour must be balanced with open electives to meet the total graduation credit hour requirement. Approved course substitution forms are necessary.
5. Developmental or remedial courses are usually designed for institutional credit only and are therefore not eligible for transfer.
6. Degree level vocational and technical credit is accepted in transfer only when it bears a clear and direct equivalency to academic courses offered at TFC.
7. Lower division (100 and 200 level) coursework can generally only be transferred as lower division credit.
8. Only those courses with a C- or better are considered for transfer. Grades and GPA do not transfer.
9. Courses other than Physical Education activity courses that are graded on a Pass/Fail or Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory basis are generally not accepted in transfer.
10. Credits transferred from institutions on the quarter system are granted the standard two-thirds equivalency according to the following: 5 and 4 quarter hours = 3 semester hours; 3 and 2 quarter hours = 2 semester hours; 1 quarter hour = 1 semester hour.

11. Upon receipt of an official transcript from the transferring institution, the Registrar's Office completes a transfer credit evaluation and sends the results to the prospective student. All acceptable transfer coursework is entered on the TFC transcript upon enrollment.
12. Up to 16 hours may be accepted for work taken by correspondence from approved institutions. Courses taken by correspondence must be approved in advance and in writing by the Registrar. No correspondence courses in homiletics are accepted and no correspondence courses in Bible, theology, or pastoral ministry may be accepted without specific prior approval of the Registrar's Office subject to its criteria on accredited institutions, academic quality, and examination methods.

CREDIT RECOGNIZED FROM OTHER SOURCES

TFC does not grant credit based on experiential learning. However, credit can be validated and awarded for prior learning through several options. Up to a total of 45 semester hours may be transferred to Toccoa Falls College in any combination from the following prior learning experiences: AP, CLEP, DANTES, IB, PONSI, Educational Experiences in the Armed Services, and ICE. No more than 30 semester hours may be transferred in any one category. As with all transfer credit, only credit that is applicable to degree programs at Toccoa Falls College will be accepted. Check with the Registrar's Office for more information on these opportunities. The Music Department requires students desiring to transfer credits in Music Theory, Aural Skills and Class Piano to pass our placement tests in the respective subject area. Credit from other institutions in these courses will be accepted upon demonstrated competence within the varying levels of each course sequence.

Advanced Placement (AP)

Advanced Placement is a College Board program taken in high school that allows students to take an exam (following the course work) that is the equivalent to introductory college-level course work. The College Board assures the faculty teaching AP are qualified academically for teaching college level work. These exams are taken before the student attends college usually as the final exam in their high school AP course. A minimum score of 3 is necessary to award credit. TFC awards credit based on the table below. "Electives" are worth 3 credit hours each.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

CLEP is the most widely accepted credit-by-examination program in the country. CLEP exams may be taken to validate prior course work from an unaccredited institution, self-study, prior job or work experience, extension classes, etc. Students may attempt each CLEP only one time. All CLEP testing must be complete prior to earning 60 semester hours. Credit earned through CLEP does not count toward residency requirements. Students may not take the CLEP if they are currently taking the course or have attempted the course previously. The current cost for taking each exam can be found on our website, and students can register online through the TFC website or another CLEP testing center. Students must pay for the actual test by creating an account at www.collegeboard.com. The TFC proctoring fee must be paid at the time of the test or prior to it. "Electives" in the table below are worth 3 credit hours each. The College Board CLEP School code for Toccoa Falls College is 5799.

*ACT English and Reading sub-scores of 27 or above or a SAT Verbal score of 600 or above required.

Dantes Subject Standardized Test (DSST)

The DSST program is also a nationally recognized credit-by-examination program. The exams are based on current college curricula and are used by over 1,200 colleges and universities. Toccoa Falls College accepts scaled scores equivalent to a "C" or higher on selected DSSTs.

Educational Experiences in the Armed Services

The American Council on Education in cooperation with the Department of Defense evaluates educational experiences of service members and makes recommendations for college credit. Veterans and active duty service members may complete a Request for Course Recommendation form available in the Registrar's Office and supply the appropriate supporting documentation. The college generally awards credit when the recommendation bears a clear and direct equivalency to TFC coursework. The Registrar's Office makes the final determination of the amount and appropriateness of credit.

Institutional Challenge Examination (ICE)

The Institutional Challenge Examination (ICE) program gives students the opportunity to demonstrate competency in a particular subject area that the college offers for academic credit. Students must obtain an ICE form from the Center for Academic Success. Students submit the completed form to the department chair of the department that offers the course. The student arranges a testing time for the ICE with the appropriate instructor if the Director of Academic Success and department chair approve the request and the Director of Student Accounts also documents on the form that the student paid the examination fee. The department chair reports the results of the ICE on the form and submits the examination to the Office of the Registrar for inclusion in the student's academic file. ICE requests are subject to the following guidelines:

1. Each department chair establishes the courses in his/her department for which students can earn ICE credit and develops the ICE tests.
2. The minimum passing grade for all exams is "C" (73).
3. Students may not take the Institutional Challenge Examination if they are currently taking the course or have taken the course already at TFC.
4. Students may not take an ICE for a course that is available through the CLEP or DANES programs.
5. The student may attempt each ICE only one time.
6. The credit hours earned do not count toward residency requirements.
7. There is no fee to place the credit hours earned through ICE on the student academic record. However, students must pay the ICE fee (see website) in full before testing approval.
8. As with CLEP, all ICE testing must be completed prior to earning 60 semester hours.

Currently, TFC offers an ICE for the following courses:

MPN 111	Class Piano I
MPN 121	Class Piano II
MPN 231	Class Piano III
MPN 241	Class Piano IV
MUT 111	Aural Skills I
MUT 113	Music Theory I

MUT 123	Music Theory II
MUT 231	Aural Skills III
MUT 233	Music Theory III
MUT 241	Aural Skills IV
MUT 243	Music Theory IV

International Baccalaureate (IB)

The International Baccalaureate Diploma program is a rigorous pre-university course of study, leading to examinations, that meets the needs of highly motivated secondary school students. Toccoa Falls College will consider for credit the following individual IB courses with Higher Level examination results of 5 or higher. "Electives" are worth 3 credit hours each.

Program on Non-Collegiate Sponsored Instruction (PONSI)

The National Program on Non-Collegiate Sponsored Instruction (PONSI) reviews formal courses and educational programs sponsored by non-collegiate organizations, makes appropriate college-level credit recommendations for the courses and programs evaluated, and promotes academic recognition of these learning experiences to the nation's colleges and universities. Credit is generally awarded when the recommendation bears a clear and direct equivalency to TFC coursework. The Registrar's Office makes the final determination regarding the appropriateness and the amount of credit to award.

GRADES AND ACADEMIC STANDING

GRADING POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Students access their grades through the internet using Self Service. The Registrar's Office posts final grades as faculty members submit them at the end of each semester. All courses adhere to the following grade scale:

LETTER GRADE	PERCENT	QUALITY PTS
A	94-100	4.0
A-	90-93	3.7
B+	87-89	3.3
B	83-86	3.0
B-	80-82	2.7
C+	77-79	2.3
C	73-76	2.0
C-	70-72	1.7
D+	67-69	1.3
D	63-66	1.0
D-	60-62	0.7
F	0-59	0.0

- A - Superior work
- B - Above average or good work
- C - Average work
- D - Below average or poor work
- F - Failing work or withdrawn failing after the Friday following fall or spring break
- FX - Failed to make up incomplete work, unofficial, or administrative withdrawal from college
- I - Incomplete (given in cases of illness or extreme circumstances; if incomplete work is not completed within the prescribed limit, the grade becomes FX)
- AU - An audited course
- W - Withdrawn from an audited course or failed to attend at least 60% of the audited course
- WP - Withdrawn passing (non-punitive)
- WF - Withdrawn failing (used prior to mid-point; non-punitive)
- S - Satisfactory
- U - Unsatisfactory (non-punitive)
- TR - Transfer coursework
- PC - Proficiency Credit, Institutional Challenge Exam

INCOMPLETES

Students may request an "incomplete" from the instructor if an emergency or other extreme circumstance prevents completion of coursework by the end of the semester. The instructor will obtain and submit the proper form to the Registrar's Office for approval if the instructor supports the request. The normal deadline for an incomplete is 30 days. If special circumstances warrant, an extension may be given. Instructors must use another form, also obtained from and submitted to the Registrar's Office, for an extension. When the incomplete is made up, the instructor will issue the final grade using the Change of Grade form obtained in the Registrar's Office. The college issues an "FX" automatically to students who do not finish the course requirements by the deadline or the extension granted.

EXPLANATION OF GRADE POINT AVERAGE (GPA)

There are four columns of numbers listed on grade reports and transcripts (i.e., attempted, earned, points, and divisor). Hours attempted include all hours taken at TFC, in addition to any transfer credit, exclusive of grades AU and W. Hours earned include all hours passed at TFC and all credits transferred from other institutions (including CLEP, ICE, and Advanced Placement credit). Divisor hours include all attempted hours from TFC with the exception of S/U courses and prior attempts as noted in the Grade Forgiveness Policy below. Quality points are the amount of points given for each grade multiplied by each credit hour. For example, an "A" is worth 4.0 quality points per hour. An "A" received in a 3-credit hour course would equal 12.0 quality points.

Students can calculate their grade point average (GPA) by dividing the total quality points by the total divisor hours. For example, a total of 93.0 quality points with a total of 31.0 divisor hours would equal a 3.00 GPA.

GRADE FORGIVENESS POLICY

The college permits students to repeat courses with an "F" or "D" grade. Students who desire to repeat courses with a "C-" or better must receive approval from the Vice President for Academic Affairs. When a student repeats a course, the college deducts the previously earned grade from the earned, divisor, and quality point totals, but the college does not physically remove the previous grade earned from the permanent record. The college computes only the last grade earned in cumulative totals and the grade point average. Students may not repeat physical education activity courses, broadcast and newspaper practicums, applied music, ensemble, seminar, selected topics, and independent study courses under the grade-forgiveness policy. Students may not repeat courses at another institution for transfer to Toccoa Falls College under the grade-forgiveness policy.

REPEATING COURSES AND FINANCIAL AID

Special rules apply for Title IV financial aid and the repeating of courses. A failed course may be repeated as many times as needed until passed (although all hours attempted are calculated). A previously passed course with a D grade may only be repeated once. This includes even those courses where a higher grade is required. This does not apply to courses designated as repeatable for credit.

GRADE APPEAL PROCESS

Students who have concerns related to academic courses (grading, assignments, class policies, course materials, etc.) should first discuss the matter with the class instructor. If no agreement on the matter can be achieved on that level, the student may consult with the Department Chair of the department in which the course is taught. If the matter is not resolved by consultation with the Department Chair, the student may arrange for a meeting with the School Dean. If the matter is not resolved by consultation with the School Dean, the student may arrange for a meeting with the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The Vice President for Academic Affairs may choose to refer the matter to the Deans Council. Students must submit all appeals and rationale in writing to the instructor within 14 days of the last exam day of the semester in question. Grade changes submitted after this period must have the approval of the appropriate School Dean.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS FOR ATHLETIC PARTICIPATION

Toccoa Falls College is a member of the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA). As a member of this association our student athletes are required to maintain certain academic standards. The student athlete must be enrolled in a minimum of 12 semester hours at the time of participation. They must be full-time and pass 12 hours of credit in their first semester of college for eligibility and then a total of 24 hours of credit for the two semesters prior to the season of competition. The student athlete is not to be on any form of academic restrictions or probation that the college may require of any student in attendance at the college. Further information concerning the academic standards of the NCCAA may be obtained from the Athletic Director.

SEMESTER ACADEMIC HONORS

Dean's List - To qualify for the Dean's List, students must earn a semester grade point average of at least 3.6 with no grade below "B-." Students must complete at least 12 credit hours.
Honor Roll - To qualify for the Honor Roll, students must earn a semester grade point average of at least 3.3 with no grade lower than a "C-." Students must complete at least 12 credit hours.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

The college considers a student as maintaining good (satisfactory) academic standing by achieving the required minimum cumulative grade point average for the total credit hours attempted as follows:

ACADEMIC STANDING LEVEL	CREDIT HOURS ATTEMPTED	CUMULATIVE GPA
I	1 - 23	1.50
II	24 - 47	1.70
III	48 - 71	1.90
IV	72 - 95	2.00
V	96 +	2.00

Total credit hours attempted consists of all courses attempted at Toccoa Falls College, including all courses with grades of A-F, FX, S, U, WF (through the Friday following fall or spring break), WP, and I. Grades of AU and W are not included in hours attempted. The college bases classification of transfer students on hours attempted at Toccoa Falls College in addition to hours accepted by Toccoa Falls College from transferring institutions. The Registrar's Office calculates academic standing at the end of the fall semester, at the end of the spring semester, and after the second summer session.

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE

Academic Warning

The college places on academic warning any student who fails to attain and maintain the academic standing required (see above). The student is limited to 13 credit hours during the next semester of attendance. The student must also meet the guidelines outlined in the Academic Success Agreement set up with the Director of the Center for Academic Success.

Academic Probation

The college places on academic probation any student who fails to raise the cumulative grade point average to a satisfactory level (see above) at the end of the semester on academic warning. The student is limited to 13 credit hours during the next semester of attendance. The student must also meet the guidelines outlined in the Academic Success Agreement set up with the Director of the Center for Academic Success.

Academic Suspension

The college places on academic suspension any student who fails to raise the cumulative grade point average to a satisfactory level (see above) at the end of the semester on academic probation. The student may reapply to continue at the college on academic probation through the Office of Admissions after an absence of one regular semester.

Academic Dismissal

The college academically dismisses any student readmitted on probation after serving a semester of suspension who fails to raise the cumulative grade point average to a satisfactory level (see above) after one semester of attendance. An academically dismissed student may not apply for readmission to the college until the student documents earning at least 12 semester credit hours of college level work with a 2.0 grade point average at another regionally accredited college or university.

Academic Discipline Appeals

Current TFC students must file in writing all appeals relating to academic discipline with the Academic Dean's Office within 14 days of discipline notification. The Academic Discipline Appeals Committee considers the appeal. The decision of the Academic Discipline Appeals Committee comprised of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Vice President for Student Development, the Registrar, Dean over the area that the student is appealing, and Director of Center for Academic Success, is final.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM SELECTION

DECLARATION OF A MAJOR

The college encourages students to declare a major after successful completion of 12 credit hours. Transfer students who have previously transferred 12 credit hours may declare a major immediately, subject to Department requirements. Students can obtain an application from the Registrar's Office. Students must complete at least 50 percent of major course hours in residence at Toccoa Falls College.

DECLARATION OF A MINOR

The college encourages students to declare one or more minors in an area of secondary interest to the student. Students can obtain a declaration of minor form in the Registrar's Office. Students must complete at least 50 percent of minor course hours in residence at Toccoa Falls College. The chosen minor must consist of at least fifteen unique semester hours that are over and above defined major course requirements.

DOUBLE MAJORING

Students who choose to complete two majors, each offered by a different Department, must complete the requirements of both programs. For students double majoring, each major must have a minimum of 30 unique hours. Students must decide which of the two majors will be their primary major. Students retain their advisor for the primary major, but also meet with an advisor of their choice in the Department sponsoring the second major.

The college prints both majors on the transcript and awards only one Bachelor's Degree. If, after graduating with a Bachelor's Degree, a student decides to return to complete another major, the college awards a second Bachelor's Degree under the following conditions:

1. A minimum of an additional 30 semester hours must be completed for the second degree. Students must complete all program requirements for the major.
2. A second Bachelor's Degree must be awarded in a different commencement program from the first.
3. The college will award no more than two Bachelor's Degrees to an individual.

The following academic departments do not allow for double majoring within their department: Business Administration, Music and Global Ministries. Students are not permitted to double major across degrees offered by the Music Department (B.A., B.S., or B.M.).

Students in the Bible & Theology Department may double major within the department provided they fully meet the degree requirements for both majors. The Teacher Education Department does not allow double majoring within the department. However, students can be certified in more than one field by completing the Post Baccalaureate Checklist of courses for the second area of certification.

COURSE SUBSTITUTION POLICY

The student's advisor, Department Chair for the student, Registrar, and School Dean must approve any deviation from the catalog. Students may obtain the proper form from the Registrar's Office. Course substitution forms should be submitted by the time the student applies for graduation one year prior to the anticipated graduation.

CENTER FOR ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The Center for Academic Success assists Toccoa Falls College in fulfilling its commitment to educate and serve students. The Center for Academic Success coordinates and provides a variety of academic and support services to students. The goal of the Center for Academic Success is to provide counsel for students concerning academic issues including academic tutoring for students seeking help, academic support for students with documented disabilities, and administration of CLEP tests. The Center for Academic Success is comprised of three main programs, which include Disability Services, CLEP Administration Services, and Tutoring Services.

DISABILITY SERVICES

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) defines a person with a disability as any person who has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities (walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working), has a record of such an impairment, or is regarded as having such an impairment. Disability Services coordinates and provides a variety of academic and support services based on the individual needs of each student. The goal of Disability Services is to seek to create an accessible academic, social, and physical environment for students with disabilities at Toccoa Falls College.

CLEP ADMINISTRATION SERVICES

The goal of the CLEP Administration Services is to provide efficient test administration and services for the community and students of Toccoa Falls College. Institutional tests include the Institutional Challenge Examination (ICE). Nationally-normed tests include the College Level Examination (CLEP) Tests. These institutional and nationally-normed tests are administered through the Center for Academic Success at various times throughout the year.

TUTORING SERVICES

The goal of Tutoring Services is to provide a variety of academic and support services for student achievement and adjustment in college. Tutoring services are available free of charge to currently enrolled students requesting academic assistance. Tutoring involves one-on-one assistance from qualified students who have been approved by the director and the faculty in a given subject area. Tutoring is available for most subjects offered at Toccoa Falls College.

SERVICE AND OUTREACH

Toccoa Falls College seeks to glorify God through preparing men and women for lives of personal fulfillment and Christian service to the church and all humanity. The Service and Outreach Department desires to build on classroom learning by providing opportunities for organized and supervised ministry. Students learn how to serve the church and all humanity through practical ministry experience.

The Service and Outreach program seeks to challenge students toward spiritual and moral growth by involving them in practical Christian ministry. The successful student will demonstrate emotional maturity, a Christian commitment with a wholesome attitude, spiritual depth, and ethical principles.

Ministry experience is a requirement for graduation. For the Bachelor's degree one must successfully complete a minimum of four semesters of field experience, five semesters for all Bible and Theology Department majors. For the Associate of Arts degree one must successfully complete a minimum of two semesters of field experience. Transfer students must successfully complete one assignment for each semester enrolled, with a maximum of four assignments for a B.A., B.M., or B.S. (five semesters for all Bible and Theology Department majors) and two assignments for an A.A. Each Department has the option of requiring a minimum of six semesters of field experience. Students must check their particular catalog and major requirements. These requirements must be met in order to graduate, participate in the Commencement program or receive a diploma. All ministries are graded and become part of the student's permanent record. No more than two Service and Outreach field experiences may be taken in any one term.

There are various opportunities for ministry. Students may work with children, youth, adults, or elderly people in preaching, teaching, counseling, music, drama, and serving opportunities. Decisions on a particular ministry will be made on the basis of student preference, catalog, and program requirements, and the approval of the Director of Service and Outreach.

STUDY ABROAD AND OFF-CAMPUS OPPORTUNITIES

TFC STUDY ABROAD COURSES

Toccoa Falls College Study Abroad occasionally includes a summer course led by TFC professors to Europe or a Winterim course to Europe or the Middle East. Prerequisites include minimum GPA requirements, HUM 103 Western Thought and Culture, and two full-time semesters at TFC. Application deadline for summer TFC-led study abroad courses is January 31. Application packets are available in the Registrar's Office. The packet includes an application, checklist, instructions for obtaining a passport and International Student Identity Card (ISIC), and other forms.

JERUSALEM UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

Toccoa Falls College has partnered with Jerusalem University College to offer a semester of study in Israel. Prerequisites include a minimum GPA and second semester sophomore status

(with the last 30 hours earned in residence). To learn more about Jerusalem University College, visit their website at www.juc.edu or pick up the TFC application packet in the Registrar's Office. Application deadline for the following academic year is February 15.

CCCU PROGRAMS

In addition to the above study abroad programs, Toccoa Falls College offers the following study abroad and off-campus opportunities in partnership with the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities (CCCU). Specific information on each of these programs is available in the Registrar's office and at the following CCCU website: www.bestsemester.com. Prerequisites include a minimum GPA and second semester sophomore status (with the last 30 hours earned in residence). The TFC deadline for applying for all CCCU programs for the following academic year is February 15.

FINANCIAL AID

All federal or state financial aid funds for which a student may be eligible may be applied toward study abroad program costs. Institutional forms of financial aid, including scholarships and grants, can not be applied toward program costs. However, TFC's Student Financial Aid Office can re-evaluate the cost of attendance (COA) of an individual study abroad program in order to maximize federal and state financial aid eligibility.

ACADEMIC ISSUES

TFC prerequisites include a minimum GPA and second semester sophomore status (with the last two semesters in residence). After deciding which program is right for you, come to the Registrar's Office to pick up the application packet. Be sure to plan well in advance as February 15 is the deadline for applying for all JUC and CCCU programs for the following academic year.

- The best time for planning a study abroad experience is between the second semester sophomore year and the first semester senior year.
- Coursework and credit equivalency is determined by the TFC Registrar's Office.
- Coursework and grades are posted to the student's TFC transcript and calculated in the cumulative grade point average and hours attempted.
- TFC standards for satisfactory academic progress apply to study abroad coursework.
- Study abroad questions should be directed to the TFC Registrar's Office.
- Check the Academic Life PC in the Registrar's Office for additional information.

GRADUATION CONCERNS

APPLICATION

December and Winterim graduates must submit an application for graduation during Schedule Selection in the fall semester one year in advance of their intended date. May and summer graduates must submit an application for graduation during Schedule Selection in the spring semester one year in advance. All course substitutions should be submitted at this time. All CLEP and ICE testing must be completed prior to earning 60 semester hours.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

Residency Requirements at Toccoa Falls College apply to three areas of the curriculum: At least the final 32 hours or final 25% of the degree, whichever is greater must be completed in residence through TFC. A minimum of 50 percent of major course hours must be completed in residence through TFC. A minimum of 50 percent of minor course hours must be completed in residence through TFC.

COMMENCEMENT

The college holds commencement ceremonies in May. Students must complete all requirements for graduation, including course work, Service and Outreach, senior interviews/orals, required testing, and academic and financial stipulations to participate in commencement. Students who complete their degree requirements in Summer, Fall, and Winterim participate in the following May commencement.

Students must complete all graduation requirements before participating in the commencement program. It is of utmost importance that students ascertain in their senior year that they will meet all requirements. Students order caps and gowns through the college bookstore. Students then purchase their caps and gowns after the ordered merchandise arrives. The Registrar's Office contacts graduating students during their final semester with line-up lists and instructions for participating in the program. The college releases diplomas and transcripts only to students who meet all financial obligations to the college.

GRADUATION HONORS

TFC Dean's List

The Toccoa Falls College Dean's List honors baccalaureate graduates with a minimum 3.6 cumulative grade point and who have achieved Dean's List semester honors a minimum of four semesters. Recognition is granted by the awarding of the TFC Dean's List Certificate at Baccalaureate in the Fall and the Awards Chapel in the Spring.

Latin Honors

Students qualify for graduation with honors by achieving, at graduation, a cumulative grade point average in courses completed at Toccoa Falls College of 3.5 for cum laude, 3.7 for magna cum laude, and 3.9 for summa cum laude. Latin Honors are recognized in the Commencement Program by the wearing of the gold honor cord.

FORMS PROCEDURES

It is essential that students develop personal habits of discipline concerning the use of academic forms. Many forms have deadlines for submission. The Registrar's Office does not accept forms submitted after deadlines. Therefore, students should plan their program carefully and thoughtfully to avoid disappointment.

RELATING TO REGISTRATION AND CLASSES

REQUEST TO ENTER A CLOSED CLASS

Students use this form during the registration or drop and add period to enter a closed class. It requires approval of the instructor and Department Chair of the course. Students should bring the completed form to the Registrar's Office to have the course added to their schedule.

REQUEST FOR OVERLOAD

Students use this form to take more than 18 credit hours in a regular semester or more than 6 credit hours in a single session of summer school. Students must have at least a 3.0 cumulative grade point average before an overload is considered. It requires approval from the Registrar.

COURSE WITHDRAWAL

Students use this form after the drop and add period when they withdraw from an individual class. The instructor indicates on the form withdraw passing (WP) or withdraw failing (WF). The student's advisor must also sign this form and then the student returns it to the Registrar's Office immediately. Students do not use this form to withdraw from all of the classes on their schedule.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COLLEGE

Students use this form to withdraw from all of their classes. Students obtain this form from the Office of Student Development. It requires signatures from the Office of Student Development, Office of Student Accounts, Office of Financial Aid, and the Registrar's Office. Students submit the completed form to the Registrar's Office. Students under 18 years of age, or whose parents are paying a portion of the student's bill, must notify their parents or guardians prior to the withdrawal process.

REQUEST FOR INCOMPLETE

In case some emergency or other extreme circumstance prevents students from completing their coursework by the end of the semester, they should first explain their situation to their instructor. Instructors must submit any requests for an incomplete on the proper form to the Department Chair and School Dean for approval. If granted, the deadline for an incomplete is 30 days. The School Dean may grant an extension if special circumstances warrant it. The college issues an "FX" grade automatically for students who do not complete the course by the 30-day deadline or the extension time granted.

RELATING TO ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

TRANSFER CREDIT EVALUATION

The Registrar's Office uses this form to evaluate transfer credit from another institution. The prospective student receives a copy.

DECLARATION OF MAJOR

Students use this form to declare or change a major. Students must have completed at least 12 credit hours and be in good academic standing. Transfer students with more than 12 credit hours may declare upon enrollment at the discretion of their department.

DECLARATION OF MINOR

Students use this form to declare, change, or drop a minor. Students submit this form to the Registrar's Office once they have obtained the necessary signatures.

REQUEST FOR CHANGE OF ADVISOR

Department Chairs use this form to inform the Registrar's Office of a new advisor for a student who is in the process of declaring a new major. Students may also use this form to switch to a different advisor.

COURSE SUBSTITUTION

Students use this form whenever there is any deviation from the program in the catalog. This requires the approval of student's advisor, the Department Chair, the School Dean, the School Dean of the required course and the Registrar. Students should submit Course Substitution requests to the Registrar's Office by the time the student applies for graduation.

REQUEST FOR TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Students use this form when they wish to take courses elsewhere as a transient student to transfer this coursework back to TFC. It serves to verify to the other school that the student is in good standing, and it guarantees the student TFC will accept the courses listed if satisfactorily completed. Students should complete this form during the term at TFC just before the term during which the student wants to take these courses elsewhere.

Although credits can transfer back to TFC, students are reminded that earned grades do not transfer back in a way that affects or assists their GPA.

REQUEST FOR CHANGE OF CATALOG

Students use this form when they update their program to a newer catalog. Students should understand that they must meet all the requirements of the newer catalog. Students may only update to a newer catalog and may not request to go back to any earlier catalog.

DIRECTED OR INDEPENDENT STUDY

Students must submit this form with all necessary supporting documents and endorsements to the Registrar's Office during the registration period to officially register for the course.

APPLICATION FOR GRADUATION

Students must submit this form during the registration period one year before the term of intended graduation. The Registrar's Office will not accept late applications after the start of the semester that the student wishes to graduate. Students must have previously declared their major and submit course substitutions at or by the time of applying for graduation.

GRADUATION EVALUATION - DEGREE AUDIT

The Registrar's Office uses this form to notify students of any remaining graduation requirements in their program. Students must notify the Registrar's Office of any modifications they may find after comparing it with their own records.

TRANSCRIPT REQUESTS

Current students have access to their unofficial transcripts and may request official copies through their myTFC account. Past TFC students may request official copies through the main TFC webpage.

CURRICULUM STRUCTURE & DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

CURRICULUM STRUCTURE

The college structures the curriculum around the following:

GENERAL EDUCATION CORE CURRICULUM

This is a basic core of subjects from the areas of Bible & theology, humanities, social sciences, computers, science & mathematics, as well as general education consisting of 69 semester hours.

The college designed the core to acquaint students with the major areas of knowledge, to integrate this knowledge with Christian principles, and to enable them to participate intelligently and constructively in society as effective Christian witnesses.

MAJOR

A major is a collection of courses designed to give opportunity for in-depth study of a specific area within a given discipline.

Students completing a major should be able to demonstrate a significant level of expertise in that area. Though a major on the baccalaureate level cannot provide comprehensive coverage of a particular area within a discipline, the collection of courses within it must be coherent, progressing from a basic understanding of the area's history, nature, theory, methodology, tools, and practice to a more complex and sophisticated integration of knowledge and skills in that area.

Each course makes a significant contribution to the major and the fulfillment of its outcomes. Each major is monitored to assess the contribution of courses and maximize the value added to students in each outcomes area including an outcome goal and related specific outcomes in knowledge, skills and attitudes.

Normally a major consists of at least 36 credit hours of courses related to a given area. A minimum of 30 required major hours must be from among prefixes offered by the Department providing the major. At least 30 hours must be unique to each major. Although a minimum of 24 credits for a major must be at the 300 or 400 level, the preferred practice would be at least two-thirds of all major courses would be at the 300 or 400 level. Exceptions to the preceding definitions may be made with approval of the Curriculum Committee, for example, programs with specific accreditation or state certification requirements.

DEFINITION OF A CREDIT HOUR

Toccoa Falls College operates on the semester credit system using the standard Carnegie unit of 750 minutes of instruction per credit hour. Therefore a standard one credit course consists of 750 minutes of instruction, a two credit course 1500 minutes of instruction, and a three credit courses 2250 minutes of instruction, including the final exam period. Course expectations are developed such that students spend two hours of outside work per week for each hour of class time. For example, a course meeting three hours per week should have an average of 6 hours of expected outside work weekly. Courses delivered in an on-line format ensure equivalent learning outcomes.

CONCENTRATION

A concentration is a selection of courses within a student's major consisting of 21-27 hours that provides a particular specialization or focus for the major and is designed to give a student specialized knowledge, competence or skill within the major. The Professional Standards Commission of the State of Georgia specifies that Middle Grades Education majors and Science Education majors complete two areas of concentration consisting of a group of courses that include a broad range of lower and/or upper division coursework.

TRACK

A track is a grouping of courses used by the Music Department within a major that are specific to the applied principal of the student. This does not necessarily imply additional hours of study.

However, performance majors in the vocal track study additional hours of a modern language.

MINOR

A minor is a secondary area of specialized academic study usually consisting of 15-21 semester hours. A minimum of 12 required minor hours must be from one discipline. Each course must make a significant contribution to the minor. Students may not minor in the same area as their major. Certain departments provide the option of additional in-depth study beyond the major. To qualify as a minor within the same department as the major, the minor must consist of at least 15 unique semester hours that are over and above defined requirements of the major. Departments may choose not to permit students to select a minor from within their department.

OPEN ELECTIVES

Students may use any course in the curriculum, or accepted in transfer, to meet open elective requirements. The standard for every major program is a minimum of 15 semester hours of open electives that may be used to meet minor course requirements if students so desire. Any exceptions to this standard must be approved by the Curriculum Committee.

COURSE NUMBERING

The college identifies each course by a three-letter prefix followed by a three- or four-digit number and, in some cases, terminated with a letter suffix:

100	- first-year subject
200	- second-year subject
300	- third-year subject
400	- fourth-year subject

DIGITS

The first digit of each course number usually indicates the year that the college recommends that students take the course. The second digit suggests the sequence in which students should take courses unless specific prerequisites are listed. The third digit indicates the number of semester hours of credit normally received for the course.

SUFFIXES

Certain letters may follow the course number. An X indicates the course is taught under another prefix within the college but may be taken for credit in keeping with the specified prefix. An E indicates that the course is being offered on an experimental basis.

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

1. Completion of a minimum of 60 earned credit hours, of which the final 30 credit hours must be taken from Toccoa Falls College. At least 50% of all program and minor credit hours must also be taken in residence.
2. Satisfactory completion of a minimum of two semesters of Service and Outreach field experience.
3. A cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0.
4. A cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 in Bible & theology courses.
5. Fulfillment of all requirements of the associates core curriculum (with a minimum grade of "C-" in ENG 113 and ENG 123), including a passing grade in TFC 100 Orientation.
7. A minimum grade of "C-" for each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor if the student elects to take a minor.
8. Application for graduation submitted during Schedule Selection one full year before the anticipated graduation.
9. Meet all financial obligations before degrees are granted or transcripts released.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

1. Completion of a minimum of 126 earned credit hours, of which the final 32 credit hours (or 25% of the degree, whichever is greater) must be taken in residence at Toccoa Falls College. At least 50% of all major and minor credit hours must also be taken in residence.
2. Satisfactory completion of at least four semesters of Service and Outreach field experience, (transfer students enrolled at TFC for fewer semesters than required for service and outreach must successfully complete one assignment for each semester enrolled).
3. A cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0.
4. A minimum grade of "C-" is required for each course in a student's major (including specializations, tracks, and concentrations), and a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 is required for the total credit hours in the major.
5. A minimum of 30 hours in Bible & theology with at least a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 in Bible & theology courses. Bible & Theology Department majors must earn a grade of "C-" or above in every Bible & theology course that counts toward their minimum number of Bible & theology courses. (See "Bible & Theology" section for minimum hours required for majors in the Bible & Theology Department.) Students taking more than 30 hours of Bible & theology but who are not majors in the Bible & Theology Department must earn at least a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 in the 30 hours of Bible & theology for which they earn the highest grades, including specified required courses.
7. Fulfillment of all requirements of the core curriculum (with a minimum grade of "C-" in ENG 113 and ENG 123), including a passing grade in TFC 100 Orientation.
8. All of the additional requirements of one of the professional departments including any prescribed oral or comprehensive examinations.
9. A minimum grade of "C-" for each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor if the student elects to take a minor.
10. Application for graduation submitted during Schedule Selection one full year before the anticipated graduation.
11. Meet all financial obligations before degrees are granted or transcripts released.
12. Participation in final commencement exercises (permitted only after all financial obligations are met).

BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

All of the requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree plus demonstrated proficiency at the second-year college level in one foreign or classical language. For students whose primary native language is English, this may be demonstrated by successful completion of two years (minimum 12 semester hours) of college-level foreign language or by satisfactory scores on a CLEP language exam. For students whose primary language is not English, English will count as the second language requirement with the completion of ENG 113, 123, and six semester hours of English language literature elective, with a minimum of C- in each. Primary native language is defined as the language spoken in the home and the language of instruction in primary and secondary school. Some majors may require a specific language to fulfill the language requirement.

GENERAL EDUCATION CORE

All students planning to receive a degree are required to complete the core curriculum and other requirements specified in each degree program. In addition, students must pass core competency tests in order to matriculate through their major. In total, students at Toccoa Falls College will demonstrate their competence in nine foundational areas as they complete required assignments and receive credit for specified core classes.

The core curriculum is divided into two main areas (Arts & Sciences and Bible & Theology) and requires a total of 69 hours. Each department may specify courses in the core curriculum within the requirements listed below. Therefore, students should consult the general education requirements for their particular major.

BASIC ACADEMIC COMPETENCIES

Every student is required to demonstrate basic competency in areas such as math, critical thinking, and written communication. Assignments to assess these competencies are embedded in ENG 123 Freshman Composition II, and MAT 113 Mathematical Modeling. Students must pass those assessments to successfully complete the courses.

CORE CURRICULUM PURPOSE STATEMENTS

ARTS & SCIENCES CORE:

The Arts & Sciences component of the core provides intellectual preparation in the mastery of basic tools and skills of thought and learning and academic preparation in acquiring the general knowledge which is the foundation for more specialized studies.

TOCCOA FALLS COLLEGE ONLINE PROGRAMS

Through the years thousands of students have come to TFC for a quality educational experience that uniquely integrates biblical truth, academic excellence and intentional spiritual formation within a caring Christian community. These students have been equipped to be Christian servant-leaders who will impact their world with the love and message of Jesus Christ. Today the sun never sets on the alumni of Toccoa Falls College as they serve the Lord in various occupations and ministries literally around the world.

Rising to the new opportunities presented by the development of online education, TFC is expanding its outreach to students via the internet. It desires to make its unique blending of biblical truth, academic excellence, and spiritual formation available to those who seriously desire to complete a college degree but are unable to relocate to our campus because of present employment or family responsibilities.

Currently there are eight programs available online.

1. CLIMB. College Level Instruction with Maximum Bible, offered through the Bible and Theology Department, is a collection of Bible courses that constitute the Bible core of our curriculum.
2. Associate of Arts Degree in Business Administration. This degree equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skills and character pertinent to servicing as business practitioners from a biblical worldview for Kingdom service.
3. Associate of Arts Degree in General Studies. This degree provides future servant leaders with the knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to a junior college degree or future study, from a biblical worldview for kingdom service.
4. Biblical Studies. This degree completion program provides an extensive and focused study of Scripture. It prepares future Seminarians and ministry leaders to properly read, interpret, and apply the content of the Bible.
5. Ministry Leadership. This degree completion program is offered through the Ministry & Leadership Department. It builds on a foundation of core courses already taken by a student, and leads to a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Ministry Leadership.
6. NonProfit Business Administration. This degree completion program equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skills and character pertinent to leaders serving as professionals in nonprofit organizations from a biblical worldview for kingdom service.
7. Organization Leadership. This degree completion program equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skills and character pertinent serving as professionals in leadership and management roles from a biblical worldview for kingdom service.
8. Youth Ministries. This degree completion program is offered through the Ministry & Leadership Department. It equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to youth-related ministries in church and faith-based organizations, from a biblical world view for kingdom service.

More details on each of these programs are provided below.

ADMISSION

Acceptance into the online programs follows the same general procedures and policies for admissions given in the catalog (www.tfc.edu/admissions). Because these programs are distance education, however, the catalog sections on dual enrollment, immunization information, registration check-in, orientation for the Toccoa campus, and immigration procedures for international students do not apply.

Applicants should indicate on the application for admission that they are interested in one of the online programs so that the admissions staff will be able to respond with appropriate information. Applicants will then be contacted by an online admissions counselor who specializes in the online programs. Applicants who plan to enroll in one of TFC's resident degree programs at any point should not consider the online CLIMB program. Resident students are required to distribute their Bible courses throughout the curriculum, taking one each semester until all requirements are fulfilled. Therefore the CLIMB program is not designed for applicants who might be considering one of TFC's resident programs. Refer to the section below on Resident Student Issues.

In addition to the regular admissions policies, the following specifically apply only to the Biblical Studies, Ministry Leadership, Nonprofit Business Administration, Organizational Leadership and Youth Ministries degree completion programs:

Because these programs are structured as degree completion majors, students must have accumulated a total of at least 64 credit hours before taking any degree completion major courses. These hours will consist of undergraduate studies including the fulfillment of a core of general education courses and basic Bible courses listed in the individual degree completion program sections.

Pre-Requisites for the Degree Completion Programs – see individual degree completion program sections

Resident Student Issues

Resident students may apply for and take up to twelve hours of online coursework. Therefore, online students are able to take up to twelve hours of residential courses. Students must register for all courses by the end of the regular registration and drop/add period for that resident term. Registration for all courses will not be permitted after the drop/add period for that semester. Note: the tuition remission program for TFC dependents is valid for entry to online classes depending on space available.

Tuition rates are determined by the type of program the student has applied for and is intending to complete. Students applying for online degrees are billed the online tuition rate, while students applying for a resident major are billed the resident tuition rate no matter which format the class is taken.

STUDENT ACCOUNTS: Tuition and Fees

Application fee	$25
Tuition	$295/credit hour
Audit fee	$121/credit hour
Books (est)	$300-$400/semester
Student fee	$35/semester (not including summer)
Technology fee	$50/semester

Once an applicant has been accepted for admission, paid the new student deposit, received and confirmed their financial aid award letter, and registered for classes with the Registrar's Office, payment must be made in person or online. Online payment may be made by accessing tfc.edu/makepayment. Once payment has been processed and verified, access to the course will be granted from the Distance Education Office. If financial aid is needed to reconcile charges, all financial aid documents must be submitted 30 days prior to the first day of the class. Access to the online course is possible only after all financial arrangements have been met.

APPLICATION FEE

TFC requires all new students to pay a non-refundable, non-transferable $25 application fee to apply.

DEPOSIT

The college requires a non-transferable $200 deposit for online students after students receive their notification of acceptance. The advance deposit is refundable to students who request cancellation prior to May 1 for Summer and Fall semesters and November 1 for the Spring semester.

REGISTRATION

Although students have the opportunity to register for courses at different times, course registration is complete when a student has paid or made financial arrangements satisfactory to TFC for all tuition, fees, including previous balances and completes Registration on Registration day. The college charges a $50 late Registration fee to students who do not complete Registration by the end of the published Registration period for each semester (see front of this publication for dates). If financial aid is needed to reconcile charges, all financial aid documents must be submitted 30 days prior to the first day of the class.

TUITION

Online tuition for the 2014-2015 academic year is $295 per credit hour.

AUDIT FEE

The charge to audit a course for the 2014-2015 academic year is $121 per credit hour. The audit fee is not included in tuition or the student fee.

STUDENT FEE

The college charges a $35 student fee each semester of attendance. The student fee covers transcript fees, late graduation application fee, no show fees, placement fees, and all schedule change drop/add fees.

TECHNOLOGY FEE

The college charges a $50 technology fee to all new students in their first semester of attendance and each semester thereafter. The technology fee covers cost and maintenance of course management software and maintenance and enhancement of the student portal.

PAYMENTS

Students must reconcile all charges not covered by financial aid (federal loans, federal and state grants, TFC grants and scholarships, not including work-study) no later than the payment deadline for the semester. Students can reconcile their account balances by paying the balance in full via cash, check, echeck, credit card or registering for the NELNET payment plan.

There will be a $50 late payment fee assessed on accounts of previously enrolled students not reconciled by the payment deadline for the appropriate semester. The college also charges a $50 late registration fee to students who register after the Registration period for the appropriate semester. (See front of this publication for dates.)

REFUNDS FOR WITHDRAWALS

Refunds for withdrawals will follow the policy outlined in the Student Financial Services section on page 10.

SCHOLARSHIPS, GRANTS & FINANCIAL AID

Toccoa Falls College does not offer scholarships or grants due to the reduced tuition for TFC's online courses. However, if a degree is sought through the online program financial aid may be available. Refer to the financial aid section of this catalog for all general financial aid policies. Some Georgia residents may qualify for the Hope Scholarship which can be applied toward a degree received online.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS STANDARDS

Satisfactory academic progress standards for resident students as found in the financial aid and the academic information sections of the TFC Catalog also apply to students in the online programs.

SERVICE & OUTREACH

Toccoa Falls College seeks to glorify God through preparing men and women for lives of personal fulfillment and Christian service to the church and all humanity. The Service & Outreach Department desires to build on classroom learning by providing opportunities for organized and supervised ministry. In ministry assignments, students should demonstrate emotional maturity, Christian commitment with a wholesome attitude, spiritual depth, and ethical principles. Students represent not only TFC in ministry, but also represent the Lord Jesus Christ. In the performance of these ministries, honor is brought to the Lord and respect to the college.

For the Bachelor's degree (Biblical Studies, Ministry Leadership, Nonprofit Business Administration, Organizational Leadership and Youth Ministries) one assignment for each semester enrolled must be successfully completed, with a maximum of four assignments. These requirements must be met in order to graduate, participate in the commencement program or receive a diploma. All ministries are graded and become part of the student's permanent record.

Various opportunities for ministry exist, including ministry with children, youth, adults, or elderly people in preaching, teaching, counseling, music, drama, and other serving situations. Decisions on a particular ministry will be made on the basis of student preference, previous experience, and program requirements, with the approval of the Director of Service & Outreach.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Applying For Graduation

In preparation for graduation, the online Application for Graduation for all degree completion programs must be completed one full year prior to the semester of anticipated graduation. For example, if a student plans to graduate in May, he or she should apply for graduation during the registration period in the spring semester the year before.

The Registrar's Office will contact graduating students during the semester immediately preceding the commencement program with line-up lists and instructions for participation in the program. The college releases diplomas and transcripts only to students who meet all financial obligations to the college.

Degree Completion Program Graduation

Toccoa Falls College holds commencement ceremonies in May. Degree completion graduates may participate in the commencement program which follows the certification of all graduation requirements, including:

1. Completion of a minimum of 126 earned credit hours
2. A minimum grade of C- for each course in the major
3. A cumulative grade point average of 2.000 for all courses taken through TFC
4. A minimum of 30 hours in Bible & theology with at least a cumulative grade point average of 2.000 in Bible & theology courses
5. Fulfillment of all pre-requisite core courses
6. Application for Graduation submitted one full year before the anticipated graduation
7. Satisfactory completion of four service & outreach assignments
8. All financial obligations fulfilled

Degree completion students are eligible for graduation honors. All coursework and graduation requirements must be completed in order to participate in the commencement program. For those desiring to participate in the commencement ceremonies, academic regalia may be ordered and purchased through the college bookstore.

CLIMB Program Graduation

Toccoa Falls College holds commencement ceremonies in May. Graduates may participate in the commencement program which follows the certification of all graduation requirements, including coursework, grade point average requirements, required testing, and all academic and financial obligations. CLIMB students are not eligible for graduation honors. All coursework and graduation requirements must be completed in order to participate in the commencement program.

1. A minimum grade of C- for each course
2. A cumulative grade point average of 2.000 for all courses
3. Declaration of CLIMB Program Intent
4. Application for Graduation by January for the spring semester (or August for the fall semester)
5. All financial obligations fulfilled

CLIMB PROGRAM

PROGRAM PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The one-year CLIMB program offered through the Bible and Theology Department provides non-degree students with a basic academic knowledge of the content, themes, and interpretation of the Bible. CLIMB is designed to meet the desire for biblical studies by a wide variety of students who do not enroll in a course of study leading to an academic degree at this college. It will assist those who wish a foundation in Bible instruction prior to pursuing a degree in a different field. It serves lay people who desire to study the Word for personal growth or greater usefulness in their local churches. It also supplies the need of professionals and other college graduates who seek an intensive cluster of Bible courses to fulfill requirements of a mission board or other Christian organization. Ministry-related graduate students may need to take courses from this program to fulfill entrance prerequisites for their graduate programs.

Learning objectives for this program include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the contents, major themes, and doctrines of Scripture (IDEA 1)
- Developing skills in accurately interpreting Scripture and applying it to life situations (IDEA 3)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, the personal values of living out the message of Jesus and communicating that message to others as well (IDEA 10)

INTRODUCTION

The Communication Department offers programs of study that emphasize both human interaction and mediated communication. With concentrations in Interpersonal & Public Communication and Mass Communication, students are given the opportunity to explore the major areas of Communication Studies.

The study of communication at Toccoa Falls College offers a broad range of training and skill development in a Christian setting. It focuses on the clear organization and expression of ideas. It also develops written and technological skills. The programs are designed to help students master the tools and techniques of effective communication in their chosen field by providing hands-on experience in an academic environment. On a deeper level, they also provide an understanding of the purposes and moral principles of communication. These programs integrate communication skills and practice with a biblically informed understanding of the Christian worldview. The combination of an understanding of foundational communication theory together with proficiency in communication provides a skill-base sufficient to pursue employment or graduate work with confidence.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

A student desiring to pursue a major in the Communication Department should complete a Declaration of Major form as an applicant to the Communication Department. Students completing the form should arrange an appointment with the chair of the Communication Department to discuss spiritual and academic status. Students must hold a cumulative 2.0 grade point average, and have earned at least 12 semester hours, to be considered for admittance.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (B.A. or B.S.)

1. Fulfillment of all the "General Requirements for Graduation" (see section on "Degree Requirements")
2. Satisfactory completion of the hours in Communication as outlined below. A minimum grade of "C-" will be required for each course that applies toward a major in the Communication Department, and a cumulative average of 2.0 will be required for the total hours applied to the major.
3. The B.A. degree requires the completion of two years of the same language that may be taken in place of electives. Both semesters of Intermediate Greek or Hebrew will fulfill Bible & theology elective requirements as well as the language requirement for the B.A. degree.
4. A minimum grade of "C-" for each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor if the student elects to have a minor.
5. Satisfactory completion of a Senior Portfolio that provides evidence of successful attainment of the outcomes of the major.
6. Satisfactory completion of the comprehensive oral examination. The oral exam will be taken during one of the final two semesters at Toccoa Falls College.
7. Satisfactory completion of an analytical response paper that seeks to address the issue of Christ and Culture from a biblically and theologically informed position. Specific consideration will be paid to how this response is articulated in the student's chosen professional area.

Majors of the Communication Department are held to a high standard consistent with their calling. The standards are expressed in the following requirements, goals and outcomes.

COMMUNICATION STUDIES MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The major in Communication Studies provides training and education necessary for a successful life in the many areas supported by professional communication. Regardless of the concentration, the Communication student will gain valuable knowledge, skills and an attitude necessary for pursuing his/her career and life goals.

The Communication Studies major offers a concentration in the broader area of Interpersonal & Public Communication (IPC). IPC students will gain insights into the how and why of human interaction, as well as how to strategically represent themselves and organizations. Students in the IPC concentration will have the opportunity to focus on the knowledge and skills essential in leadership, public relations and a number of other areas supported by the field of human communication. Hands-on experience can be gained through specific involvement in field-related work areas involving our several student-run media outlets and other department related activities. Additionally, through internships, IPC majors will have a chance to work alongside professionals in their desired career areas.

The Communication Studies major also offers a concentration for those who want to pursue a more dedicated line of study in Mass Communication (MCM). The Mass Communication concentration seeks to produce culturally informed citizens with a high degree of media literacy who are thus well-equipped for service to the Kingdom in the creation and reception of mediated communication forms. The Communication Department maintains a FCC licensed radio station, WTXR, entirely for student use, as well as graphic design and television and video production equipment enabling students to gain hands-on experience in their field. The student interested in print media has the opportunity to gain practical experience by working with our student-run web-based newspaper, The Talon. The Department also oversees production of The Forrester, the college yearbook.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Learning fundamental principles, generalization or theories of communication (IDEA 2)
- Learning to apply course material in the context of professional communication (IDEA 3)
- Developing skill in expressing oneself orally or in writing at a level appropriate of a professional communicator (IDEA 8)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal biblical values—appropriate to a Christian communicator in intellectual and practical matters (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically evaluate ideas, arguments, and points of view of communication and communicative acts (IDEA 11)

COMMUNICATION MINORS

A minor in Communication can be a tremendously useful tool for any profession or ministry. Study in various disciplines of communication can better prepare individuals in written, interpersonal, organizational, and technical aspects of communication.

JOURNALISM MINOR - 16 hours

Most career and ministry opportunities demand strong writing and analytical skills. Journalism minor is an excellent option for students interested in free-lance work, writing, or publishing. It is also a dynamic complement to majors in Communication, English, or Business.

COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT

(706) 886-7299, ext. 5350
e-mail: counsel@tfc.edu

INTRODUCTION

The Counseling Psychology Department is committed to educating men and women in the behavioral sciences within a Christian worldview. Knowledge of the Bible and an understanding of human personality are combined in teaching psychology and counseling. Psychology and theology are integrated while retaining priority on evangelical doctrine and biblical authority. Students are encouraged to seek emotional wholeness and spiritual maturity, realizing healthy persons make better counselors. The curriculum is intended to serve those whose goal is the baccalaureate degree as well as those who need an academic foundation for graduate education.

GOALS

The successful student will demonstrate:

1. The ability to integrate biblical, theological, and scientific knowledge with a counseling methodology to function as an efficient counselor.
2. The ability to be conversant with an array of counseling approaches, both Christian and secular, including both the theoretical and the applied principles involved.
3. The ability to display a basic competence in interviewing skills and counseling techniques.
4. The ability to conduct biblical counseling with strategic intent in treating a diversity of adjustment problems.
5. The ability to utilize the knowledge of how diverse personalities respond differentially to counseling and evangelism.
6. A willingness to evaluate aspects of the student's personality which may facilitate or hinder success in a chosen professional field.
7. An uncompromising commitment to Christian principles and the preeminence of scriptural truth in the midst of scientific empiricism and humanistic biases.
8. Familiarity with the classical personality theories.
9. The ability to critique scholarly journal articles.
10. Familiarity with the basic principles of psychological research.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

A student desiring to pursue a major in the Counseling Psychology Department must submit a Declaration of Major form as well as an Application for Declared Counseling Students. The advisor assigned to that student will submit his/her name to the faculty of the Counseling Psychology Department where a majority vote is needed. Upon approval, the student will receive a letter of notification regarding acceptance from the Department Chair. Students must hold a 2.0 cumulative grade point average and have earned at least 12 semester hours to be considered for admittance. A curriculum checklist is given to each student and updated with the advisor throughout the student's academic career. It is recommended that this process be completed before the end of the freshmen year.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (B.A. or B.S.)

1. Fulfillment of all the "General Requirements for Graduation" (see section on "Academic Information")
2. Satisfactory completion of all required courses listed with a minimum grade of "C-" in all counseling and psychology courses. A cumulative average of 2.0 will be required for the total hours applied to the major
3. Satisfactory completion of a counseling internship served in a community agency or professional setting, or a senior research paper
4. Student portfolio

COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Counseling Psychology major provides academic preparation in foundational psychological and counseling concepts, intellectual preparation through advanced studies of theory and philosophy of persons and relationships, and professional preparation in counseling laboratory and practicum events.

The learning objectives for this program include the following:

- Gaining faculty knowledge leading to competency in the knowledge base of counseling and psychology (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, or theories related to counseling and psychology (IDEA 2)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in the counseling field (IDEA 4)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal Biblical values for use in Christian counseling (IDEA 10)

COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY: PRE-MED TRACK

Course Schedule for the Pre-Med track is listed in the Humanities & Natural Sciences Department section of this Catalog.

Because it enriches the applicant to medical and other professional schools with the knowledge of human psychology and behavior, in addition to the acquisition of invaluable interpersonal, clinical and diagnostic skills, this major's curriculum will provide the student with a degree that will be seen by the various professional schools as highly desirable and competitive. It also offers the academic and skill foundation to prepare the student to apply to counseling and psychology graduate programs, or apply to the nursing field, or other programs in the medical support fields, such as physical therapy, occupations therapy, etc.

In addition, the service-oriented community and missions experiences our students are known to take with them is an important part of the experience of this "well-rounded" physician or professional that professional school admissions committees tend to value.

And, like our present counseling psychology major, the knowledge and skills acquired through this program can be effectively used in the traditional ministries or missions.

This major's degree curriculum will offer the following:

- The requisite 42 semester hours in the major field of study
- The basic science and math courses required for admission to medical school
- Additional elective time to fulfill specific additional requirements of various professional fields
- The required 30 semester hours of Bible and Theology.

HUMANITIES & NATURAL SCIENCES DEPARTMENT

(706) 886-7299, ext. 5418
e-mail: humnat@tfc.edu

INTRODUCTION

The Humanities & Natural Sciences Department serves the total student body by providing the 39 hour general education core curriculum, teaching students to think constructively about every area of life based on the biblical worldview. We also offer the Associate of Arts degree, a two-year community college degree that meets the needs of students who desire only two years of college or that allows them to lay a biblical foundation at a Christian college before transferring to a secular university for a more specialized major. The B. A. degrees in English, History, and Philosophy prepare students for graduate school or professional school (i.e., seminary or law school) and for careers in teaching, journalism, Christian writing, etc. A Pre-Med program along with the Biology major also prepares students for professional service. Humanities & Natural Sciences also provides concentrations in English, History, or Science for secondary education majors, along with minors in Behavioral Science, Biology, English, French, History, P.E. (coaching), Philosophy, or Spanish.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

A student desiring to pursue a program in the Humanities & Natural Sciences Department must submit a Declaration of Major Form as an application. Then the student is assigned one of the Humanities & Natural Sciences Department instructors as an advisor. Students must hold a cumulative 2.0 grade point average, and have at least 12 earned hours, for consideration for admittance to the Humanities & Natural Sciences Department.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (A.A.)

1. Fulfillment of all the "General Requirements for Graduation" for the Associate of Arts Degree (see section on "Degree Requirements")
2. For minors in Behavioral Science, Biology, Coaching, English, French, History, Philosophy, or Spanish, completion of all required courses in the curriculum below with a minimum grade of "C-" in all minor courses; a minimum of 15 hours in the area of specialization for those specializing in one of the eight minors offered
3. For minors in disciplines outside of the Humanities & Natural Sciences Department, completion of all required courses in accordance with the regulations of the appropriate school

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (B.A. or B.S.)

1. Fulfillment of all the "General Requirements for Graduation" (see section on "Degree Requirements")
2. For the Biology Major (B.S.): Satisfactory completion of a minimum of 15 hours in Biology above the 100 level and two semesters each of inorganic chemistry, organic chemistry and physics are required, plus one semester of biochemistry, for a total of 28 additional credit hours. A grade of "C-" or better must be achieved in all science courses, along with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 for the total hours applied to the major
3. For the English and History Majors (B.A.): Satisfactory completion of a minimum of 30 hours in either English or History above the 100 level, with a grade of "C-" or better in all major prefixed courses, and a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 for the total hours applied to the major. At least 12 ENG or HIS hours must be at the 300-level or above and at least six hours at the 400-level. Two years of the same foreign language is required. If Greek is chosen, GRK 333 and GRK 343 may also count as the six hours of Bible electives in the Bible and Theology requirement. In this case an additional six hours of English or History must be taken
4. For the General Studies Major (B.S. or B.A.): Satisfactory completion of a minimum of 36 hours of Major Elective courses, 24 of which must be at the 300-level and 400-level. A grade of "C-" or better must be achieved in all of these courses, and a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 must be maintained for the total hours applied to the major. If a student wishes to receive a B.A. in General Studies, he/she will need to take two years of the same foreign language through successful completion of the second year of intermediate studies. The foreign language option serves as exemplary preparation for graduate studies, and the flexibility of the coursework structure makes it a viable option for all students pursuing a major in General Studies.
5. For the Philosophy Major: Satisfactory completion of 42 hours in Philosophy with a grade of "C-" or better in all major prefixed courses. The department requires a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 for the total hours applied to the major
6. A minimum grade of "C-" is required in each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor if the student elects to have a minor

BIOLOGY (PRE-MED) MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Biology major prepares students for medical school, veterinary school, pharmacy school, or graduate work in biology.

The learning objectives for this major include:

- Gaining factual knowledge of scientific facts, terminology, classifications, and methods in biology (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles and theories of biological science (IDEA 2)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in medicine or scientific research (IDEA 4)
- Developing a clear understanding of and commitment to biblical values as related to biological science (IDEA 10)

ENGLISH MAJOR (B.A.) PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Bachelor of Arts degree in English in a Bible-college setting provides a rich window for the cultural and intellectual heritage of Western man and a thorough grounding in the basic tools of learning that apply to all the humanities. It is an excellent choice as a pre-professional program (e.g., pre-seminary or pre-law) or for those planning to go on for graduate work in English. (NOTE: Those planning to teach English in secondary schools should take the English Education (6-12) program offered in the Teacher Education Department.)

The English major provides intellectual preparation in the skills of language use and interpretation, academic preparation in the history of English and American literature, and professional preparation for graduate work in English, seminary, or law.

The learning objectives for this major include:

- Gaining factual knowledge of periods, movements, authors, and works in English and American Literature (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles and theories of literary interpretation (IDEA 2)
- Gaining a broader understanding and appreciation of literature and its contributions to life and culture (IDEA 7)
- Developing a clear understanding of and commitment to biblical values relating to literature and life (IDEA 10)

GENERAL STUDIES MAJOR (B.S or B.A.) PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Bachelor of Science degree in General Studies or the Bachelor of Arts degree in General Studies (requiring two years of foreign language study) offers an outstanding option for students unable to locate a traditional major that meets academic, professional, and/or ministry goals. In addition, this approach is ideal for a student unable to meet major requirements at a late stage of a previous program. Maximum flexibility allows a student to shape a program defined by academic rigor and personal interest. Students are encouraged to use their 21 hours of open electives to fulfill requirements for a minor. Although a minor is not a requirement for General Studies, all minor requirements will apply if selected. The program's biblical worldview integrates faith and learning in all coursework.

The learning objectives for this major include:

- Gaining factual knowledge in interdisciplinary pursuits in areas including biblical & theological studies, humanities, social sciences, computer, science, and mathematics (IDEA 1)
- Learning to apply course material to cultivate critical thinking skills (IDEA 3)
- Developing skill in expressing oneself orally and in writing (IDEA 8)
- Learning how to find and use resources for college-level research projects in cross-disciplinary contexts (IDEA 9)
- Developing a clear understanding of and commitment to personal biblical values in all aspects of life (IDEA 10)

HISTORY MAJOR (B.A.) PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Bachelor of Arts degree in History provides a liberal arts education within the context of a Christian worldview that rests on a thoroughly biblical foundation. Knowledge and skills obtained within the major serve as excellent preparation for graduate work in history, law, or seminary. Career opportunities are wide and varied; education, law, business, journalism, and government are some of the fields within which a degree in History is valued. (NOTE: Those planning to teach History in secondary schools should take the History Education (6-12) program offered in the Teacher Education Department.)

The learning objectives for this major include:

- Gaining factual knowledge of periods, movements, and events in history (IDEA 1)

- Learning fundamental principles and theories of historical interpretation (IDEA 2)
- Developing specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in the fields of historical research, teaching, or pre-professional studies (IDEA 4)
- Developing a clear understanding of and commitment to biblical values relating to history (IDEA 10)

PHILOSOPHY MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Philosophy major prepares students with essential critical thinking skills applicable to an extensive choice of educational, ministry, or career preferences. Contrary to popular opinion, law schools, medical institutions, seminaries, graduate schools, parachurch organizations, and even business leaders value philosophy majors because they are more likely to be equipped with keen analytical and communication skills. In addition, committed Christians trained in philosophy are well-prepared to engage contemporary culture in America and abroad.

The learning objectives for this major include:

- Fundamental principles, generalizations or theories (IDEA 2)
- To apply course material to improve critical thinking skills (IDEA 3)
- To analyze and critically evaluate ideas, arguments and points of view (IDEA 11)
- To acquire an interest in learning more by asking questions and seeking answers (IDEA 12)

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Associate of Arts degree provides future servant leaders with the knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to a junior college degree or future study, from a biblical worldview for kingdom service.

The learning objectives for this major include:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the history, literature, and science, etc. of Western culture (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles of mathematics and computers (IDEA 2)
- Developing skill in expressing oneself orally and in writing (IDEA 8)
- Learning how to find and use resources in college-level research (IDEA 9)
- Developing a clearer understanding of and commitment to personal biblical values (IDEA 10)

HUMANITIES & NATURAL SCIENCES MINORS

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE MINOR - 15 hours

A minor in Behavioral Science offers the student an opportunity to gain greater understanding of individual human behavior and of social groups. Such specialization contributes to the training of those who plan to work with people: in the ministry, in general Christian witnessing, in professional counseling, and in social and community service.

Choose one of the following courses:

ANT 203	Cultural Anthropology	3
ANT 323	Applied Ethnography	3

Choose one of the following courses:

CSG 113	Introduction to Counseling	3
EDU 323	Educational Psychology	3
PSY 113	General Psychology	3
PSY 243	Developmental Psychology	3
PSY 353	Personality Theories	3
PSY 423	Tests & Measurements	3

Choose one of the following courses:

SOC 213	Introduction to Sociology	3
SOC 223	Contemporary Social Problems	3
SOC 233	Marriage & Family Communication	3

Choose two additional courses from the above three areas.

MAT 253 Introductory Statistics is recommended as a supporting course. Students are reminded that minors must have 15 hours that do not overlap with their major. Substitutions may be necessary depending on major choice.

BIOLOGY MINOR – 15-16 hours

The Biology minor provides students with unique opportunities to integrate Christian faith with scientific learning. Understanding basic cell biology strengthens appreciation for the design of life and gives greater understanding of contemporary bioethical issues facing society.

Required courses:

BIO 114	Biology I	4
BIO 124	Biology II	4

Select at least 7 hours from the following courses:

BIO 234	General Microbiology	4
BIO 313	Evolutionary Biology	3
BIO 314	Genetics	4
BIO 413	Cell Biology	3
BIO 423	Ecology	3

ENGLISH MINOR - 15 hours

A minor in English provides an opportunity for the student to obtain some knowledge of literature, which can enrich the Christian life and testimony by a vicarious exposure to all kinds of people, situations, and values in the works studied. An advanced writing course offers the student intensive practice in integrating Christian faith with its written expression. ENG 201 cannot be used to fulfill the requirements of this minor.

FRENCH MINOR – 15 hours

A minor in French builds on basic courses to provide further expertise in French language, literature, and culture.

FRN 233	Intermediate French I or equivalent	3
FRN 243	Intermediate French II or equivalent	3

FRN 313	French Composition & Conversation	3
FRN 323	Survey of French Literature	3
FRN 413	French Civilization	3
FRN 423	Francophone World	3

HISTORY MINOR - 15 hours

A minor in History at a Christian college enables the student to view history from the conceptual framework of the Christian faith, to develop critical insight into historical problems, to relate the history of the Christian church with other developments, and to learn some of the methods of historical inquiry.

HIS ____	History Elective	3

SPN 413	Spanish Civilization	3
SPN 423	Latin American Civilization	3

PRE-LAW STUDY AT TFC

It surprises many students to learn that law schools do not recommend a particular curricular path for admission. Instead, they prefer applicants prepared by a broad range of challenging courses that develop skills in areas such as problem solving, critical thinking, research, writing, and oral communication. Therefore, most colleges do not offer a “pre-law” major. The American Bar Association (ABA) counsels undergraduate students as follows: “The ABA does not recommend any undergraduate majors or group of courses to prepare for a legal education. Students are admitted to law school from almost every academic discipline. You may choose to major in subjects that are considered to be traditional preparation for law school, such as history, English, philosophy, political science, economics or business, or you may focus your undergraduate studies in areas as diverse as art, music, science and mathematics, computer science, engineering, nursing or education. Whatever major you select, you are encouraged to pursue an area of study that interests and challenges you, while taking advantage of opportunities to develop your research and writing skills.”

Toccoa Falls College offers majors in business, English, history, and philosophy as standard routes to law school. However, our majors in biblical interpretation, communication studies, and cross-cultural studies also develop proficiencies that law schools find highly desirable (careful reading and analysis of complex material, speaking and listening skills, and an understanding of diverse cultures, respectively). Regardless of the major chosen, students should consider taking several of the following courses as electives, or as components of a minor:

COM 283 Persuasion
ECO 213 Microeconomics
ENG 383 Advanced Composition
HIS 233 History of the United States I
IPC 343 Advanced Public Speaking
PHY 223 Logic
PHY 233 Critical Thinking
PHY 243 Ethics
POL 213 American Government

In addition to rigorous academic training, law schools value service to others and the promotion of justice. To again cite the ABA, “you should seek some significant experience, before coming to law school, in which you may devote substantial effort toward assisting others. Participation in public service projects or similar efforts at achieving objectives established for common purposes can be particularly helpful.” These objectives align nicely with the intention of TFC to be a college that intentionally integrates the development of character with intellect. Students interested in law school have the opportunity to demonstrate these values through our Service & Outreach program, and they should think about tailoring their Service & Outreach choices accordingly. Involvement in TFC student organizations like Student Government Association (SGA) and Students of Diversity (SOD) also provides valuable experience in this area.

Students interested in pursuing a legal education should notify the pre-law advisor (Prof. Alisa Thomas) as early in their academic training as possible. This advisor works with you to ensure that your curricular goals are met and that you receive the best available information to achieve a strong performance on the Law School Admission Test (LSAT).

PRE-MEDICAL PROGRAM OPTIONS AT TOCCOA FALLS COLLEGE

Toccoa Falls College offers several options for students considering medical careers. Students should carefully review these options to determine which will best meet their career goals.

1. Biology Major
2. Cross-Cultural Studies: For Medical Professionals Major
3. Pre-Med Track for Baccalaureate Majors
4. Pre-Nursing Track for the Associate of Arts Degree
5. Prerequisite courses for admission to Life University Chiropractic School

1. The Biology Major is a standard four year baccalaureate major at TFC offered through the Humanities & Natural Sciences Department. This major is designed to prepare students for medical school, veterinary school, pharmacy school, or graduate work in Biology.

2. The Cross-Cultural Studies: for Medical Professionals Major is offered through the World Missions Department. The program is built around a curriculum that has a solid core of missions, anthropology, Bible courses, and some core curriculum courses, and is designed to build on medical studies that have been completed or will be completed at another college or university. The World Missions Department highly recommends that the student desiring to take this major first complete certification as an RN, as the program requires the passing of board exams for the RN. In addition to the two year Toccoa Falls College curriculum, the student must have a minimum of 60 transferable hours from an accredited institution and the RN certification, for graduation. It results in the Bachelor of Science degree with the major in Cross-Cultural Studies: For Medical Professionals. This program is designed for students completing the RN (most often in conjunction with an Associate of Science in Nursing elsewhere) that are looking to minister as a registered nurse in a second culture. [Note: Established medical doctors may also choose this major if they desire the cross-cultural training this program affords.]

3. The Pre-Med Track for Baccalaureate Majors is provided through the Humanities & Natural Sciences Department. It is not a recognized major, minor, or concentration. It is simply a track of courses designed to meet the prerequisite requirements of most medical schools and can be integrated with any of the baccalaureate majors offered at Toccoa Falls College. Medical schools do not specify one particular major over another. A Toccoa Falls College major should be selected that will best complement the medical career of the student's choice. For example, Counseling Psychology would be an excellent choice for equipping as a physician with the ability to minister to spiritual and emotional needs as well as the physical. The standard Cross-Cultural Studies major would be a great choice for those intending to minister as a medical doctor in a second culture. Philosophy would provide a strong background in critical thinking and ethics, etc. This track is designed for students who wish to apply later to medical school for training as a medical doctor after graduating with one of Toccoa Falls College's standard baccalaureate majors.

4. The Pre-Nursing Track for the Associate of Arts Degree is a track of prerequisite courses designed to be taken along with our other standard Associate of Arts degree courses through the Humanities & Natural Sciences Department. The Pre-Nursing track courses have been chosen to meet the prerequisite requirements of the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) from both Piedmont College and Brenau University with whom we have articulation agreements. A student taking the additional track courses earns the standard Associate of Arts degree from Toccoa Falls College and meets the basic entrance requirements for Brenau and Piedmont. This track of courses is designed for students intending to transfer to Piedmont College or Brenau University for the BSN. Students planning on a different school for their BSN should check with that school for their prerequisite criteria.

5. Prerequisite Courses for Admission to Life University Chiropractic School. Toccoa Falls College also has an articulation agreement with Life University whereby if a student completes 90 hours of core and science courses, he or she may be admitted to the Doctor of Chiropractic program at Life University. Although the agreement does not specify that the student earn the Bachelor's degree, it is the recommendation of Toccoa Falls College that the student graduate with a Bachelor's in addition to fulfilling the stated prerequisites prior to attending Life University. This program is designed for students desiring to attend Life University for the Doctor of Chiropractic degree. See the Registrar's Office for details.

¹Though most nursing programs do not require basic Biology courses, Microbiology will be difficult without at least a strong background in high school Biology courses. Some students may want to take both Biology courses in summer school before taking Microbiology.

²Capable students may lighten their semester or summer load by taking the CLEP for possible CLEP credit, such as Biology, American Government, Introduction to Psychology, Developmental Psychology, Introduction to Sociology, History of the US, Spanish, or College Algebra.

³While the above course sequence covers the prerequisites for admission to the Bachelor of Science Nursing Program at Piedmont College, students should check the exact prerequisites of the program for the School of Nursing to which they intend to apply. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 is required for acceptance to Piedmont's nursing program. GPA alone, however, does not guarantee admission to the School of Nursing. Failure of more than two Science courses or a second failure in any one Science course results in ineligibility for admission to the School of Nursing. The sequence above would qualify the student to receive an Associate of Arts degree from TFC. Any Piedmont course prerequisites not completed above may be completed at Piedmont College prior to admission to the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program.

²Capable students may lighten their semester or summer load by taking the CLEP for certain courses. Please note that Brenau's transfer credit policy does not allow placement credit to transfer. Therefore, if a student places out of Freshman Composition I, the student will need to take alternate approved courses to substitute for Brenau's mandatory nursing prerequisite courses (and liberal education requirements). If the student receives credit for CLEP, an official CLEP transcript must be submitted to Brenau and the credit will be awarded for the CLEP based on Brenau's CLEP transfer guidelines. The semester or summer load could be decreased further by testing out in other courses for possible CLEP credit, such as Biology, American Government, Introduction to Psychology, Developmental Psychology, Introduction to Sociology, Macroeconomics, History of the US, Spanish, French, or College Algebra. Please contact Brenau prior to taking any CLEP exams to make sure that the CLEP is accepted at Brenau. As stated above, Brenau University will require an original official CLEP transcript to award credit.

³Three hours of foreign language through the Intermediate I (233) level or six hours of Elementary I & II (113 & 123).

Prerequisite Courses for Admission to Life University Chiropractic School

Students anticipating enrolling in the Doctor of Chiropractic program of Life University may meet the program prerequisites by taking the following courses through Toccoa Falls College. PRE-MED STUDY AT TFC

Does TFC have a pre-med major?

No. Actually there is no such thing as an undergraduate pre-med major. Medical schools do not specify one particular major over another. Students may select any major as long as they take the courses listed as prerequisites for entrance to graduate medical schools. The pre-med sequence at TFC allows you to choose any one of our majors and still take the courses necessary for admission to graduate medical schools.

What we have designed is a sequence of courses that will meet the requirements for entrance to most medical schools. The sequence is structured around the core consisting of biblical studies and general studies, and also takes into account the scheduling for your chosen major.

What major should I select while taking the pre-med sequence?

You should select an area of study that will best complement the particular medical career you are contemplating. Biology is an obvious choice, but other majors can also be considered. For example, counseling/psychology could equip you as a physician with the ability to minister to spiritual and emotional needs as well as the physical. If you are interested in overseas ministry, the cross-cultural major would be excellent preparation. Philosophy would give you a strong background in critical thinking and ethics. Music would be an obvious choice for a field such as music therapy. Business would prepare you for management in health services. Communication Studies would enhance your ability to relate well to others. English would open doors for writing in the area of medicine and health services. Others majors would be possible as well.

We also have available a biology major for those who want a narrower focus particularly on science. This major has the advantage of enabling you to complete all the requirements for pre-med in the fewest number of semester hours.

Your choice of a major should also take into consideration the possibility that you may not be accepted into a graduate medical school. Competition for entrance is keen. At the University of Georgia, for instance, only about one in five students who apply will be accepted. You should view your major as something that will prepare you for an alternate career or open doors to graduate study in another area of real interest to you.

What courses are prerequisites for entrance to medical schools?

Different medical colleges vary somewhat in the courses they want a student to have completed before applying. If you have a particular medical school in mind, you should check that school's admissions website to determine exactly what the prerequisites for that school are. The University of Georgia, for example, requires the following:

- One year of general biology or zoology
- One year of general/inorganic chemistry
- One year of advanced chemistry (includes organic chemistry and biochemistry)
- One year of physics
- One year of English

Many schools also require some advanced math, such as calculus. Others require or recommend such courses as microbiology, statistics, genetics, or anatomy/physiology.

For more details on specific schools, check on the Medical School Admission Requirements book published by the Association of American Medical Colleges. There is a copy in our library. You will also find much helpful information for students on the association's website at www.aamc.org.

Can I schedule all the necessary courses in four years?

It is possible to complete the program in eight semesters, though it would require a load of 17 – 20 hours each semester. We recommend that students in this program plan on taking at least one summer school in order to keep the semester load at 15 – 17 hours. It is very important to maintain high grades, especially in the science courses, so it would be wise to spread the credit load into at least one summer. A sample schedule is shown on the next page, though some variation is possible.

What are my chances of getting accepted into a medical school?

There is a high demand for a limited number of spaces in medical colleges. These schools will be very selective, accepting only about one in five applicants. The average GPA of a student admitted to med school is about 3.7. The average score nationwide for students taking the day-long MCAT (Medical College Admissions Test) is 8 - 9 on a scale of 15 for each of the three multiple choice sections (physical sciences, biological sciences, and reading with verbal reasoning). There is also a writing skills section. Students admitted to med school averaged about 10 on each section. There are practice tests available on the AAMC website, as well as commercial agencies that provide preparation for the MCAT.

A well-rounded liberal arts education is one of the best preparations you can get. A higher percentage of applicants from majors from liberal arts areas are accepted into medical school than applicants who take the traditional science majors such as biology. This may be because med schools are looking for students who have a broad background in the humanities and social sciences, as well as developed abilities in critical thinking and communication skills.

In addition, they desire students who demonstrate integrity, responsibility, and initiative. A student's involvement in health care opportunities is also seen as indicating his/her motivation for a career in medicine. Cross-cultural experience and sensitivity to the concerns of others are sought after by admissions committees as well.

The following factors are considered most important by medical schools:

- Your GPA for undergraduate work as an indication of your intellectual capacity
- Your score on the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT)
- Your research experience in some science courses
- Your personal characteristics and qualities
- Your ability to communicate well with patients and health-care professionals
- Your emotional stability and capacity to withstand the stress of the program
- Your work responsibilities prior to application
- Your ethnic, socioeconomic or cultural background

- Your commitment to serve others through the practice of medicine
- Your motivation and potential for success in completing studies
- Your ability to “sell yourself” in personal interviews
- Your letters from references
- Your involvement in community service, such as volunteer work in a clinic or hospital, or experience in “shadowing” physicians

You should also be aware that state-supported medical schools strongly prefer applicants from their own states. Only a small percentage of applicants from out-of-state are accepted at these schools.

For what kinds of careers will the pre-med sequence prepare me?

Medicine is an expanding field with a number of directions you may choose. Some of the most common areas are the following:

- Physician
- Physician’s assistant
- Dentist
- Dental hygienist
- Nurse Practitioner
- Physical Therapist
- Respiratory Therapist
- Occupational Therapist
- Veterinarian
- Medical research
- Medical technology
- Medical missions
- Psychiatrist (with counseling major)
- Nursing (two-year pre-nursing track leading to the associates degree)

The value of a TFC preparation for medical careers

TFC is uniquely positioned to prepare you for a career in medicine. We combine the strengths of both a Bible college and a Christian liberal arts college. Like a Bible college, we require 30 credit hours of Bible and theology for every major, as well as practical ministry involvement of all students. We believe this kind of grounding in the Word of God is essential for all Great Commission believers, not just those going into traditional “full-time” ministry. So, like a liberal arts college, we offer a variety of majors to prepare students for careers that will further the Kingdom in many areas of life.

There are very few Bible colleges that offer a program to prepare you for careers in medicine. On the other hand, there are very few liberal arts colleges that provide the emphasis on Bible and theology you will find in a Bible college. At TFC you can have the best of both worlds. You will learn biblical principles that will form a solid foundation for moral and ethical decision-making throughout your career in medicine. And you will also have the coursework you need to gain entrance to that career. The Service & Outreach involvement at TFC is also a natural fit with the kind of volunteer work that medical schools expect applicants to have.

The program at TFC will be quite rigorous, but you’ll have a preparation here unparalleled anywhere else.

INTRODUCTION

The Bible & Theology Department serves the total student body by providing the 30 hours of Bible & theology requirement. The department also serves those students who elect to major or minor in a Bible & theology area by providing additional courses. The Bible & Theology Department offers a number of majors and minors that provide extensive Bible knowledge, advanced theological studies, and a challenge toward greater spiritual maturity for students who desire to prepare for various facets of full-time Christian ministry. This program contributes to a broad knowledge of the content, themes, and application of selected books of the Bible providing a solid foundation for various responsibilities related to full-time Christian ministry. It also provides an advanced knowledge of systematic theology facilitating entry into full-time Christian ministry and providing a foundation for a lifetime of theological inquiry as well as a level of spiritual maturity necessary for entry into leadership in Christian ministry.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

A student desiring to pursue a major in the Bible & Theology Department must submit a Declaration of Major form as an application. Such application is expected to be made before the beginning of the junior year. Then the student will be assigned one of the Bible & Theology professors as an advisor. After the student has earned at least 12 semester hours, the advisor will submit that student's name to the entire faculty of the Bible & Theology Department, who will vote on the applicant, with a majority needed for approval. Factors that can deter a student from approval include: a cumulative grade point average of less than 2.0; defects of character; serious breach of conduct; a contentious spirit; or unsuitability for Christian ministry. A letter is sent to inform the student whether the application has been approved, disapproved, or delayed.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (B.A. OR B.S.)

1. Fulfillment of all the "General Requirements for Graduation" (see section on "Degree Requirements")
2. Satisfactory completion of all majors courses listed in one of the four majors below with a "C-" or better
3. A cumulative average of 2.0 will be required for the total hours applied to the major
4. Satisfactory completion of a written examination and an oral examination given by a faculty committee with a grade of "C-" or better. Results of these examinations will appear on the student's transcript.
5. A minimum grade of "C-" for each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor if the student elects to have a minor
6. Satisfactory completion of at least 5 semesters of Service & Outreach projects

DOUBLE MAJOR IN BIBLE & THEOLOGY PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The major in Bible & Theology is uniquely designed to serve as a secondary major for students wishing to double major outside of their primary discipline. It builds upon courses already taken to satisfy the 30-hour Bible & Theology core for all programs, and enables students to increase their focus on biblical and theological studies. This major is only available for students with a primary major outside of the Bible & Theology department, and only as a secondary major.

The learning objectives for this major include:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the Bible & theology (IDEA 1)
- Developing a clearer understanding of and commitment to personal faith values (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically evaluate ideas and arguments relevant to biblical and theological studies (IDEA 11)

BIBLICAL STUDIES PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Biblical Studies major provides academic preparation in the study of selected books of the Old and New Testaments. The major also offers spiritual preparation through personal and practical applications of the principles found in biblical and devotional literature. Students are prepared professionally and develop skills needed to progress to graduate level work and beyond in the areas of pastoral ministry, teaching, and other Christian ministries.

The learning objectives for this major include:

- Gaining detailed factual knowledge of Biblical Literature beyond the general knowledge provided by the core (IDEA 1)
- Developing skills in expressing oneself orally or in writing and presenting material appropriate to the student's professional goals (IDEA 8)
- Developing a clearer understanding of and commitment to biblical values (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically evaluate ideas and arguments relevant to the major and advanced biblical knowledge (IDEA 11)

BIBLICAL LANGUAGES PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Biblical Languages major provides academic preparation in the study of the languages of the Old and New Testaments. Students are prepared to translate and exegete the foundational texts of Scripture and develop the skills needed to progress to graduate level work and beyond in the areas of pastoral ministry and teaching.

The learning objectives for this major includes:

- Gaining factual knowledge of biblical languages (IDEA 1)
- Developing specific skills in translation and interpretation needed by professionals in the field (IDEA 4)
- Learning to analyze and critically evaluate ideas and arguments relevant to the major and advanced biblical interpretation (IDEA 11)

CHRISTIAN THOUGHT PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Christian Thought major provides academic preparation in the study of the structure of Christian beliefs and practices. The major also offers spiritual preparation through personal and practical applications of the principles found in the theological heritage of the Christian faith. Students are prepared to engage society with the truth of the Christian message, and develop skills needed to progress to graduate level work and beyond in the areas of ministry, academic teaching, and other ministry-focused vocations.

The learning objectives for this major include:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the logic and theological beliefs of the Christian faith beyond the general knowledge provided by the core (IDEA 1)
- Developing a clearer understanding of and commitment to personal faith values (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically evaluate ideas and arguments relevant to the major and advanced theological knowledge (IDEA 11)

CLIMB PROGRAM(College Level Instruction with Maximum Bible)*PROGRAM PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The one-year CLIMB program offered through the Bible & Theology Department provides non-degree students with a basic academic knowledge of the content, themes, and interpretation of the Bible. CLIMB is designed to meet the desire for biblical studies by a wide variety of students who do not enroll in a course of study leading to an academic degree at this college. It will assist those who wish a foundation in Bible instruction prior to pursuing a degree in a different field. It serves lay people who desire to study the Word for personal growth or greater usefulness in their local churches. It also supplies the need of professionals and other college graduates who seek an intensive cluster of college level Bible courses to fulfill requirements of a mission board or other Christian organization. Ministry-related students seeking graduate degrees may need to take courses from this program to fulfill entrance prerequisites for their graduate programs.

Learning objectives for this program include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the contents, major themes, and doctrines of Scripture (IDEA 1)
- Developing skills in accurately interpreting Scripture and applying it to life situations (IDEA 3)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, the personal values of living out the message of Jesus and communicating that message to others as well (IDEA 10)

GLOBAL MINISTRIES DEPARTMENT

(706) 886-7299, ext. 5252

e-mail: gmd@tfc.edu

INTRODUCTION

The Global Ministries Department exists to train men and women to effectively communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ to people of other cultures who have little or no access to this message. Communicating effectively in a second culture requires ethnographic knowledge and communication skills that can be learned, practiced, and refined. This does not eliminate the necessity for God's guidance and the empowering of His Spirit. In fact, thorough training enhances the cooperative efforts of God and the Christian communicator to the extent that reaching the thousands of unreached people groups and ministry support for those many unevangelized areas becomes an attainable goal. The Global Ministries Department values wholehearted devotion to Christ, Biblically informed practice, scholarly based training, incarnational living, and discipling among the unreached.

The faculty in the Global Ministries Department is comprised of people who have served in other cultures and are academically trained to deliver a curriculum which will prepare those whom God is leading to serve Him in a new culture. With a biblical worldview at the foundation of their teaching, these faculty aim at excellence in the preparation of prospective cross-cultural servant-leaders to communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ, especially to those who have never heard. Graduates of the Global Ministries Department serve in many roles and in many cultures, including the multi-cultural mosaic of the United States. A common thread that binds graduates together is the compelling desire to reach those who have yet to learn of God's great Gift to all people, for "Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12).

The Global Ministries Department offers five majors, Cross-Cultural Studies, Cross-Cultural Business Administration, Cross-Cultural Adult Education, Sustainable Community Development and Cross-Cultural Medical Fields Plan. The department also offers an option of six specialized minors designed to meet the qualification of mission organizations and denominations and to prepare the graduate to live, work, and minister successfully in a second culture. These majors provide spiritual preparation through 30 semester hours of Bible and theology. They also provide preparation through the biblical emphasis in all courses. The Christian worldview of experienced professors and their mentoring relationship with students in these majors insure a depth of Christian maturity able to sustain the graduate who will serve in a second culture and language. In all degrees offered by the Global Ministries Department, gifts and abilities are assessed as well as the student's understanding of God's call to Himself and His leading in serving Him.

In addition to the five majors and six minors referred to above, the Global Ministries Department offers a selection of five minors to students in other majors at Toccoa Falls College.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

A student desiring to pursue a major in the Global Ministries Department, and has completed 12 semester hours, must submit a Declaration of Major form to the department chair. A cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 must be attained before admission. The advisor responsible for the area of specialization for which the student has applied (or an advisor designated by the Department chair) will conduct an interview. Following the interview, the entire GMD faculty will review the student's application. Upon satisfactory completion of this application procedure, the student will receive a letter of notification regarding acceptance from the Department chair.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (B.A. or B.S.)

1. Fulfillment of all the general requirements for graduation (see section on "Curriculum Structure & Degree Requirements")
2. Satisfactory completion of all required courses as listed in one of the curricula below with a minimum grade of "C-" in all courses in a student's major. A minimum cumulative average of 2.0 is required for the total hours necessary for graduation from the Global Ministries Department
3. Satisfactory completion of a senior evaluation interview conducted by a faculty committee or an approved sending agency
4. A minimum grade of "C-" for each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor if the student elects to take a minor
5. Completion of six weeks of cross-cultural field internship in a new culture

CROSS-CULTURAL STUDIES MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Cross-Cultural Studies major equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to communicate the Gospel of Jesus Christ to people of other cultures from a biblical worldview for kingdom service. The major contributes to an understanding of cross-cultural principles drawn from cultural anthropology and missiology; competence in the application of skills and knowledge in a specific cultural context; and comprehension of the history, theology, and strategy of Christian missions. Students use this knowledge to develop a personalized plan for language acquisition, cross-cultural ministry competence, and growth in their understanding and application of biblical principles to daily life and the discipling of others.

It is the recommendation of the faculty that the student in this major takes one of the six specialized minors offered in the Global Ministries Department. There is also the alternative of 15 hours of open electives, which may be used to take a minor offered in any other department.

Semester Abroad for CCS Students

For CCS students there is a Semester Abroad offered in the fall of the senior year for those who desire to spend a semester abroad during their TFC experience. The student may select one of various centers located outside the U.S. and complete the fall semester classes while overseas. By selecting this option, the student does not do the six-week summer internship but instead fulfills the internship requirement via the Semester Abroad program.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge of cultural issues in diverse cultures in order to be able to relate to the context (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, or theories necessary to interpret the cross-cultural setting for ministry purposes (IDEA 2)
- Learning to apply course material in cross-cultural settings to enable more effective ministry (IDEA 3)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals to understand an unfamiliar cultural setting in order to establish a culturally sensitive church (IDEA 4)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal Biblical values in order to contextualize those values into another cultural setting (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically judge cross-cultural realities which are valuable/not valuable in contextualizing the Gospel (IDEA 11)

CROSS-CULTURAL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Cross-Cultural Business Administration major equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skills, and character pertinent to living and ministering in the realm of international business, tent-making employment, missions administration, and non-profit organization careers from a biblical worldview for kingdom service. This major is an interdisciplinary degree that integrates biblical principles with business principles to prepare students in the area of international business. With knowledge of cross-cultural principles, a student in this major is enabled to enter limited access countries with a marketable skill. This could be as a mission field business manager, developing micro-enterprises, or serving as international workers with a multinational business or another organization requiring these skills. The graduate with this degree could help develop economically viable community projects that would enhance the living standard of the community and financial resources to aid the local and worldwide community. This degree establishes the international worker in an acceptable role in communities that disparage professional religious workers.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, or theories necessary to interpret cross-cultural business settings for ministry purposes (IDEA 2)
- Learning to apply course material in cross-cultural business settings to enable more effective ministry (IDEA 3)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals to understand an unfamiliar business settings in a diverse culture (IDEA 4)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal Biblical values in order to contextualize those values into another cultural setting (IDEA 10)

The Cross-Cultural Business Administration major is jointly sponsored, supervised, and promoted by the Departments of Global Ministries and Business Administration. Students must select membership and an advisor from the department that suits their employment and/or graduate school interest.

CROSS-CULTURAL ADULT EDUCATION MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Cross-Cultural Adult Education major equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skills, and character pertinent to prepare people with a marketable skill in the planning and implementation of adult education programs in cross-cultural settings. This major is an interdisciplinary degree that combines biblical principles with andragogical principles to prepare students to design a wide continuum of adult education programs based on cross-cultural knowledge and detailed ethnographic study. This major enables the student to enter creative access countries with marketable skill in the planning and implementation of adult education programs. Students are prepared to research, plan, and implement adult education programs. These programs can be in such areas as business training classes, health education, literacy programs, AIDS prevention training, English as a foreign language programs, computer literacy, and physical exercise classes. Students are also prepared to assist mission agencies in the planning of leadership development programs, Theological Education by Extension programs, and the development of Bible Institutes. This major prepares the student for immediate deployment as a cross-cultural adult educator. Students who minor in TESOL would find immediate opportunities available through ELIC and other English language organizations. Students are prepared to enter additional training programs in specialized fields such as community health education, relief and development, aids prevention, computer technology, physical exercise, and literacy. This major also provides a training track for students preparing to enter ethnic ministries within the United States who are seeking cross-cultural ministry training that prepares students to plan and provide viable community service within the ethnic community such as ESL or GED completion.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, or theories necessary to develop curriculum for ministry purposes in cross-cultural settings (IDEA 2)
- Learning to apply course material in cross-cultural educational settings to enable more effective ministry (IDEA 3)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals to understand an unfamiliar cultural setting in order to establish a culturally sensitive curriculum (IDEA 4)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal Biblical values in order to contextualize those values into another cultural setting (IDEA 10)

SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Sustainable Community Development major equips future servant leaders with the knowledge, skills, and character pertinent to helping community leaders identify needs and create sustainable solutions. This major is an interdisciplinary degree that integrates biblical principles with sustainable economic and environmental practices. The Global Ministries Department is committed to the training of SCD workers that possess an attitude that desires for people to know Jesus Christ and become His disciples, while at the same time prays and yearns for people to have a sustainable lifestyle that meets their physical needs. Students majoring in Sustainable Community Development learn ways to practice sustainable lifestyles, plan sustainable development with community leaders, and establish locally appropriate communities of faith among all people, including unreached people groups.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge (terminology, classifications, methods, trends) related to assessing diverse context and establishing sustainability (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, and theories in the fields of anthropology, health, business, and spiritual development as they relate to establishing sustainable communities (IDEA 2)
- Learning to apply course material to the development of sustainable projects in diverse environmental and spiritual context (IDEA 3)
- Developing specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in the field of sustainable community development (IDEA 4)
- Acquiring skills in working with others as a member of a team in a globally diverse context (IDEA 5)
- Learning how to find and use resources for answering questions or solving problems within a community with a view to sustainability (IDEA 9)

MINORS AVAILABLE TO STUDENTS MAJORING IN THE GLOBAL MINISTRIES DEPARTMENT

There are varied career options for those planning to serve God in a second culture. To serve those who major cross-culturally, the Global Ministries Department offers six minors designed to be integrated with the major for career choices. Any one of them more than meets the mission board and denominational requirements in undergraduate training for career missionary service. Students majoring in this department should carefully match selection of a minor with planned ministry roles and requirements in their mission board or denomination. Academic advisors will be glad to help with selecting this option.

CHURCH PLANTING & ENLARGEMENT MINOR – 15 hours

(This Minor is only for non-CCS Majors.)

Realizing that the mandate of Christ is to glorify Him through the extension of His Kingdom, and realizing that the most effective way to do that is to plant new churches, the Department of Global Ministries offers this minor for students who desire to be or expect to be involved in establishing new church groups, whether traditional or non-traditional church plants.

ICS 273	Church Planting & Development	3
ICS 393	Introduction to Church Growth	3
ICS 383	Training & Discipleship	3
ICS 473	Urban Ministry & Practicum	3

Choose 3 hours from ANT, ICS or ESL that is not in the CCAE or CCBA Major

CROSS-CULTURAL BIBLE TEACHING & COUNSELING MINOR – 15 hours

(This Minor is only for non-CCAE Majors.)

This minor is designed to prepare the prospective cross-cultural worker with Bible teaching and counseling skills that are vital both in a new culture and in one's home culture. Since many mission boards and denominations require service in the United States before going into a new culture, this minor can prepare students to teach Bible in a church-related ministry while performing a missionary internship in a church in this country. However, such job opportunities are limited, and further graduate training should be considered for those in this minor.

MIN 243	The Leader as Teacher	3
THE 353	Apologetics	3

Choose one of the following courses:

PSY 243	Developmental Psychology	3
EDU 323	Educational Psychology	3

ICS 333	Small Group Ministries	3
ICS 342	Women in International Ministry	2
ICS 433	Christian Education in Other Cultures	3
ICS 443	Cross-Cultural Storytelling	3

CROSS-CULTURAL TESOL MINOR

This minor is designed to integrate Bible, missions, and anthropology with training in TESOL to provide students who plan to minister cross-culturally with this professional skill. This minor leads primarily toward a non-traditional cross-cultural vocation. TESOL skills are used by regular missionaries and tentmakers around the world as a platform upon which the love and message of Christ can be displayed. TESOL teachers are in demand in China, Russia, the Middle East, North Africa, South America, and numerous other countries where people desire to learn English. Although TESOL teachers may go directly into a vocation after graduation, in many areas of the world, graduate studies in TESOL enhance the credibility of this vocation in the eyes of government officials.

CROSS-CULTURAL TESOL – 16 hours

FRN 123	Elementary French II or
SPN 123	Elementary Spanish II	3

DISCIPLESHIP MINOR – 17/18 hours

(This Minor is only for non-CCAE Majors.)

The greatest need in world evangelization today is for missionaries who are able to make disciples of Christ among people groups where the gospel message is unknown. Church planting involves building relationships and then introducing people to Jesus Christ. Through continuing contacts with friends and relatives of the new believers the missionary has won to Christ, the church planter forms a small group of Christians, whom he/she is discipling, into a local church.

This minor is designed to aid the GMD graduate in developing a discipling ministry in a more personal manner. It is an excellent companion minor for the CCS major as it prepares the student for a ministry in small groups (ideal for urban settings) and discipling new converts.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT MINOR – 16/17 hours

(This minor cannot be paired with the SCD major.)

The Global Ministries Department offers a minor in sustainable development to students from any department. Sustainability is defined as meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their needs. The United Nations has named 2005-2015 the Decade of Education for Sustainable Development. There are three general areas in sustainability – environmental integrity, social equity, and economic vitality. Courses in the minor are interdisciplinary reflecting all three concerns. It is hosted by the Global Ministries Department because of its global importance.

WORLD RELIGIONS MINOR – 15 hours

Following the events of September 11, 2001, people began to realize in a new way the necessity of learning more about the major religions of the world. This minor offers training in the beliefs and worldviews of several of these religions. They are no longer “foreign” religions, but advocates are in the USA and their numbers are growing. This program aims at a broad-based training in world religions with the understanding that the student who elects this program will most likely continue on in graduate studies in the development of professional and ministry skills.

MINOR IN PRE-ETHNOMUSICOLOGY – 17 hours

The Global Ministries Department desires to draw attention to our students that there is a Minor in Pre-Ethnomusicology offered by the Music Department. It is well documented that “music” is an excellent “bridge” into most cultures. For GMD students interested in using their love for music as a means to gain access to a culture we recommend this Minor.

¹Students who are required to take ANT 203 for their Major, or for another Minor, should then take ICS 443 Cross Cultural Storytelling.

²Must be taken twice.

MINORS FOR STUDENTS IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS

The Global Ministries Department offers the following minors to students who complete a major in another department in the college. These minors supplement the curriculum of students in other departments with specific skills and knowledge, primarily cross-cultural, for people who plan to work in a second culture, or in a group that is ethno-linguistically different from their own. These minors are also valuable for people who will work in the US with people from other cultural and linguistic backgrounds.

CROSS-CULTURAL MEDICAL FIELDS CAREER PLAN MAJOR (TWO-YEAR PROGRAM)

This program is built around a curriculum that has a solid core of missions, anthropology, Bible courses, and some core curriculum courses, and is designed to build on medical studies that have been completed or will be completed at another college or university. The Global Ministries Department highly recommends that the student desiring to take this major first complete certification as an RN, as the program requires the passing of board exams for the RN. In addition to the two year TFC curriculum, the student must have a minimum of 60 transferable hours from an accredited institution and the RN certification, for graduation. It results in the Bachelor of Science degree with the major in Cross-Cultural Studies: For Medical Professionals. This program is designed for students completing the RN (most often in conjunction with an Associates of Science in Nursing elsewhere) that are looking to minister as a registered nurse in a second culture. [Note: established medical doctors may also choose this major if they desire the cross-cultural training this program affords.] If you take the first two years at TFC in the Cross-Cultural Medical Fields yet fail to pass the RN board exams you will not be eligible to receive the B. S. in Cross-Cultural Studies for Medical Professionals.

Students who intend to prepare for a medical career overseas should investigate the requirements and needs of the mission board or denomination with which they plan to serve before beginning this course of study. In some other cases, a nurse with an R.N. certification and a B.S. degree from Toccoa Falls College may be qualified to go directly into an overseas assignment. However, some denominations may require a bachelor's or master's degree in nursing. Some former students have been trained in various medical fields, but have come to Toccoa Falls College for training in cross-cultural studies and Bible.

For persons planning toward a career in medicine in a second culture, this career plan offers, in combination with at least two years of an accredited medical program at another institution, a B.S. degree, which may be accomplished in the following manner:

Plan One - Attend Toccoa Falls College to complete this program, and then attend a school offering medical training. After graduation with a recognized R.N. certification, M.D., or B.S.N., degree, the Cross-Cultural Studies major with Cross-Cultural Medical Career Plan will be awarded a bachelor's degree. Medical training may be obtained in North Georgia or Atlanta at the student's option.

Plan Two - Attend a school to receive medical training first, and upon graduation with R.N. or other equivalent recognized certification, complete the required hours at Toccoa Falls College for a B.S. degree in Cross-Cultural Studies. Those who come with prior medical training will often be employed at the hospital at the campus entrance.

Plan Three - Attend Toccoa Falls College for one year, then transfer to complete medical requirements (normally two or three years for R.N.). Return to Toccoa Falls College for the senior and final year of this Career Plan.

With any of these options, a B.S. in Cross-Cultural Studies will be awarded upon the completion of all requirements at Toccoa Falls College and the verification of an M.D., B.S.N., or R.N. certification. Other medical degrees and/or equivalent certification may be accepted only by prior approval from the Department Chair of the Global Ministries Department and the Registrar. A minimum of 60 semester hours from an accredited institution, in addition to the stipulated curriculum at Toccoa Falls College outline below, is required for graduation.

Requirements for the General Education Core must be met through this Career Plan in combination with those in the medical program. This will be evaluated by the Registrar prior to the issuing of a diploma. Any questions regarding such requirements should be discussed with your advisor at the beginning of this program. Those students transferring the M.D., B.S.N. or R.N. certification must have transfer of credits evaluated by the Registrar prior to admission.

CROSS-CULTURAL MEDICAL FIELDS – 24 hours

Students not transferring the following classes in must take them either while here at TFC or in another accredited institution.

ENG 113	Freshmen Composition I	3
ENG 123	Freshmen Composition II	3
COM 113	Intro to Communication	3
CSC 113	Intro to Computers	3
PSY 113	General Psychology	3

The student may CLEP some of these classes at TFC but only in the freshmen and sophomore years. If you are a transfer student and entering TFC as a junior or senior permission to CLEP any of the above will require approval from the Deans Council. Math and Science core requirements are usually taken during medical training.

MINISTRY & LEADERSHIP DEPARTMENT

(706) 886-7299, ext. 5355

e-mail: ministryleadership@tfc.edu

INTRODUCTION

The Ministry and Leadership Department prepares men and women for specializations in pastoral disciple-making ministries in the church and faith-based organizations. It builds upon a strong biblical and theological base while integrating insights from the social sciences and educational technology. This program contributes to an understanding of the biblical imperative for church training and discipleship, the ability to communicate effectively the significant role that teaching has in personal growth and leadership development, and the ability to construct a biblically sound philosophy of ministry that will endure sociological and cultural change. It also provides the ability to teach and effectively minister to selected age groups as well as the ability to design, administer, and evaluate educational ministries within the local church and faith-based organizations.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

A student desiring to pursue a major in the Ministry and Leadership Department must obtain an information and application packet from the Department Chair or staff. The student will also submit a Declaration of Major form as an application to the Ministry and Leadership Department. An advisor will be assigned to the student. Entry requirements include a cumulative grade point average of 2.0, faculty advisee interviews, and the Taylor-Johnson temperament analysis. A majority vote of the faculty is needed for approval. Factors that can deter a student from approval include: a cumulative grade point average of less than 2.0; character qualities that are unsuitable for Christian ministry, or lack of sufficient faculty support for approval. A letter informs students whether the application was approved, disapproved, or delayed.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (B.A. or B.S.)

1. Fulfillment of all the "General Requirements for Graduation" (see section on "Degree Requirements")
2. Satisfactory completion of all required Ministry and Leadership courses listed with a minimum grade of "C"
3. Satisfactory completion of a comprehensive examination given by a faculty committee
4. A minimum grade of "C-" for each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor if the student elects to have a minor
5. Satisfactory completion of 4 student ministries, 3 of which must be related to the major

DENOMINATIONAL CREDENTIALS

Students are advised concerning their denominational relationship in any of the Ministry and Leadership majors. Those persons desiring denominational credentials and possible ordination should use open electives to select the following courses: PAM 313 Sermon Preparation, PAM 323 Sermon Delivery, PAM 333 Pastoral Methods, THE 333 Baptist Distinctives, or THE 343 Alliance Distinctives.

EVANGELICAL TRAINING ASSOCIATION DIPLOMA

The Standard Teacher Diploma from the Evangelical Training Association is offered through the member school of undergraduate studies which provides for a minimum of 90 semester hours of college credit and which includes a minimum of 12 semester hours of Bible courses and 15 semester hours of study in church educational ministries. The holder of this award has permanent approval to teach all Association courses and a free subscription to Profile.

THE MINISTRY & LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

1. Students preparing for the Outdoor Leadership & Education major should be aware of the following demands and expectations of the OLE program:
 - a. Additional course fees will be added to all skills classes in the OLE program. These fees will total a minimum of $1,800.00.
 - b. Students are strongly encouraged, but not required, to minor in Youth Ministry, Family and Children's Ministry, or Ministry Leadership.
 - c. OLE 343 is completed during the Winterim session and OLE 203 during spring break.
2. Students preparing for the Youth Ministry major should be aware that an additional course fee of $600 will be required for YTH 363.

FAMILY & CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Family and Children's Ministries major equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to disciple-making ministries with families and children in church and faith-based organizations, from a biblical world view for kingdom service.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the foundations for family and children's ministries (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, and theories related to family and children's ministries (IDEA 2)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by family and children's ministry professionals (IDEA 3)
- Developing skill in expressing oneself orally in family and children's ministries contexts (IDEA 8)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal biblical values that inform family and children's ministry and individual character (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically judge ideas (IDEA 11)

MINISTRY LEADERSHIP PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Ministry Leadership major equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to disciple-making ministries with children, youth, and adults in church and faith-based organizations, from a biblical world-view for kingdom service. This major is offered in two formats – online and residential. The online format has two distinctions from the residential format:

1. The online mode does not require an internship when the student has at least two years of full-time ministry leadership experience. MIN 333 will then substitute for the internship.
2. The online format is degree completion

Resident students are encouraged to take a ministry-related minor such as Youth Ministry, Family and Children's Ministry, Outdoor Leadership and Education, Pastoral Ministries, or Cross-Cultural Studies.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the foundations for ministry leadership ministries (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, and theories related to ministry leadership (IDEA 2)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by ministry leadership professionals (IDEA 3)
- Developing skill in expressing oneself orally in ministry leadership contexts (IDEA 8)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal biblical values that inform ministry leadership and individual character (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically judge ideas (IDEA 11)

OUTDOOR LEADERSHIP & EDUCATION PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Outdoor Leadership & Education major equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to disciple-making in the context of camping and outdoor settings, from a biblical world view for kingdom service.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the foundations for outdoor leadership and education ministries (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, and theories related to outdoor leadership and education (IDEA 2)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by outdoor leadership and education professionals (IDEA 3)
- Developing skill in expressing oneself orally in outdoor leadership and education contexts (IDEA 8)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal biblical values that inform outdoor leadership and individual character (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically judge ideas (IDEA 11)

PASTORAL MINISTRIES PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Pastoral Ministries major equips future pastors with knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to serving as pastor in the local church. It includes professional preparation in the areas of homiletics, interpersonal relationships, pastoral care and outreach, leadership, and church administration.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the foundations for pastoral ministries (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, and theories related to pastoral ministries (IDEA 2)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by pastors (IDEA 3)
- Developing skill in expressing oneself orally in ministry contexts (IDEA 8)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal biblical values that inform pastoral ministries and individual character (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically judge ideas (IDEA 11)

YOUTH MINISTRIES PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Youth Ministries major equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to youth-related ministries in church and faith-based organizations, from a biblical world view for kingdom service.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge of the foundations for youth ministries (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, and theories related to youth ministry (IDEA 2)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by youth ministry professionals (IDEA 3)
- Developing skill in expressing oneself orally in youth ministry contexts (IDEA 8)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal biblical values that inform youth ministry and individual character (IDEA 10)
- Learning to analyze and critically judge ideas (IDEA 11)

INTRODUCTION

The academic programs of the Business Administration Department lead to the Associate of Arts (AA) degree in Business Administration or one of several majors leading to the Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree or the Bachelor of Science (BS) degrees.

The Business Administration Department offers bachelor degree majors in Business Administration, Cross-Cultural Business Administration, Nonprofit Business Administration (online only), Organizational Leadership (online only), and Sport Management, as well as six minors: Business Administration, International Business, Management, Marketing, Nonprofit Business Administration, and Sport Management.

Students pursuing a Business Administration major are encouraged to take a minor in Marketing, Management, Nonprofit Business Administration, or a minor from outside the department. However, students pursuing a major in the Business Administration Department may take additional courses within the department in lieu of a minor or open electives per employment and graduate school interests. Foreign language(s) for a Bachelor of Arts degree are highly recommended.

Students obtain a broad-based education that not only gives them business expertise, but also contributes to proficiency in communication and analytical skills needed for successful performance in today's economy. Our graduates leave with knowledge of the best current practices in business, skills that are essential in the market place, and positive attitudes that will help them move into leadership positions in their chosen careers. Taught from a biblical perspective integrating faith and practice, our courses equip graduates to become servant leaders with strong ethical and moral standards in commerce, industry, local churches, Christian ministries, mission agencies, nonprofits, etc.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

Students interested in the Business Administration major may apply for admission into the degree program after completing 12 semester hours in the college with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0. Students are encouraged to apply for admission early to receive appropriate academic counseling regarding prerequisite courses. A Declaration of Major form must be completed by the student and submitted to the advisor and Department Chair.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (B.A. or B.S.)

1. Fulfillment of all the "General Requirements for Graduation" (see section on "Degree Requirements")
2. Satisfactory completion of 36 hours of Business Core Curriculum courses and 6 hours of Business elective courses with a minimum of "C-" in each business course
3. A minimum grade of "C-" for each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor if the student elects to have a minor
4. A cumulative grade point average of 2.0 will be required for the total hours applied to the major

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION DEPARTMENT'S MISSION STATEMENT

The Business Administration Department equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skills and character pertinent to service as professionals in national, international, cross-cultural, and multi-ethnic business, ministry, and nonprofit organizations from a biblical worldview for Kingdom service.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MAJORS

The Business Administration major is a comprehensive major with interdisciplinary courses drawn from major business functions. Taught from a biblical perspective, business courses equip learners with knowledge of the best current business practices, skills that are essential in the marketplace, and biblical character development opportunities to become Christian servant leaders in business with strong ethical and moral standards.

The Cross-Cultural Business Administration major is an interdisciplinary degree that integrates missiological principles with business principles to prepare students in the area of international business. Students may select an advisor from either the Business Administration Department or the Global Ministries Department per their employment and/or graduate school interests and will march at graduation with the department of their faculty advisor.

Nonprofit Business Administration is an online degree completion program in the growing nonprofit sector of the world economy. Students gain knowledge and experience to prepare to lead effective and creative nonprofit organizations in a growing number of social services, government, non-government, and faith-based organizations.

Organizational Leadership is an online degree completion program to equip future servant leaders with the knowledge, skills and character pertinent to serving as professionals in leadership roles from a biblical worldview.

2. Satisfactory completion of 15 hours of Business Core Curriculum courses with a minimum of "C-" in each business course
3. A minimum grade of "C-" for each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor if the student elects to have a minor
4. A cumulative grade point average of 2.0 will be required for the total hours applied to the major.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The A.A. in Business Administration equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skills and character pertinent to servicing as business practitioners from a biblical worldview for Kingdom service.

The learning objectives for this major include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge—to identify and recall key facts, terms, and methods in business administration (IDEA 1)
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, or theories—to identify, recall, and understand concepts relating to business administration (IDEA 2)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by business practitioners—enabling students to develop in the skills of research, communication, writing, and computer usage (IDEA 4)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal Biblical values enabling students to integrate faith and practice in business administration, specifically: a biblical worldview, personal ethics and integrity, social responsibility, moral character, and a strong work ethic (IDEA 10)

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

(706) 886-7299, ext. 5260
e-mail: music@tfc.edu

INTRODUCTION

The Music Department exists to prepare Christian musicians for career ministries in performance, teaching, church music and varied music-related vocations. Students develop and share their God-given abilities by participation in ensembles, recitals, concerts, service projects and ministries. Through these experiences, the Music Department brings the whole person into the learning process through the integration of curricular and co-curricular activities and provides for the dynamic integration of Faith and Learning, together with Character and Intellect. This approach, along with the study of music theory, history, worship music, pedagogy and performance gives students the skills to become highly effective in their chosen field.

A Bachelor of Science degree in music education with concentrations in choral or instrumental music is offered under the Teacher Education Department. Please refer to that section of the catalog for degree requirements. Music Education majors must perform an entrance audition for the Music Department. Audition requirements appear below. The Music Department offers one program leading to the Bachelor of Music degree. This professional program is Music Performance. This academic major provides 60 semester hours beyond those required in the core curriculum and provides professional preparation for students majoring in music performance. The Music Department also offers a general Music major leading to either the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. A Worship Arts concentration is also available in the Bachelor of Science degree program. Toccoa Falls College is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

A general music minor is available for those who are interested and qualified. A student should have some previous music experience in one or more of the following areas: keyboard, choir, band, orchestra, private lessons on an instrument or voice, or some high school or college music class. An audition is required.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION AUDITION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to meeting the entrance requirements of the college, all applicants for admission to the Music Department, freshmen or transfers, are required to audition. All scholarships are awarded through the Office of Financial Aid. Check with the Office of Financial Aid for further details.

Auditions are scheduled on selected Saturdays during the academic year. Although recorded auditions are acceptable, an "in person" audition and interview is always preferable when possible. Applicants unable to be present at the college for an audition should request permission to submit a recorded audition. All requests should be addressed to: Toccoa Falls College Music Department, 107 Kincaid Drive, MSC 847, Toccoa Falls, GA 30598, or contact the chair via email at <http://www.tfc.edu/academics/school-of-professional-studies/music-department/auditions>.

The purpose of the audition is to enable the faculty to evaluate the student's musical background and potential, and to assess the level of proficiency in the applied area relative to the degree program sought. The audition includes performance of two selections and an interview with the music faculty. Audition information and an application are available from the Music Department Administrative Assistant (706-886-6831, extension 5260) or online at <http://www.tfc.edu/academics/school-of-professional-studies/music-department/auditions>.

During on-campus orientation, new music students will complete placement testing for the Music Department. This testing is scheduled through the music office during the regularly scheduled orientation days. The testing consists of: placement tests in music theory, general music knowledge, piano, sight singing and ear training. These tests are for placement only. They are non-threatening and will not be used to deny enrollment.

AUDITION PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS

INSTRUMENTAL SOLO PERFORMANCE

Wind and stringed instruments: Students should be prepared to perform major and minor scales through four sharps and flats, chromatic scales covering the entire range of the instrument, and selected solos representing at least two styles of music (e.g. Baroque, Classic, Romantic, Twentieth Century).

Percussion: (two parts).

Snare drum: Student will play a solo (rudimental or orchestral), a long roll (crescendo and diminuendo) and various rudiments. Melody percussion instrument (bells, marimba or xylophone): student will play all scales through three sharps and flats, and a solo demonstrating at least two-mallet technique.

Organ: Students should demonstrate proficiency on the piano in at least two styles of music with levels of difficulty equal to a two-part invention by J. S. Bach; any standard sonata by Mozart, Haydn, or Beethoven; a waltz by Chopin; or a piano composition by a modern composer such as Bartok or Kabalevsky. Students may or may not have had previous training on the organ. For those who have had private organ studies, the following are suggested as sample audition pieces: a prelude and fugue from Eight Little Preludes and Fugues by J. S. Bach; a choral prelude from The Liturgical Year by J. S. Bach.

Piano: Students should perform art music from at least two style periods. A list of suggested representative works is provided below as a general idea of the expected performance level at the audition. Baroque Period—Bach: Two Part Inventions or Three-Part Inventions, Preludes and Fugues from The Well-Tempered Clavier, French Suites—Scarlatti: any of the Sonatas. Classical Period—Haydn: easier Sonatas—Mozart: Sonatas, Fantasies, or easier Concerti—Beethoven: easier Sonatas. Romantic Period—representative works by Schubert, Schumann, Chopin, Liszt, Mendelssohn, Brahms, or a similar composer. If there is a question, such as with Rachmaninoff, style will be the main consideration. Rachmaninoff would be considered from the Romantic Period. Twentieth Century Period—Debussy: Children's Corner Suite, easier Preludes, or either of the two Arabesques—Bartok: Allegro Barbaro, later books of the Mikrokosmos—Gershwin: Preludes—Hindemith: Sonata No. 2—Tcherepnin: Bagatelles, op. 5—Copland: Cat and the Mouse. Candidate should be able to play major and minor scales, (hands together, four octaves, sixteenth notes, quarter note MM 92) as well as sight-read an accompaniment of an art song.

Harp: (Student must bring instrument, storage is provided.) Slow scales, one and one-half octaves, hands alone; one selected study of the difficulty of Lariviere "Exercise et Etudes;" and a selected romantic, classical, or contemporary piece.

Guitar: Three major and minor scales in two octaves; a composition of moderate difficulty from any period; a study or exercise demonstrating an understanding of various techniques such as legato, arpeggios, and barre; and ability to sight read a composition of moderate difficulty.

VOCAL SOLO PERFORMANCE

In addition to possible warm-up using scales and arpeggios, the student should sing two contrasting songs, preferably from memory. Standard English, Italian, French or German Art Songs are encouraged. Other types of song (contemporary, folk songs, hymn arrangements) may be used with special permission. Pre-recorded accompaniments are not acceptable. Students whose auditions require accompaniment are welcome to bring their own accompanist, although one will be provided if requested. Please indicate this need and repertoire when arranging for the audition.

MUSIC MINORS

Prospective music minors are required to audition. The requirements are the same as for prospective music majors, except that the student is only required to perform one song for the audition.

PRE-ETHNOMUSICOLOGY MINOR

The Pre-Ethnomusicology minor does not require an audition.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION PLACEMENT TEST REQUIREMENTS

Students will be given a non-threatening pre-test. The following explanation describes the perfect candidate. However, we accept those for college level study who have not had the opportunity to study music theory, piano or aural skills during their high school years.

THEORY

Students will be expected to demonstrate familiarity with basic terminology of music; ability to read music written in either treble or bass clef and basic knowledge of music theory. Students may prepare for the written theory exam by studying one of the following texts: Programmed Rudiments in Music by Robert W. Ottman and Frank D. Mainous, Basic Materials in Music Theory: A Programmed Course by Paul O. Harder, or Scales, Intervals, Keys, Triads, Rhythm, and Meter by Boge, Clough and Conley. You may also prepare for the pre-test by the following on-line resource: www.musictheory.net.

GENERAL MUSIC KNOWLEDGE

Students should be familiar with primary style periods of music; knowledge of primary composers; and of various genres, for example, opera, symphony, chamber music, etc. Students may prepare by studying any standard music appreciation text.

PIANO

Students ideally should be adept at scales and chord progressions, harmonization, sight-reading, and have adequate repertoire. Students may prepare by taking private piano lessons. Students with little or no piano experience will not be denied entrance on that basis, but will be expected to make sufficient progress during the class piano sequence to make up for initial shortcomings.

SIGHT-SINGING

Students will be expected to sight-sing musical material of the difficulty of an average folk song.

EAR TRAINING

Students will be given a brief aural quiz in recognizing intervals, melodies, and rhythms.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Fulfillment of all the "General Requirements for Graduation" (see section on "Degree Requirements").
2. Satisfactory completion of all required courses as listed in the curriculum below with a minimum grade of "C-" in all courses taken in the Music Department. A cumulative average of 2.0 will be required for the total hours in the major.

APPLIED MUSIC

Any student majoring in music may take private lessons in piano, organ, voice, guitar or an orchestral instrument. Music Department majors will select their primary area from piano, organ, voice, or an instrument; this selection is subject to faculty approval.

MUSIC MAJOR (B.A. or B.S.) PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Music major equips future servant leaders with knowledge, skill, and character pertinent to general music-related careers from a biblical world view for kingdom service.

The learning objectives for this program include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge in the areas of music history repertory and music theory (IDEA 1)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals—in the areas of Aural Skills, analysis, technology, piano/keyboard, composition, and improvisation and performance (IDEA 4)
- Gaining a broad understanding, appreciation or intellectual/cultural activity—The successful student will demonstrate the ability to synthesize knowledge in the area of general music and an increased understanding and appreciation for various forms and styles of music (IDEA 7)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal Biblical values reflecting God's call on his or her life for service in a general music-related career (IDEA 10)

MUSIC MAJOR (B.S.) WITH A WORSHIP ARTS CONCENTRATION OUTCOME GOALS

The Music major with a Worship Arts Concentration is designed to prepare students for careers in the area of church music ministries. The courses within the concentration focus especially on new and current trends and methodologies in contemporary Christian praise and worship leadership. Skills are developed through contemporary instrumental methods courses and participation in contemporary music ensembles.

The learning objectives for this program include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge in the areas of music history repertory and music theory (IDEA 1)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals—in the areas of Aural Skills, analysis, technology, piano/keyboard, composition, improvisation, performance and skills needed for leadership positions in contemporary Christian music and worship ministries (IDEA 4)
- Gaining a broad understanding, appreciation or intellectual/cultural activity—The successful student will demonstrate the ability to synthesize knowledge in the area of general music and an increased understanding and appreciation for various forms and styles of music (IDEA 7)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal Biblical values reflecting God's call on his or her life for service in a general music-related career (IDEA 10)

MUSIC PERFORMANCE MAJOR (B.M.) PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Music Performance major equips students with knowledge, skill, and professional character traits pertinent to music performance from a biblical world view.

The learning objectives for this program include the following:

- Gaining factual knowledge in the areas of music history repertory and music theory (IDEA 1)
- Developing skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals—in the areas of Aural Skills, analysis, technology, piano/keyboard, composition, and improvisation and performance, including mastery of performance skills in the applied area (IDEA 4)
- Gaining a broad understanding, appreciation or intellectual/cultural activity—in the ability to synthesize knowledge in the area of music performance and various forms and styles of music (IDEA 7)
- Developing a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal Biblical values reflecting God's call on his or her life for service in a career in music performance (IDEA 10)

MUSIC MINOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The minor in music develops foundational skills in theory, history, aural skills, and performance. Applied music instruction and participation in ensembles contribute to the development of the student's performance skills.

1. Foundational academic knowledge in repertory and music history
2. Foundational music theory and aural skills
3. Foundational competence in performance

TEACHER EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

(706) 886-7299, ext. 5298

e-mail: teacher@tfc.edu

INTRODUCTION

The Teacher Education Department exists to prepare Christian students to be classroom teachers. The program's Conceptual Framework is the following: "Teaching is a calling. Jesus Christ, the Master Teacher exemplified one who taught with the knowledge of the ages, with the perfected skill of an artist, and with unsurpassed character worthy for all teachers to model."

The program is approved by the Professional Standards Commission of the State of Georgia, and graduates are eligible for teacher certification. Students are qualified to teach in Christian, International, private and public schools.

ADMISSION TO THE TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM

Students must apply for admission to the Teacher Education Department. The process includes the following:

1. A completed application form
2. An essay on "Why I Am Called to Teach"
3. Recorded passing scores on the SAT/ACT test combining Critical Reading and Math, (SAT = 1,000 or ACT = 43), or passing the GACE Program Admission Assessment
4. References completed by two TFC faculty members
5. A reference form completed by the Office of Student Development
6. A grade point average of 2.7 or above
7. An acceptable portfolio highlighting the student's previous experience and achievements
8. Criminal Background check
9. GA Code of Ethics for Educators Exam

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (B.A. or B.S.)

1. Fulfillment of the "General Requirements for Graduation" (see section under "Degree Requirements")
2. A cumulative grade point average of 2.7
3. Satisfactory completion of all education courses with a minimum grade of "C-"
4. Completion of a portfolio that gives evidence of mastery of professional objectives
5. A minimum grade of "C-" for each course taken to fulfill requirements for a minor or concentration
6. GA Code of Ethics for Educators Exam

ADMISSION TO CLINICAL PRACTICE AND OVERSEAS PRACTICUM

During EDU 311 Education Seminar, teacher candidates will seek admission to clinical practice. The process requires the completion of an Interview Portfolio, an interview, and a cumulative GPA of 2.7. An additional course fee will be added to the regular tuition for this class. This fee will cover the cost of the GBI background check and Substitute Teacher Training.

Students desiring to student teach overseas must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0, complete the admission process to student teaching and manifest both the desire and ability to function in an international setting. Applications must be submitted the fall semester of a student's junior year.

SPECIAL COURSE PREREQUISITES

All 200-level Teacher Education require a 2.7 GPA or above. All 300-400 level Teacher Education courses require admission to the program unless the student fits in one of the following categories:

1. First semester transfer standing
2. Non-Teacher Education major status
3. Special committee approval

REQUIREMENTS

Teacher Education majors must complete all of the following:

1. Field Experiences: This consists of Field Experiences I, II, & III, Content Literacy Field Experience, course-embedded field experiences, and Clinical Practice I & II.

2. Portfolios: Three portfolios are required which demonstrate readiness for Program Admission, Clinical Practice Admission, and Program Completion.
3. Clinical Practice: Students practice the skills they have learned and demonstrate the ability to be distinguished teachers upon graduation. Clinical practice spans both the fall and spring semesters of the senior year through two courses (EDU 413 and EDU 416).
4. GACE Content Assessment: To receive GA certification students are required to pass the GACE Content Assessment taken the junior or senior year.
5. edTPA: To receive certification students are required to pass the edTPA (a pedagogy based teacher performance assessment submitted in the senior year).

CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

Individuals who have already completed a baccalaureate degree at an accredited institution may complete one of the approved programs in the Teacher Education Department to be certified without receiving a second baccalaureate degree. An individual must meet all of the requirements for admission to the college, to the program, and to clinical practice.

TEACHER EDUCATION MAJOR PURPOSE & OUTCOME GOALS

The Teacher Education majors in Early Childhood, Middle Grades, Secondary and Music equip future servant leaders with knowledge of the diverse learners and the content they teach, skills in planning instruction, assessing, and managing, and character reflecting appropriate interaction with the school community, life-long learning and a calling as a Christian servant leader all from a Biblical world view for kingdom service.

The Professional Teaching Objectives for these majors include the following:

- The candidate understand concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he/she teaches (IDEA 1)
- The candidate understands how learners grow and develop; recognizes patterns of learning and development, and identifies individual differences (IDEA 2)
- The candidate uses the understanding of all learners to design and implement differentiated learning experiences and create inclusive environments that enable learners to meet high standards (IDEA 4)
- The candidate plans instruction using a variety of instructional strategies and resources including technology to support rigorous learning goals, to develop deep understanding of content areas, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways (IDEA 4)
- The candidate understands how to connect concepts to engage learners in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem solving related to authentic issues (IDEA 3)
- The candidate understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher's and learner's decision making (IDEA 4)
- The candidate works to create safe, orderly, and well-managed environments that support collaborative learning, active engagement in learning and self-motivation (IDEA 4)
- The candidate seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, to collaborate with others to ensure learner growth, and to advance the profession (IDEA 5)
- The candidate engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually reflect upon, analyze, and evaluate his/her practice to adapt to and meet the needs of each learner (IDEA 12)
- The candidates demonstrates a clear commitment to professional and ethical standards as outlined by the GaPSC in the Code of Ethics while understanding the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (IDEA 10)

MUSIC EDUCATION MAJOR (K-12)

The Music Education major leads to certification in grades kindergarten through 12. Students in this major specialize in either choral or instrumental music. Before admission to the Music Education program, the prospective Music Education major is required to present an audition in the principal applied area of concentration as well as to demonstrate a musical background sufficient for the undertaking of basic musicianship studies at the level of entry into the music program. This audition should be completed before or during the student's first semester of study. Audition requirements are listed in this catalog under the Music Department entrance requirements.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

ACC - ACCOUNTING

ACC 213 Principles of Accounting I (3 hours, fall; offered as scheduled online)

This course is a study of fundamental accounting principles and concepts - focusing on financial accounting. Attention is given to the basic structures of the accounting cycle and accounting for internal controls, cash, receivables, inventories, liabilities, and stockholders' equity. Prerequisite: None.

ACC 223 Principles of Accounting II (3 hours, spring; offered as scheduled online)

This course is a continued study of fundamental accounting principles and concepts focusing on managerial accounting. Attention is given to cost accounting, budgeting, and managerial concepts such as statement analysis. Prerequisite: ACC 213.

AML - AMERICAN LITERATURE

AML 213 American Literature I (3 hours, fall)

This course is a survey of American literature from the Colonial period through the Civil War. Prerequisite: ENG 123.

AML 223 American Literature II (3 hours, spring)

This course is a survey of American literature from the Civil War to the present. Prerequisite: ENG 123.

AML 313 Literature of the American Renaissance (1820-1865) (3 hours, offered as announced)

This course covers major essayists, fiction writers, and poets in relation to mid nineteenth-century American religious, intellectual, and social life. Prerequisite: ENG 123.

AML 313E Topics in American Literature (3 hours, fall odd years)

An advanced study of major authors and topics in American Literature. Major research paper required. Prerequisite: ENG 123.

AML 323 American Literary Realism & Naturalism (1865-1910) (3 hours, offered as announced)

This course is a study of realism and naturalism as literary movements in America. It also gives consideration of their aesthetic values, epistemological claims, and relationships to social history. Prerequisite: ENG 123.

AML 333 Twentieth-Century American Literature (1910-present) (3 hours, offered as announced)

The main emphasis is on fiction writers and poets of Modernist movement (1910-1945) with some attention given to leading figures and schools of contemporary literature (1945-present) and to drama. Prerequisite: ENG 123.

ANT - ANTHROPOLOGY

ANT 203 Cultural Anthropology (3 hours, either semester or summer; offered as scheduled online)

This course is an introduction to the study of humans as cultural beings. Anthropological ways of thought are seen as offering a conceptual framework sufficiently broad to accommodate all human experience, providing support for a wide range of data and information. Prerequisite: None.

ANT 213 Introduction to Sustainable Community Development (3 hours, spring)

This course provides an overview of sustainable community development, an examination of the biblical basis for community development, and introduces participants to Christian organizations such as ECHO (Educational Concerns for Hunger Organizations). Prerequisite: None.

ANT 323 Applied Ethnography (3 hours, fall)

The basic principles learned in cultural anthropology are applied to the life and work of the Christian ethnographer. Students begin ethnographic data collection focusing on a specific people group and build a comprehensive data file using the OCM filing system.

Students learn principles for effective cross-cultural ministry from social psychology, sociology, anthropology, and adult education and actual case studies bridge the gap between theoretical models and meaningful application. Prerequisite: ANT 203.

ANT 333 Peoples of the World (3 hours, spring)

This course studies the specific area in the specialization of the resident missionary with emphasis on customs, art, history, religion, and social structure. Prerequisite: None.

ANT 363 Religious Belief Systems (REL 363X) (3 hours, spring)

This course is an examination of the structural properties of belief systems and their expression in the lives and rituals of people. Actual case studies are used to refer anthropological insights to life situations. Particular emphasis is placed on the communication of the gospel in the context of animistic practices and practitioners. Prerequisite: ANT 323.

ANT 372 Sociolinguistics (2 hours, fall)

This course is designed to give an understanding of the relationship between language and culture. Its approach to the ethnic group is through the symbolic medium of language, and language-learning techniques are presented which aim at teaching effective communication in a cross-cultural context. Phonetic transcription is introduced to enable the student to understand how sounds can be described, written, and reproduced. Prerequisite: None.

ANT 401-3 Independent Study (1-3 hours, either semester or summer)

The content and method within this course framework will be directed by the professor in charge through consultation with the student. This course is offered by approval of the Global Ministries Department Chair. Prerequisite: None.

ANT 483 Anthropology Research Project (3 hours, fall)

Research and practical application of skills developed as a major are combined to produce a research paper centering on a distinct ethnic and linguistic group. A major emphasis of the seminar is the detailed study of a given area or people in terms of geography, history, and ethnicity. Prerequisites: ANT 363 and ICS 352/CAE 352/ICS 362.

ANT 492 Ethnotheology (REL 492X) (2 hours, offered as announced)

Building upon a background in anthropology and theology, this course is a study of the practical problems of grappling with theology in various cultural settings. It deals with the innovation of theologies relevant to contemporary peoples in new cultures. Prerequisites: ANT 203, THE 303 and a grade point average of 3.0 or better.

BEV - BIBLICAL EVANGELISM

BEV 112 Principles of Evangelism (2 hours, offered as announced)

This course is a survey of effective biblical principles and methods, including both relational and confrontational evangelism, and an equipping of individuals and churches with biblical tools for Christian witness. The class aims to solve practical Christian-service problems. Prerequisite: None.

BEV 443 Evangelism & Disciple-Making (3 hours, spring)

The goal of this course is to integrate evangelistic outreach with disciple-making efforts to produce mature believers in Christ. It is a study in the principles, programming, and strategy needed in today's culture. The course includes an analysis of gospel presentation, various contextual evangelistic approaches, and the natural ministry environments that contribute to maturing disciples who reproduce by proclaiming the Gospel to others. An emphasis will be placed on practical application within the church setting. Prerequisite: YTH 253 for Youth Ministry majors.

BIB - GENERAL BIBLICAL STUDIES

BIB 213 Hermeneutics (3 hours, either semester)

This course briefly surveys the history of biblical interpretation before focusing on the procedures, tools, and skills necessary for responsible Bible interpretation. An assessment of basic competency in key course elements will be included, which must be passed to successfully complete the course. Prerequisite: ENG 113.

BIB 313 Advanced Hermeneutics: Selected Topics (3 hours, fall)

This course prepares the student for advanced interpretation of scripture and will investigate biblical interpretation in light of traditional and current theological, philosophical, ecclesiastical, historical and social challenges. These topics include language, genre, authorial intent, the relationship between the Testaments, the New Testament's use of the Old Testament, and the exploration of several theological systems. A seminar format that includes student research and presentations will be followed during part of the course. Prerequisite: BIB 213.

BIB 383 Study Abroad in Biblical Studies (3 hours, offered as announced)

This course provides Biblical study in an international setting. The professor specially designs each course, including reading in advance, study abroad at on-site locations, a reflection on specific Biblical topics, and the articulation of ideas in writing based on the student's experience abroad. Prerequisite: Completion of one year at TFC, TFC Application for Study Abroad, and permission of Instructor.

BIB 401-3 Independent Study (1-3 hours, either semester)

Selected students are permitted to secure specialized training appropriate to individual needs. The student's project may concern the Old Testament, New Testament, whole Bible, Dead Sea Scrolls, or Apocrypha and may involve intensive investigation of literature in a field, individualized instruction, or collection and evaluation of data relating to a biblical problem. Availability of the course is dependent upon availability of faculty. Independent study requires a minimum of 35 clock hours of work per semester hour. Prerequisites: BIB 213, NTE 103, and OTE 103. Approval from the Bible & Theology Department Chair is also required.

BIB 433 Leviticus & Hebrews (3 hours, fall even years)

A content study in Leviticus and Hebrews showing the interrelationship between the Old Testament sacrificial system and the New Testament authors' understanding of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. It also deals with such areas as authorship and destination of Hebrews, spiritual state of the epistle's original readers, author's purpose and method, and the relation between Old and New Covenants. Prerequisites: BIB 213, NTE 103 and OTE 103.

BIB 443 Daniel & Revelation (3 hours, spring)

This course is an analysis of the apocalyptic books of Daniel and Revelation, especially their symbolic visions, in the light of their historical settings. Prerequisites: BIB 213, NTE 103 and OTE 103.

BIO – BIOLOGY

BIO 104 General Biology (4 hours, fall)

A broad overview of the biological sciences for non-majors including, but not limited to, scientific methodology, components of the cell, taxonomy, basic biochemistry, fundamental principles of genetics, environmental science, and biotechnology. Three lecture hours and one two-hour lab are held each week. Special emphasis will be placed on areas fulfilling GACE II standards for early childhood science education. Prerequisite: None.

BIO 114 Biology I (4 hours, fall)

This course teaches basic cellular biochemistry with emphasis on DNA replication, transcription, translation, and enzyme function. The characteristics and significance of kingdoms Monera, Protista, Fungi, and Plantae are also surveyed. Three lecture hours and one two-hour lab are held each week. Prerequisite: None.

BIO 124 Biology II (4 hours, spring)

This course gives principles of classical genetics and the major advances of the biotechnological revolution, including recombinant DNA technology, genomic sequencing, and organismal cloning. In addition, divergent theories regarding the origin and diversity of life (i.e., evolutionary vs. creation) are discussed in detail. A zoological survey concludes the lecture portion of the course and assumes central importance in the laboratory via a range of dissections. Three lecture hours and one two-hour lab are held each week. Prerequisite: BIO 114.

BIO 214 Anatomy & Physiology I (4 hours, fall)

This course studies the anatomy and physiology of the human body. Chemical topics include solutions and ions, acid - bases, simple organic compounds, structures and reactions of carbohydrates, lipids and proteins. It also focuses on cells, tissues, physiological stress, and body systems such as skeletal, muscular, nervous and endocrine. The laboratories incorporate the use of models, specimens, and the collecting of physiological data. Three lecture hours and one two-hour lab are held each week. Prerequisites: BIO 114 and BIO 124.

BIO 224 Anatomy & Physiology II (4 hours, spring)

This class is a continuation of BIO 214. The anatomy and physiology of the human body with appropriate chemical concepts is included. Body systems examined include respiratory, cardiovascular, lymphatic and immune response, digestive, renal, reproductive, genetics and human development. Anatomical and physiological changes associated with aging are also studied. Laboratory activities incorporate the use of models, specimens, and the collection of physiological data on human subjects. Three lecture hours and one two-hour lab are held each week. Prerequisite: BIO 214.

BIO 234 General Microbiology (4 hours, spring)

A thorough overview of bacteria, viruses, and eukaryotic microorganisms. Special consideration is given to medically important microbes, methods of microbial control, and the growing problem of antibiotic resistance. Basic immunology is also addressed. Growth, isolation and identification of microorganisms are emphases of the laboratory portion of the course. Three lecture hours and one two-hour lab are held each week. Prerequisite: None.

BIO 313 Evolutionary Biology (3 hours, spring even years)

This course provides an in-depth study of evolutionary theory, including current proposed models for evolutionary mechanisms, fossil evidence, and molecular biological advances. Initial emphasis will be placed on knowledge specifically required in the marketplace of ideas, with subsequent development of a framework of integration of that knowledge into the biblical worldview. Prerequisites: BIO 114 and BIO 124, or permission of the instructor.

BIO 314 Genetics (4 hours, fall odd years)

Study of the foundational concepts of prokaryotic and eukaryotic genetics, including principles of inheritance, mutations, chromosome aberrations, genetic mapping, population genetics, DNA organization, gene regulation and genomics. Prerequisites: BIO 114 and BIO 124.

BIO 323 Introduction to Global Public Health (3 hours, spring odd years)

This course is designed to provide a foundation in public health assessment and health-related policies, specifically related to underserved communities. We will explore the services required to stabilize and maintain the health of a population, including hygiene, nutrition, safe water, waste handling, and basic medical needs, as well as defining social and political challenges to implementing these services. Prerequisite: BIO 104 or BIO 114.

BIO 401-3 Independent Study (1-3 hours, either semester or summer)

Advanced students are permitted to secure specialized training appropriate to individual needs. Students will pursue a rigorous plan of investigation with the guidance of a faculty member. The project may involve original laboratory research, intensive library research of a specialized topic, or comprehensive study of a biological discipline not represented in the regular course offerings. Prerequisites: at least 15 hours of biology and approval of the Biology Coordinator.

BIO 411 Senior Seminar (1 hour, spring)

A forum promoting the integration of intellectual and spiritual development for the student majoring in biology. This capstone course is taught in a seminar format, stresses the importance of interdisciplinary thinking and the formation of a thorough Christian worldview, and requires the completion of a substantial research paper/presentation. Major topics of discussion include bioethics, philosophies of science, and the relationship between science and Christianity. Prerequisite: None.

BIO 413 Cell Biology (3 hours, fall even years)

In-depth analysis of cell architecture, the function of cellular components, and the regulation of cellular processes. Major topics include membrane structure and function, the cell cycle, signal transduction, organellogenesis, protein trafficking, and mechanisms of cellular control. Prerequisite: BIO 114 and BIO 124.

BIO 423 Ecology (3 hours, fall odd years)

Examination of abiotic environmental factors, population and community dynamics, terrestrial biomes, aquatic ecosystems, and animal behavior. Prerequisites: BIO 104 or BIO 114 and BIO 124.

BMI - BIBLICAL MISSIONS

BMI 213 Theology of Missions (3 hours, either semester)

This course is a study of the biblical basis of missions and its centrality to the nature of God, the church, the evangelistic mandate, and one's own personal life. The second half of the study deals primarily with discussing new paradigms for missions in today's world. Prerequisite: None.

BMI 473 Power Encounter (3 hours, spring)

This course examines a biblical worldview concerning the "spiritual forces of evil." It considers cross-cultural and intra-cultural power encounters in Scripture, church history and the contemporary scene and principles and methodologies for ministry to people involved with forces of evil. It discusses the relationship of power encounter to world evangelism, healing, human behavior and pastoral activity. Prerequisite: junior or senior status.

BSF – BIBLICAL SPIRITUAL FORMATION

BSF 103 Foundations of Spiritual Formation (either semester)

This course serves as the gateway course into the curriculum and student-life experience of Toccoa Falls College. Building on a foundation of biblical texts and principles, this course is designed to orient the student to the cognitive, affective, and volitional nature of spiritual formation, its practices and potential challenges, and explores how spiritual formation is integrated throughout the curricular and co-curricular components of Christian higher education. This course will also help students learn how personal evangelism, world evangelism and effective ministry flow from a commitment to spiritual formation. Prerequisite: None.

BUS - BUSINESS

BUS 113 Introduction to Business (3 hours, either semester; offered as scheduled online)

This survey course assumes no prior study of business. Emphasis is on business terminology and the environments in which business functions. Topics covered include an overview of forms of business ownership, internal organization, structure, management functions, marketing and finance activities, labor unions, production, insurance, and government as it relates to business. Students will prepare a business plan. Prerequisite: None.

BUS 303 Business for Nonprofit Organizations (3 hours, offered as announced; offered as scheduled online)

This course is an introductory study of the administration and management of churches, mission agencies, schools, and Christian institutions, agencies and ministries, applying principles, procedures, and techniques used in today's business world. Topics include organizational structures, staffing and paying personnel, stewardship, financing and funding budgets and building programs, accounting records and reports, computer information systems, facilities and equipment, public relation, and legal compliance of the nonprofit organization. Sample models, forms and examples will be distributed to students. Prerequisite: None.

BUS 313 Organization & Administration of Sport (3 hours, fall odd years)

Basic principles of organization, administration, and supervision are taught. Emphasis is placed on staffing, finance, purchasing, scheduling, care of facilities and equipment, public relations, and liability. Prerequisite: None.

BUS 323 Nonprofit Ethics & Social Responsibilities (3 hours, offered as scheduled online)

Learners in this course examine the ethical environment and social responsibilities of nonprofits. The purpose of this course is to introduce students to ethical concepts, theories and issues as they relate to nonprofits and managerial decision making. All organizations operate in a social and ethical environment, and managers make decisions with moral significance and consequences. Thus consideration of ethics and the social responsibilities are relevant both for effective managing and for nonprofits properly fulfilling their function(s) in the larger society. Prerequisite: None.

BUS 333 Business Ethics (3 hours, spring)

A study of a Christian World View as contrasted with other world views and its application to a variety of business and occupational areas. After laying a foundation of ethical theory, the course will stress biblical integration into business decision making and operations. Emphasis is on practical application of ethical principles through case studies, articles, discussions of audio and video tapes, a research paper, and guest lecturers. Prerequisite: None.

BUS 343 Business Law (3 hours, fall)

This course is a study of the basic principles of law that apply to business transactions and the legal environment of business. Topics cover contracts, agency, bailments, negotiable instruments, forms of business organization, sales, estates, real property, and bankruptcy. Prerequisite: None.

BUS 353 Business Communication (3 hours, offered as announced)

This course is a study of written and oral communication skills necessary in a business environment. CAE 313 Planning & Administration of Adult Education (3 hours, fall)

This course introduces students to the planning and administration of education programs for adults. Special emphasis is placed on ethnographically based critical planning theory. Students will be introduced to the work of Tyler, Freire, and Cervero. Prerequisite: None

CAE 323 Adult Teaching Practice (3 hours, spring)

This course is designed to develop the student's knowledge and skill in the practice of teaching adults. Topics such as teaching style, critical reflective practice, lesson plan development, and teaching methodology are covered. Students are also given opportunity to develop their skills in teaching adults through in-class teaching modules. Prerequisite: CAE 213 Introduction to Adult Education.

CAE 352-6 Adult Education Internship (2-6 hours, summer)

Students are provided the opportunity to sharpen their adult teaching and organizational skills through practical service in a cross-cultural adult educational situation. Time necessary in the teaching context is at least six weeks. Prerequisite: CAE 323 Adult Teaching Practice.

CAE 493 Adult Education Strategy Project (3 hours, spring)

This course provides the student majoring in Cross-cultural Adult Education the opportunity to be a part of a diverse team which, in conjunction with church planting, develops a strategy to establish an adult education program among a specific people group. Skills in teamwork, critical thinking, strategic planning, and project presentation are refined. Prerequisite: CAE 352 and ANT 483 Anthropology Research Project.

CHM – CHEMISTRYCHM 214 Chemistry I (4 hours, fall)

This course is an introduction to the transformation of matter in chemical reactions and the energy changes that accompany these reactions. This course also covers states of matter, stoichiometry, and atomic structures in detail. Three lecture hours and one two-hour lab are held each week. Prerequisite: None.

CHM 224 Chemistry II (4 hours, spring)

This course is an introduction to acids and bases, reaction kinetics and chemical equilibria. Reactions of chemical elements and compounds are described, and the separation and identification of inorganic compounds are studied in detail. Qualitative inorganic analysis is covered in lecture and lab. Three lecture hours and one two-hour lab are held each week. Prerequisite: CHM 214.

CHM 314 Organic Chemistry I (4 hours, fall even years)

As the first of a two-semester sequence of organic chemistry, topics include relative reactivity of organic molecules, stereochemistry, functional groups, introduction to reaction mechanisms, and beginning synthesis. It provides an introduction to organic chemistry for entrance into medical, dental, veterinary, and pharmacy schools. Biology majors may, in most cases, use this sequence for their requirements; however, some schools will not transfer this sequence to satisfy their requirements for chemistry majors. A three-hour lab per week is included as part of this course. Prerequisite: CHM 224 with grade of "C-" or better.

CHM 324 Organic Chemistry II (4 hours, spring odd years)

As the second semester course in the two-semester sequence, topics include an in-depth study of reaction mechanisms and the synthesis of more complex molecules. The study of sugars, organic acids, aldehydes, ketones, aromatic compounds, and molecular spectroscopy is included. A three-hour lab per week is included as part of this course. Prerequisite: Completion of Organic Chemistry I with "C-" or better.

CHM 414 Biochemistry (4 hours, offered as announced)

An overview of the fundamental chemical processes of living organisms. Topics emphasized include the structure of biological macromolecules, metabolic pathways, enzyme kinetics, and structure-function relationships. Prerequisites: BIO 114, BIO 124, CHM 214, CHM 224.

CMP – MUSIC COMPOSITIONCMP 322 Contemporary Song Writing (2 hours, spring)

Students will gain an understanding of popular music theory as well as the structure of popular, contemporary music. This will include arranging popular tunes and writing original pieces. Prerequisite: By permission of instructor.

This course is a continuation of CON 311. Prerequisite: CON 311.

CON 331 Instrumental Conducting (1 hour, spring)
This course features study in instrumental conducting including refinement of baton technique, score analysis, rehearsal techniques, and band/orchestra literature. Prerequisite: MUT 113.

CSC - COMPUTER SCIENCE

CSC 113 Introduction to Computers (3 hours, offered as announced)
This course is designed to familiarize the student with today's Mac and PC operation and application. Application will be developed through the use of word processing, spreadsheet, and database software. Prerequisite: None.

CSC 123 Applied Technology (3 hours, fall)
This course provides an overview and understanding of today's computer technology, with an emphasis on the application of real world technology. Students will gain hands-on knowledge and experience necessary for implementing technology in their personal and professional lives. Prerequisite: None.

CSC 173 Introduction to Music Technology (3 hours, either semester)
This class is for Music Majors only. Through study and laboratory experience, this course explores the applications of technology as they relate to composition, performance, analysis, teaching, and research. Prerequisite: By permission of instructor.

CSC 303 Technology for Teachers (3 hours, either semester)
This course acquaints the future teacher with a variety of educational technologies. Emphasis is on using a computer for teacher tasks, for classroom instruction, for research, and for online portfolio development. Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

CSC 393 Management Information Systems (3 hours, spring; offered as scheduled online)
Examining information systems from a business perspective, this course is designed to facilitate improvement of problem-solving skills and business professionalism within the context of information systems. Emphasis will be placed on the use and design of information systems within the organization, including developments in both hardware and software used to solve management problems. Prerequisite: ACC 213 is recommended.

CSC 401-3 Independent Study (1-3 hours, either semester or summer)
The methodology of this individualized academic framework will be determined by the professor directing the course, in consultation with the student requesting this course of study. Prerequisite: The student must secure advance approval from the Department Chair of Humanities & Natural Sciences.

CSG - COUNSELING

CSG 113 Introduction to Counseling (3 hours, either semester or summer)
This course offers an introduction to the field of counseling. Christian and humanistic worldviews are contrasted. Christian and secular approaches to counseling are outlined and contrasted. Case studies are assigned for analysis and discussion. Class

This course gives credit for supervised and approved work experience in related fields. Minimum of 210 hours of on-the-job experience required. Assessment is required. Graded on an S/U basis. Prerequisite: Junior status.

LED – LEADERSHIPLED 233X Biblical Foundations of Leadership (3 hours, fall; offered as scheduled online)

See MIN 233 for course description.

LED 313 Building & Leading Teams (3 hours, offered as scheduled online)

This course focuses on how to build and lead successful teams in the marketplace. Team building models will be analyzed with emphasis on actionable steps that can be taken to overcome common hurdles and build cohesive, high performing teams. The principles of coaching and coaching strategies are explored. An emphasis will be placed on the role of the leader in developing successful work teams, project teams, virtual teams, and inter-organizational teams. Prerequisite: None.

LED 323X Leadership & Management Theory (3 hours, spring; offered as scheduled online)

See MIN 323 for course description.

LED 363X Servant Leadership (3 hours, offered as scheduled online)

See MAN 363 for course description.

LED 383 Leading Organizational Change (3 hours, offered as scheduled online)

This course focuses on the theoretical concepts, practices, and impact of change on an organization in order to lead sustainable organizational change efforts in the context of a highly competitive, rapidly changing, and evolving global economy. Learners study how to prepare the organization, plant the details, execute a change process across an organization, and measure the plan's effectiveness and the change it brings to achieve continuous improvement. Prerequisite: None.

LED 413X Strategies for Leadership Development (3 hours, fall; offered as scheduled online)

See MIN 413 for course description.

LED 453 Cross-Cultural Leadership (3 hours, offered as scheduled online)

In a rapidly changing world, leaders need to recognize the dynamics of globalization and cross-cultural communication. The underlying theme of this course is that the skills and behaviors that are perceived as effective leadership characteristics in one culture are not necessarily those that will be effective in a different culture. Learners will analyze various theoretical frameworks to help them identify culture's effect on attitudes and behaviors, as well as on approaches to ethics, motivational practices, negotiation patterns, strategic decision making, and change. Prerequisite: ECO 213, 223.

LED 493 Organizational Leadership Research (3 hours, offered as scheduled online)

This capstone course empowers organizational leadership and management students to survey the applicable literature in order to develop at least three deliverables: 1) a written personal philosophy of organizational leadership, 2) a research project involving investigation of a contemporary leadership issue approved by the instructor, and 3) a reflection project that integrates contemporary issues in organizational leadership with Christian character and intellect. Prerequisite: senior status or permission of instructor.

MAN – MANAGEMENTMAN 213 Principles of Management (3 hours, either semester; offered as scheduled online)

This is an introduction to the foundational principles and basic management techniques which every manager must master to succeed in today's fast-changing competitive environment. Emphasis is on the managerial functions of planning, organizing, staffing, leading, and controlling. Prerequisite: None.

MAT - MATHEMATICS

MAT 113 Mathematical Modeling (3 hours, either semester; offered summer online)

This course is a study of ways to explore real-world data and phenomena, using graphical, numerical, symbolic, and verbal techniques. Mathematical Modeling explores Set Theory as a problem solving tool. The course explores Logic and the use of a valid argument. Further discussions in the course are linear functions, linear inequalities, quadratic functions, exponential and logarithmic functions. Each of these is used to solve real-world problems. Linear inequalities are used to solve linear programming problems. The course examines the real-world situations using Geometry. Prerequisite: None.

MAT 123 Mathematics for Teachers (3 hours, spring)

This course is a study of the number systems and their operations, base-ten numeration, number theory, statistics, geometric concepts including coordinate geometry and transformations. The historical development of mathematics is examined. The "Abacists vs Algorists" theory (calculator vs. mental math) is examined as it applied to modern technology, giving experience on both views. Prerequisite: MAT 113 or equivalent.

MAT 133 College Algebra (3 hours, fall)

This course is a study of polynomials and functions, examining the operations and graphing of functions with a heavy emphasis on solving real world problems. Opportunity is given for the use of technology in solving problems. Prerequisite: None.

MAT 253 Introduction to Statistics (3 hours, either semester or summer; offered spring online)

This course is a survey of the basics of statistics. Topics include various graphs, measures of central tendency, measures of variation, probability rules, probability distributions, binomial probabilities, Central Limit Theorem, and estimating. Prerequisite: None.

MAT 263 College Trigonometry (3 hours, spring even years)

This course is a study of the foundations of trigonometry and their applications. Topics include the trigonometric functions and their graphs, trigonometric identities and operations, solving trigonometric equations, the laws of the sines and cosines, polar coordinates, and the trigonometric form of a complex number. Prerequisite: MAT 133 or permission of the professor.

MAT 313 Modern Geometry (3 hours, spring odd years)

This course is a study of the basics of geometry. Topics include the basic two-dimensional and three-dimensional shapes, dimensional analysis, formulas for perimeter, area, surface area, and volume, reasoning and proofs in geometry, triangle congruence, problem solving using triangle congruence, constructions, applications of parallel lines, ratios and proportions, similar triangles, circles, coordinate geometry, and transformation geometry. Prerequisite: MAT 133 or permission of the professor.

MAT 323 Elements of Calculus (3 hours, spring)

This course is a study of limits and their properties, differentiation, and applying calculus concepts to real-world settings. Prerequisite: MAT 133 or permission of the professor.

MCM - MASS COMMUNICATION

MCM 201 Mass Communication Practicum (1 hour, either semester or summer)

This course will offer opportunities for special training or specific project work in video, radio broadcasting, or journalism. This course may be repeated up to three times over four semesters. It is graded on an S/U basis. Requires permission of the instructor. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 203 Introduction to Mass Communication (3 hours, spring even years)

This course introduces students to the foundational concepts and terms in the field of Mass Communication. This course exposes students to an integration of the knowledge of Mass Communication with a biblical worldview. This course is a gateway for all Mass Communication courses for majors. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 213 Media Production (3 hours, fall odd years)

This course introduces the basic principles, techniques and equipment of video and audio production and editing. Basic proficiency is achieved in video and audio production through hands-on experience with basic audio and video equipment. Students participate in both group and individual creative projects. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 293 Film & Digital Photography (3 hours, offered as announced)

This course includes the rudiments of film photography with special attention given to the use of digital photographic cameras and software. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 313 Introduction to Journalism (3 hours, spring odd years)

This course looks at the history of journalism and its current manifestations in contemporary times. The principles of news gathering and writing for the mass media will be covered along with applying those principles through the writing of stories. Prerequisites: ENG 113 and MCM 203.

MCM 333 Rhetoric of Media (3 hours, fall odd years)

This course will explore the history of communication arts and the medium employed to record and distribute information. The course will particularly emphasize the prominent place of rhetoric in the world of communications and demonstrate how rhetoric has been impacted by the development of communication technologies. It will further seek to demonstrate the inherent rhetoric present in communication technologies. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 353 Broadcast Journalism (3 hours, offered as announced)

This course considers the process and practical aspects of gathering, writing, editing, and reporting news for the electronic media. It also provides a framework for evaluation of these skills on a continual basis. Prerequisite: MCM 203.

MCM 363 Narrative & Image (3 hours, fall even years)

This course will investigate the cultural forms of narrative and image present within mass communication media. Attention will be paid to the formative function of both word and image and the cultural forms that are produced and consumed. Special consideration will be given to the biblical narrative and theological construct of the image of God. Prerequisite: None.

This course examines the process and practice of writing for different genres of contemporary media. Emphasis will be placed on newswriting, editorials, and public relations. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 383 Genres (3 hours, spring odd years)

The focus of this course is the study of genre in film. The course will examine the development, history, definitions, sociocultural roles, and the blending of genres within visual media. Attention will be given to narrative structure, aesthetics, character and social group stereotyping, and popular appeal of generic patterns. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 401-3 Independent Study (1-3 hours, offered as announced)

This is an individual study for the advanced Mass Communication student. Advance approval by the Communication Department Chair is required. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 423 Advanced Radio Production (3 hours, offered as announced)

This course offers training and practical experience in these specialized areas: multi-channel recording for use in commercials and promotional announcements plus syndication and satellite programming. This course will enable students to develop quality programming acceptable for use at any radio station. Current trends and principles used in radio production will also be discussed. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 443 Advanced Video Production (3 hours, offered as announced)

Dramatic video production will explore single camera dramatic production. Students will produce a 30-second dramatic commercial and a dramatic scene on video tape. Students will learn how to work with a production crew, write dramatic scripts, etc. Prerequisite: None.

MCM 493 Mass Communication Internship (3 hours, either semester or summer)

This course gives credit for supervised and approved work experience in related fields. Minimum of 210 hours of on the job experience required. Assessment is required. Graded on an S/U basis. Prerequisite: Junior status.

MED - MUSIC EDUCATION

MED 122 Introduction to the Teaching of Music (2 hours, spring)

This course is designed to have the music education student begin to develop abilities related to the teaching of music K-12. Students will demonstrate knowledge and abilities in planning, teaching, and interpersonal skills related to the music content area. The course is structured to demonstrate appropriate models of instruction for performance classes, exploratory, general classroom, advanced placement, and elective possibilities using content specified by NASM and Common Core Georgia Performance Standards (CCGPS). A four hour directed field-based experience is required. Prerequisite: None.

MED 211 Woodwind Methods (1 hour, fall)

This is a basic laboratory course covering teaching principles, methods, and materials for woodwind orchestral instruments using content specified by NASM and Common Core Georgia Performance Standards. Through hands-on experience, students will learn proper playing position, embouchure formation, tone production, breath support, articulation, and routine care and maintenance of all the standard woodwind instruments. Prerequisite: 2.7 GPA.

MED 222 Teaching Music in the Elementary School (2 hours, spring)

This course is designed to stimulate critical thinking concerning the teaching profession and the role of the elementary music teacher as an integral element in the musical, aesthetic, intellectual, and socio-emotional development of the elementary child. This course will prepare students with competencies necessary to creatively formulate, plan, effectively teach, and evaluate a thorough elementary music program using content specified by NASM and Common Core Georgia Performance Standards. A five hour directed field-based experience is required. Prerequisite: 2.7 GPA.

MED 300 Content Literacy Field Experience (0 hour, winterim)
This course is a 40 hour field-based experience in any classroom for the purpose of observing literacy concerns at the grade level on which the student is interested. The objective for this field experience is to observe, record and assess knowledge, skills and character in any classroom. The Music Education major will also focus on content issues related to their respective fields. Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

MED 311 Brass Methods (1 hour, fall)
This is a basic laboratory course covering teaching principles, methods, and materials for brass orchestral instruments. Through hands-on experience, students will learn proper playing position, embouchure formation, tone production, breath support, articulation, and routine care and maintenance of all the standard brass instruments using content specified by NASM and Common Core Georgia Performance Standards. Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

MED 312 Music Methods & Materials for Middle and High School (2 hours, fall)
This course will prepare the music education major for classroom teaching at the middle school and high school levels and will cover organization of a total sequential music program using content specified by NASM and Common Core Curriculum. A major component of the course will be the preparation and presentation of research projects and unit plans on multi-cultural music, jazz, twentieth century music and musical theater, correlated to the National Standards and Common Core Georgia Performance Standards. Students will teach at least one of these units in the public schools. A five hour directed field-based experience is required. Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

MED 321 Percussion Methods (1 hour, spring)
This is a basic laboratory course covering teaching principles, methods, and materials for percussion instruments using content specified by NASM and Common Core Georgia Performance Standards. Through hands-on experience, students will learn proper hand position on all mallets and sticks, correct execution of strokes, and techniques of producing the desired sound on each instrument. Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

MED 411 String Methods (1 hour, fall)
This is a basic laboratory course covering teaching principles, methods, and materials for string orchestral instruments using content specified by NASM and Common Core Georgia Performance Standards. Through hands-on experience students will learn proper playing position, tone production, bowings, routine maintenance and care of all the standard string instruments. Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

YTH 443 Counseling Adolescents (3 hours, fall; offered as scheduled online)

This course will teach students the basic skills of counseling adolescents. It includes strategies and techniques for dealing with developmental and crisis issues facing the contemporary adolescent. Subjects such as identity and self-image, parent-teen relationships, eating disorders, substance abuse, suicide and depression, and sexuality will be covered. Prerequisite: for Youth Ministries majors, YTH 253; for non YTH majors, CSG 113.

YTH 453 Youth Ministry in Cultural Contexts (3 hours, fall, odd years; offered as scheduled online)

This course is an in depth study of youth ministry in cultural contexts. It explores urban youth ministry, multi-cultural youth ministry, and youth ministry in cross-cultural settings. Various issues emerging from multi and cross-cultural youth ministries, as well as perspectives of multiple ethnicities are explored. These issues and perspectives are placed in the light of contextually relevant church and faith-based youth ministries. Prerequisite: None.

YTH 463 Seminar in Youth Ministry (3 hours, spring; offered as scheduled online)

This capstone course will be composed of a cohort of youth ministry students. Curriculum will include at least five components: 1) a written doctrinal statement, 2) an integrative comprehensive exam (written and oral) related to youth ministry and based on previous courses, 3) contemporary issues in youth ministry, 4) placement issues, and 5) the integration of character and intellect. Prerequisite: senior status.

YTH 473 Youth Ministry Internship (3 hours, summer)

This course allows practical application of the laws of learning and educational administration in a youth ministry situation. Students will be involved in an approved youth ministry assignment and will receive the benefit of supervision and evaluation. Prerequisites: 90 completed hours or approval by the Ministry & Leadership Department Chair, and acceptance to the Ministry & Leadership Department.
